

The Beast of Nazi Germany

25th Day of the 6th Month 6019

Scripture is filled with prophecies of warning about the deception and delusion that comes with the Final Beast Empire before Yeshua's return. One of the most deceptive beasts to ever rise to power was that of Nazi Germany, and it provides a picture and lesson of how the Final Beast will deceive those who are not firmly grounded in Yahuweh/Yehovah, in who he is as a person and his instruction in Scripture.

There is a time coming when Nazism will rise again to power, come back to life and cover the world in darkness and deception. And it is important to understand what the deception of Nazism is in order to not fall into its deceptions or to let it intimidate you into submission. The reality is that Nazism as an ideology never went away after World War II, it went underground into the nations of the earth and is now more widespread with greater delusional power than ever. The root of Nazism is still here on the earth ready to rise again, but it will have a brand new face and image to it, which most will not recognize if they are not prepared for it, especially prepared in their faith in the Lamb Yeshua.

And it is important to understand that even as the Nazis and the spirit of the delusion of Hitler rises again (but this time as the Little Horn in Daniel 7 and 8) it cannot have its throne and power in Berlin or in Germany. The Little Horn and the Beast will rule over the nation of Germany and use it to some extent as a power center, but it cannot be the throne and primary center of power of the Little Horn. The Little Horn has to rule with its throne of power and its 'National Socialist' form of Nazi delusion from another place on earth this time, not from Germany.

The word 'Nazi' has become common place and recognizable by people around the world, but many do not know what the word 'Nazi' actually means. Nazi is only a shortened form of the name of the German political party Nationalsozialistische Deutsche Arbeiterpartei, which translates into English as the National Socialist German Worker's Party, and was not officially used by the Nazis themselves. Adolph Hitler became the face and leadership of the party almost from its founding, and the political ideology of the party was and still is National Socialism. National Socialism was really simultaneously invented by Hitler and the Nazi Party in Germany, and by Mussolini and the Italian Socialist Party in Italy. In Germany they called National Socialism by the name Nazism and in Italy they called National Socialism by the name Fascism, but they were and still are essentially the same ideologies and philosophies for running governments and nations.

Right away at the beginning the term National Socialism makes one think that it is an ideology that is rooted in the belief of Nationalism, but this is actually not the case. National Socialism can be Nationalistic and used by Nationalists, but it is a form of government that can be used by anyone of global or nationalist belief. The core operation of National Socialism has nothing to do with Nationalism, and can change and adapt to fit into any person's ideology who is wanting to implement socialism as the form of government in a society. So when one understands that National Socialism has nothing to do with Nationalism, it makes it much easier to understand what it is and how it is currently being used and implemented in various forms in almost every nation on earth today. Nationalism was the cause which the Nazis happened to exploit in Germany, but other causes can be used in place of Nationalism.

National Socialism and Communism are almost identical in their Socialist beliefs and ideologies. Even though they have been enemies at war throughout the 20th century, they are almost identical twins in their Socialist beliefs on running governments and society. But there are also some very key differences between them, which is what makes National Socialism (first implemented by the Italian Fascists and German Nazis) into a more powerful and more deceptive political force and ideology than Communism.

Socialism in its basic form is the redistribution of wealth and resources equally among everyone in a society. Everything the society produces is theoretically supposed to be gathered together into a big giant pile, and then from that pile everyone receives equally the same amount of stuff as everyone else in the society. From each according to their ability; to each according to their need. This is the theory of socialism, but because of human nature the reality is that when there is no incentive to work harder for better pay or income, and there is a guaranteed amount for everyone regardless of the amount of effort put into their work, people automatically do the least and poorest quality work required of them, which over time slowly reduces the pool of resources until the society devolves into equal, extreme poverty for everyone. Communism is also restrictive in that it is purely International Socialism that requires the removal of all national or ethnic identities of people under its rule. But history has proven Communism to have completely failed in this regard, as it has continually failed to remove the national identity of the people under its control.

Communism (invented by Karl Marx) is too extreme in its implementation of Socialism, and this is why North Korea and Cuba are the only two purely Communist countries still in existence today, and even those two countries are abandoning Communism to become more nationalist in their ideologies. Communism only works with some form of dictatorship or government with absolute power. This is because Communism requires the government to own and control all business, industry, agricultural, and educational facilities. People are not allowed private ownership and the government has complete control over all property and function of the economy and society. No one has any choice about what job they will do in the society or how they will live. The government has complete authority to determine where each individual lives and the job they work in and there is very little free will or freedom left to the individual.

National Socialism fixes this problem in Communism by giving people the illusion of freedom, with limited choices and property ownership. In National Socialism people are still allowed to own and run their own businesses or choose their place of employment in what appears to be a free economy. Only a few industries are run by the government where needed. The citizens are allowed to own their own land and property and live their lives according to their own way. But the government micro-manages the economy by passing laws that govern how businesses and industries are allowed to operate. Laws are used to limit prices or control how much of a product can be made. The government has complete control over regulating the economy. Instead of the government owning all of the hospitals as in Communism, it makes tax laws that require everyone to pay a certain amount regularly into a health care system in order to provide free health care for anyone who needs it. It takes people's resources through taxes into a pool, and then in theory redistributes all those resources equally to everyone through social services like healthcare or welfare. In true and pure Communism the government just seizes everyone's assets, but in National Socialism the government takes a portion of people's assets through taxes, taking more from the rich and wealthy, in order to in theory redistribute that wealth to the masses in social programs. In reality the money ends up in the hands of the people running the government as they make themselves wealthier with it.

National Socialism tries to achieve the same goals as Communism, but does so in a more gradual way, done more by stealth from the shadows. It is a less extreme implementation of Socialism that is more palatable for society, but it still results in the same goal of the government running in the same way that a gangster or mob or organized crime ring would run a government. It might take longer for the government to become that way in National Socialism, but it does still end up that way in the end when it is fully implemented.

But what makes National Socialism more attractive to power hungry governments than Communism is that it is compatible with almost any form of government from a Dictatorship to a Democracy. It in fact works best in Democracies where the will of the people are the driving force behind the takeover and transformation of a government, in the same way as Hitler took over Germany in a few short years. And National Socialism focuses its control on the education system and the programming of the minds of the younger generations in government run schools. Unlike Communism, National Socialism convinces people that they are part of something bigger; it romanticizes the government and instills them with the idea that their highest calling is to sacrifice everything for the government, to die for the government, for the good of whatever people group or society they are a member. Anything can be generically inserted as the thing to make people have complete devotion in the government and their leaders. Communism also tries to do this, but it is in a sloppy way that tries to force everyone into devotion by punishment, instead of deceptively making people believe in their devotion to the government themselves through delusion.

These are some of the basic differences between National Socialism and Communism, but what is the philosophy of National Socialism? On the outside it looks orderly and controlled, but at its core it turns into a very evil ideology that should be rejected. Yet somehow nations all over the world still continue to use it in bits and pieces. The greatest danger of National Socialism is its ability to shapeshift and transform and become any deception that it needs to be to fool people, changing into any deception a particular individual is willing to accept. Here is a list in no particular order of ideologies and philosophies of National Socialism as formed by the Nazis and Fascists in Germany and Italy. [It should be noted that most of the philosophies of National Socialism were around for at least a hundred years or more before the Nazis. They were the ones who brought them all together and re-packaged them into a movement.]

1. National Socialism is not really a political ideology; at its core it is a philosophical movement that before World War II had spread into countries all over the world. Even in America there were many members of the Nazi party, because they believed in the philosophy of National Socialism, not because they believed in a political party.

The Revelation 13 Beast is not going to be about politics either; it will be a belief system that is a movement that will cause people to want to believe in it and believe in its teachings and ideologies. It is a movement around the world where people from every nation, language, and tribe believe in the belief system of the Beast. But at the same time the Beast and the Little Horn ruler over the Beast are not able to rule over or have control over every nation on earth as shown in Revelation 16, where the Beast has to go and convince the rulers of the nations not under its control to ally with it against Jerusalem and Israel.

2. National Socialism is all about looking cool and hip with symbols and uniforms, outwardly looking sleek and stylish. It is all about making people want to join and be a member of a movement or a close family, getting in on all of the secrets and the power promised from being a wheel in the collective machine. It uses whatever is popular to people at the time and makes people want to join and be part of the cool peer group. It is no different than the same idea of a club, promising special status in society for members, making people feel wanted or powerful or full of purpose in life. It involves a lot of pageantry and orchestration to present the philosophy of National Socialism and the ruling government as perfect and all powerful.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also use symbols for membership as part of the movement, inviting people to join them like a club so that they can be part of the 'in' crowd. It is the promise of getting to be part of something allegedly greater than one's own self.

3. Instead of the government being in complete control of the economy and trade, the government micro-manages the economy. People are able to run their own businesses and industries, but the government controls the economy and businesses through regulations. It is not purely Capitalism or Socialism, but is a mix of Capitalist Socialism, called Controlled Capitalism. Today China is Communist in name only, and is currently using National Socialism as its form of government, running the economy in the same Controlled Capitalism way as the Nazis and Fascists. National Socialism also does not believe in pitting the classes as enemies against each other, but instead redistributes wealth through taxation. But it also has the very opposite ideology of Communism that it is OK according to the beliefs of Darwinian evolution for those who truly work harder and smarter than everyone else to get wealthier than others, because it is part of natural selection and the survival of the fittest.

The Revelation 13 Beast also allows the economy to run with an illusion of some freedom, but ultimately it is in complete control of the economy, including who is able to buy and sell.

4. A part of National Socialism is to create identification marks for the purpose of separating groups in society. There are identification marks of and symbols for those deemed the 'good' members of society, and other identification marks for those who are considered to be the 'bad' people who need to be removed from society. Those who stand up against National Socialism or refuse to follow any rules of the government are considered 'bad' and have to be marked for shunning or imprisonment or re-education or extermination. Both symbol and number styles of marks are used, but the Nazis primarily used marks to prevent people from buying and selling, rather than requiring a mark for buying and selling.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also use identification marks like the Nazis did, but it will be those who love or are in submission to the government who will use identification marks for buying and selling in the economy. The focus in the Final Beast is on the 'good' members of society using marks to show that they are compliant and good citizens of the Beast Empire, because they are following the rules in order to be able to be part of the economy. It is unknown if the non-compliant who refuse to bow down and worship the beast will also be given identification marks showing their rebellion against the evil of the beast.

5. An important part for the power of National Socialism is its creation of villains and crises that are enemies of the people. This helps unite all of the people together behind the government in its crusade to wipe out the villains or solve the crisis. It does not matter who the villains are or what the crisis is, so long as it is something that sounds really big and horrible, something that is too big for the people to handle on their own without a government and strong leader to save them. Whenever there is a real crisis available it is used, such as the collapse of the German economy in the 1920's used by the Nazis to get into power. But when there is no villain for the people to unite together in hating, a villain has to be invented, which in the case of the Nazis was invented and false conspiracy theories about the Jewish people.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also have its own creation of villains, which will be any believer in Yeshua who does not worship the beast. And of course the Jewish people will again be falsely vilified, especially Israel, by the Final Beast as it tries to destroy Israel at the end of the tribulation.

6. One of the vital components of National Socialism is to take control of the media and air waves, taking control of the message the public hears to the point that the only thing available for people to watch or listen to in the news is the propaganda of the National Socialists and their worldview. The word propaganda simply refers to the hiding of truth in order to distort reality to look differently from the way it really is, or to look like how those in power want reality to be in their imaginary dream world. The Nazis were very good at propaganda, because of the philosophy they used of lying. They believed the bigger the lie they told, they easier it was for people to believe, and they were right. Everyone believed their lie that the Jews were safe in ghettos and work places that were separate from the rest of society. And everyone thought it was just a conspiracy theory that they were being exterminated. Even the majority of the Jews themselves who had not been sent to the concentration camps yet refused to believe the reports that the death camps existed and that Jews were being murdered by the millions.

National Socialism requires the complete control of the media, which includes control over every form of media from books to television. This includes things like denying access for people to certain books, such as the recent attempt by the California government to prevent people from being able to sell Bibles or Qurans (since they both speak against Homosexuality). But the control is done through censorship more than seizing privately owned media companies. Some companies become owned by the government and others are censored through government regulation. The goal of propaganda in National Socialism is to lie to everyone enough on a daily basis with big enough lies that everyone begins to believe the same way as the government. The control of the media is simply for the purpose of making everyone in society into clones of each other with the same beliefs as those in power.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also use media control and propaganda, as shown by the Little Horn in Daniel 7 that has a big mouth, speaking great and mighty words, including blasphemous words against Yahuweh/Yehovah and his set-apart ones.

7. Another vital component of National Socialism is to control the education system of the youth with government owned schools. It requires the outlawing of homeschooling and privately owned schools not operated by the government. The area of education is the one area that the government is required to take over complete control in order to educate the younger generations to believe according to the way those in power believe, to believe in the philosophies of whatever brand of National Socialism that particular government believes in. But it is not enough to only re-educate the children in school to believe in the government as the ultimate provider and god of the people; even youth activities outside of school are controlled by the government, with things like the Hitler Youth Program. The Boy Scouts were even abolished and integrated into the Hitler Youth by the Nazis.

There is nothing specifically mentioned about youth in relation to the Revelation 13 Beast, but it will probably be an important part of it since the dragon Satan always goes after the children.

8. A third vital component of National Socialism is the complete control of the military and the complete control of the weapons in the hands of the people through gun control. One of the first things the Nazis did when they took over Germany was to enact gun control so that none of the people could defend themselves against any injustices done by the government, or to be able to stop any of the evil the government is doing. By controlling the military and the weapons it ensures that the government is able to do anything it wants and to be a true god over the people, taking away the ability of the people to stop the government if it becomes corrupt and murderous as the Nazis in the Holocaust.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also have an absolute power and authority, controlling the military and the weapons within its borders to the point that no one will be able to stop it from killing those who stand up against it and refuse to deny Yeshua. For a time, times, and half a time it will overcome everyone and everything that tries to stand against it, ruling over peoples and nations from all across the earth, and wearing out the set-apart ones, making them completely exhausted.

9. National Socialism does not try to control what jobs everyone has or where they work, but instead tries to inspire people to work hard and be productive members of society by making it seem like an honorable crusade to be a good worker. But of course this is only for those who are considered to be 'good' members of society, those who are good specimens without physical defects or mental weaknesses. The good jobs are all saved for those considered to be 'good' and compliant members of society, or those who are 'genetically pure.' Non-productive members are exiled from the society, even to the point of extermination and murder. But for those who are the 'desirables' wanted by the government to stay in and function in society, there are social programs, welfare programs, and work programs to give them every benefit in life possible.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also have a distinction and separation in its society between those who are wanted by the government and are given benefits when they are in compliance and devotion of the government, and those who refuse to give up their belief in Yeshua and are economically driven out of the society to the point that many will even be executed and murdered by the Beast.

10. National Socialism uses at least some of the American created philosophy of Eugenics in its ideology. Eugenics is basically the belief that mankind needs to genetically control the population through breeding of people with 'good' or 'desirable' genes and limiting the breeding of, or even exterminating, people with 'bad' or 'undesirable' genes. And at the same time it also believes in population control by reducing the number of people on earth to small, sustainable numbers. (In America the Eugenics plan was to reduce the population of America gradually over a span of decades until the population would become reduced to about 20% of what it was in the early 1900's).

In National Socialism (as with Eugenics) the genetic control of a society was mostly based upon race and ethnic background, trying to create a fantasy 'superior' race (that only existed as a delusion in people's minds), encouraging the increase of the population of that 'superior' race while working at reducing the populations of all other races and ethnicities. This is how National Socialism performed population control, and in order to achieve this goal, abortion had to be legalized for all races except those considered to be part of the fantasy 'superior' race.

It also meant the legalization of euthanasia, to supposedly 'mercifully' end the lives of those born with defects or mental illnesses, those unable to produce for the society who were 'stealing' the resources of the government from providing for the healthy citizens. And at the same time, abortion and euthanasia were achieving the goals of population reduction. Thus legalized abortion and euthanasia are both important parts of National Socialism, because they help people become desensitized to killing and murder on a mass scale. When people are able to accept the killing of babies, it makes it easier for people to accept the killing of people at any age in death camps.

Abortion and euthanasia are only used by National Socialism as the door to lead to the killing of whole populations on a mass scale. In the case of the Nazis they used 'work camps' that provided slave labor while at the same time provided a means for mass murder. Even as the Nazis were working on desensitizing the population to mass murder with lots of propaganda, they still did all of their extermination and vile experimentation and torture in secret, keeping it hidden to the point that even most in Europe did not know the full horror of what was happening, and most chose not to believe it when they were confronted with it.

There is not much revealed in Scripture about the extent the Revelation 13 Beast will try to commit mass murder beyond the fact that it will try to kill all of the true believers in Yeshua and the Jewish people. But again, if this extermination will be done in secret like the Nazis, no one is even going to know that the tribulation is happening around them, especially those who will worship the Beast and continue normal life under its rule as the Germans and most Europeans did, even in the midst of war. (Yeshua warns in Matthew 24 and Luke 17 that when he comes at the end of the tribulation and trouble and distress, most of the world is going to be continuing to live normal life as in the days of Noah and Lot, and his coming in the clouds with his judgment and wrath for the earth will be a complete surprise to everyone who did not stay faithful (as faithful servants) to Yahuweh/Yehovah through the tribulation, and did not prepare for the wedding. According to Revelation 16 Yeshua comes as a thief in the night, and most of the world, except his true servants, will be completely surprised when he comes. Most of the world will not be expecting him when he comes at the end of the tribulation, because they will have rejected the signs and words and prophecy fulfillments of his coming.

The killing of 1/3 of the population of mankind in Revelation 9 certainly indicates the Final Beast will be trying to reduce the earth's population through mass murder of some kind, either through war or death camps. The number of 1/3 could be the total number the Beast succeeds in directly killing or indirectly causing to be killed during its entire rule of the earth all the way up to the end of the tribulation. And if the people are being killed in secret again as with the Holocaust, those around the world who are not actually experiencing the mass murder themselves might not even know there is a tribulation or Holocaust happening until the end of the tribulation, after it is already done, especially if the majority of that 1/3 are killed in war gradually over the years. The 1/3 will be killed in such a way that it does not affect the other 2/3 from still planting and building and living normal life at the time that Yeshua comes at the end of the tribulation. From Yeshua's interpretation of the shortened days of tribulation in Matthew 24, the only thing we can expect for certain is that the tribulation is not going to happen how anyone expects. Of course there is also the possibility that the 6th Trumpet and the 1/3 killed do not happen until the end of the tribulation.

11. A fundamental part of the operation of National Socialism in a society is to inspire religious devotion in the people towards the philosophical movement and government, and any religion will do to achieve this goal. Hitler only used the religion of Christianity because it was the most handy religion in Germany at the time. But he himself said that he preferred the religion of Islam as a better religion in which to operate the beliefs of National Socialism, and he wished that Germany were a Muslim country or even had the same religion as Japan with its belief in suicide for the state. He said that Christianity is a meak and flabby religion that did not fit as well with National Socialism as other religions around the world. It was Albert Speer who documented these words he heard Hitler speak about Islam in his memoirs Inside the Third Reich.

Unlike Communism which rigidly only allows the religion of Atheism to be used to control the people, National Socialism can use any religion available in any culture to inspire and deceive the people into worshipping its governmental system and ideology through their religion. National Socialism is all about the worship of the state or of the idealism of the government, attempting to inspire people to give their lives as martyrs for the government. It is the worship of the government and the system of the government as a god.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also be all about the worship of its governing system and its government as a god of the people. The false prophet causes people to worship the Beast and the Image of the Beast as a god, worshipping the government and the ideology by which the government rules over the people.

12. Beyond the worship of the government, National Socialism is also the cultic worship of the leader of the government, as Hitler was worshipped like a god by many in Germany. The leader must have charisma and charm, appearing to be a person of the people, and be able to cause people to either love them or fear them. The key is to cause devotion from the people through both worship as the result of fanatic love for the leader or worship as the result of fearing the leader. Either way the end goal is for the leader to be worshipped as a messiah figure or savior of the people, who will rescue them from whatever generic crisis is available to use or enemy available to vilify.

Hitler was very much worshipped as a savior or god of the people, receiving lots of love and devotion from people throughout his rule. Even in the Nazi propaganda film Triumph of the Will it can be seen in the opening of the film Hitler descends from the heavens like a god in his plane down to earth to become the messiah of Germany. National Socialism is a dual worship of both the system of the government and the ruler of the government. Those who do not worship the leader and the state of their own free will are intimidated into worshipping it through fear.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also have a ruler over it, the Little Horn, who in Daniel 7, 8, and 11 will not worship other gods, but will instead raise himself up as a god above all other gods, including trying to usurp Yahuweh/Yehovah, trying to raise himself up above the heavens and the throne of Yahuweh/Yehovah in the heavens, only acknowledging a mighty one of fortifications. He will also make himself into a messiah and god of the people, and all those under his rule will worship him and his system of government, all those who are unable to take a stand and refuse to deny Yeshua even unto death.

13. A big, core part of National Socialism is the religious beliefs of Darwinian Evolution, in which it is believed that all life evolves and comes from non-life, that living organisms magically come to life from non-living rocks. In other words, new life can only be created by murdering and killing life, by causing life to end in death first. In order to create a new utopia, remolding society and humans into a new and 'perfect' world made in the image of whatever the government and the ruler desire, first there has to be a lot of death and a lot of chaos and destruction. National Socialism adopts from the religious beliefs of Darwinian Evolution that life is created from dead matter through a very chaotic evolutionary process of struggle. And through this ideology

National Socialism believes that a new utopia world can only be created by bringing the world into chaos, death, and very hard struggle, until only the fittest and most perfect specimens of humanity are left alive to carry on the human race stronger and more powerful than before.

As a result, it is actually a goal of National Socialism to cause the world to fall apart into chaos and destruction, then to create a new world from all of the death of the old one, life coming from death as Evolution teaches. This ideology gives license for mankind to do any form of evil it wishes in order to achieve its goal of destroying the world in chaos and struggle, to birth a new world out of the mass murder, such as the Holocaust. And it creates the environment where any form of evil is permissible for the government and ruler to achieve their goals of creating a new world. This includes allowing horrific, torturous experiments in the pursuit of scientific progress as performed by the Nazi doctors in the death camps. Or the filling of the German soldiers with experimental drugs that would cause them to fight longer and harder in combat, and make it easier for them to kill. Anything is allowed by the government to ensure advancement in technology and science and the purging of the population, anything that will bring more power to the government and bring the society closer to the goal of recreating the world into whatever delusional utopia the elites of the government decide they want. Mass murder and torture and inhumane experiments are all allowed in National Socialism to further the process of chaos and struggle to achieve the death of the world and the recreation of the world into a new life from the death.

The chaos is also a way of grabbing power or holding onto power, because the people will follow any strong man who promises to fix the world and bring it back into peace and order.

The Revelation 13 Beast and the Little Horn ruler will also have the same goal to bring the world into some kind of chaos in order to control the people into following him, as seen in the Seals and Trumpets in Revelation. But it is not clear enough in the prophecies to know for sure exactly how the chaos will be used as a weapon by the Beast, or at what times during the tribulation the Beast will be bringing the world into chaos to try to recreate the world into a new world without any believers in Yeshua or nation of Israel existing in it. The only thing known for certain is that at the very end of the tribulation, after Yeshua has already come in the clouds and the Bowls of Wrath are being poured out on the earth, the whole world will be brought by the Beast into a Global War against Jerusalem and Israel, which will result in the complete destruction of the Beast and of the entire Tower of Babel world system that has been operating in divided forms in every nation (Jeremiah 51:7) on earth since shortly after the flood.

14. This last part of National Socialism is the key that makes the rest of it work. It is the deception of looking good and righteous and noble on the outside to the public, while inwardly allowing any kind of evil and sin to take place. The majority of the most horrible evils done by the Nazis were done in secret and kept hidden from the public and from the world. And the evils and sins that they did both in public and in private they justified as a righteous cause, as a crusade for what is right. Humans have difficulty doing real, disgusting evil, because of the conscience that holds them back. They have to either become so hardened that they become reprogrammed to enjoy evil, or they have to believe a delusion that the evil they are doing is righteous and just.

It was all part of National Socialism to indoctrinate people over the course of years and years that it was a just and righteous campaign to murder Jews and other people the government determined were not human. It was a process of years that the Nazis prepared people to accept the evil that they were planning on doing as being justified as a good cause. But even then they still, up to the very end of the war, tried to erase all evidence of the evil they were doing as the Allied Armies came into Germany and discovered the camps. It was that important to the Nazis to appear to be blameless and clean and righteous on the outside, even protesting things they deemed as wicked and outwardly removing those things from their party and from German society, whatever the society deemed to be wrong at the time. National Socialism is all about condemning sin outwardly to the public, but loving sin and allowing all forms of sin in secret, especially allowing the people to be distracted with sin in secret as much as they wish.

This is one of the most important concepts to understand, how the Revelation 13 Beast will outwardly come as a messenger of light, with its rulers and members appearing to be the most righteous and upstanding citizens in society, according to whatever standard the society accepts as good at the time. All of the most horrible acts of evil that the Beast will be committing will be in secret, kept hidden from the people as they worship the Beast. And the people of the earth whose hearts are filled with hate will be exposed by the end of the Beast's rule as they worship the Beast and support the Little Horn in his attempt to end the existence of Israel at the end of the tribulation. And all the way up to the very end the Beast will try to justify their cause of evil, trying to make themselves and their cause of evil and sin appear righteous and just. The Beast will try to look very pure and clean on the outside, but according to Revelation 12-13, the seven headed and ten horned beast is really only a Beast on the skin surface on the outside. On the inside of the Beast is the seven headed and ten horned dragon Satan who is giving the Beast all of its power. The core of the Beast as with the core of National Socialism is completely evil with nothing good in it. Those who are only looking at the outside of the Beast and do not have the blood of the Passover Lamb Yeshua covering the doorposts of their hearts, with the Spirit of Yeshua dwelling in them, will not be able to see the evil underneath until it is too late.

This is a synopsis of what the idea and philosophy of National Socialism is, and how it is a picture of what is yet to come with the Final Beast in Revelation 13. But there are also some other historical things of importance concerning the movement of National Socialism and how its core ideologies and philosophies are beginning to deceptively be adopted by nations all over the world today.

Germany and Italy both became National Socialist states in the 1920's to 30's, which resulted in their becoming allies during World War II. Berlin and Rome became two centers or capitals of power in what was beginning to form as an empire. Because of a lack of records available that were hidden or destroyed by the Vatican after the war, there is no way to know just how much the Vatican was secretly involved and allied with the Nazis during the war. There are only a few records of Catholic Priests running a lot of the Nazi death camps in Croatia, and some other hints of financial involvement by the Vatican in Holocaust affairs. There are also the Nazis who used Vatican passports to escape Europe after the war and who hid in Catholic universities and institutions. But a two capital system like in the days of the Holy Roman Empire was beginning to come back to life and form again to some degree before the Nazi Empire fell apart. [It is important to note that this has nothing to do with the people in the Catholic Church, many of whom helped Jews escape the Nazis and did other good things during the Holocaust. This is only about the Vatican governing institution's involvement with the Nazis.]

More importantly, the Nazis became great allies of the remnants of the Islamic Empire, and as the Nazis were reviving the Roman Empire both politically and religiously, into the Holy Roman Empire, they were also at the same time helping the Islamic Empire come back to life again as an ally of the Roman Empire for the first time in history. The Nazis and National Socialism became the glue that began to bring together the political parts of the Roman and Islamic Empires, though the religious parts did not come together yet at that time in any kind of unity.

Saul Montes-Bradley in his book Gander has put together the most comprehensive history of the Nazis and the National Socialist movement in the Middle East and Muslim countries after World War II. There is no need to duplicate his research here, but the first half of the book is about the terrorist attack of Arrow Flight 1285 and the second half is a history of the German Nazis who escaped Europe after World War II and moved to Muslim countries, bringing National Socialism with them, with eventually several thousand of them moving to Egypt. It includes Otto Skorzeny of the Nazi commandoes, who in his memoirs shows how he and the Nazis invented the ideology of terrorism as it is known and used by Islamic extremists today. Many Nazis personally taught many of the most prominent Muslim terrorists through the Muslim Brotherhood in the 1960's, such as men like Aymann al-Zawahiri of al-Qaida. The Nazis in their schools of Islamic National Socialism also trained Yasser Arafat who founded the Palestine Liberation Organization and started all of the terrorism committed by Palestinians against Israel for the last few decades.

There were many Nazis like Johannes von Leers who converted to Islam in Egypt and found a perfect marriage of National Socialism with Islam. The Egyptian government and many in Islam were already favorable towards Hitler and Nazism during World War II, and after the war they took in many Nazis, which resulted in the creation of an Islamic form of National Socialism. The Nazis in Egypt set up a new center for Nazism and translated Hitler's book Mein Kampf into Arabic. Since the 1960's and 70's to even the present time Mein Kampf has been one of the top bestselling books in the Middle East among Muslim nations. The Muslim Brotherhood is known as the core organization from which all of modern Islamic terrorist organizations came from, including al-Qaida, the Islamic State (ISIS) offshoot, and Hamas in the Gaza Strip. And it was not until the Nazis joined together with the Muslim Brotherhood in the 1950's and 60's that the Islamic terrorism known today was first created.

Both Syria and Egypt used German Nazis (including many SS men) in their militaries and spy agencies to fight against Israel in the 1948 War for Independence and the 1967 Six Day War. After the Holocaust, the Nazis moved from Europe next door to Israel, to continue their war against Yahuweh/Yehovah's covenant people, doing much of the training of the Egyptian and Syrian armies. But more importantly, with the invention of the atom bomb, the Nazis realized they had to create a new kind of soldier on the new battlefield of modern warfare. And as Otto Skorzeny describes in his memoirs, this led to their creation of the ideology of the terrorist who can live as a civilian peacefully in society, walking among the people and infiltrating under the noses of the nations' militaries, then striking violently at any moment at any civilian or military target. And through this ideology the Nazis in Egypt personally trained the first Islamic extremist National Socialist terrorists, and brought about what has become since September 11, 2001 the Global World War III on Terrorism. And the Nazis also brought about the continuous terroristic wars that Israel has faced in the last few decades.

The defeat of Germany after World War II did not see an end to National Socialism, it only went underground and spread across the world, deeply embedding into many Muslim countries, and became stronger than ever. Not only were the Nazis and many of the Muslims strong allies during World War II, even today the Muslim terrorist groups and many Muslim governments have continued to use National Socialism as their model for governing with the Quran, and many in the Middle East still view Hitler as a hero and martyr.

As the Communist countries have fallen around the world (because Communism is too rigid and unbendable in its philosophies to be accepted on a wide scale or to be able to adapt as its systems inevitably fail) they have converted into National Socialist governments such as in Russia and China. Socialist countries and former Communist countries all around the world are adopting more and more of the National Socialist created economic model of Socialist Capitalism or Controlled Capitalism, mixing together the two with a little bit of freedom in a micro-managed and heavily regulated economy.

These same countries also are beginning to adapt to using any form of religion they can as a means of creating devotion for the government, from Muslim countries in the Middle East to former Communist countries like China and Russia and at one time Venezuela until Maduro came in and tried to change Venezuela back into a Communist country, causing everything to fall apart. Even the Globalist Elites who at one time were pushing for International Socialism (Communism) have begun to change and adapt their thinking towards the more deceptive ideologies of National Socialism, using China as their model for creating a global empire run on the principles of Controlled Capitalist Socialism as a form of government. And new forms of Christianity are being invented such as the Social Gospel and the Prosperity Gospel and the Hyper Grace Gospel in preparation to try to deceive Christians into worshipping the government as god, which of course will result in the worship of the Beast.

As the Globalists begin to implement the use of religions as a way to instill devotion and worship of the government in perfect harmony and unity as written in the Human Fraternity Document, that is when the Beast will become a dangerous deception as it rises to power. And those trying to grab power around the world (Turkey/Russia/Globalists as a few examples) are following the method of National Socialism in taking control of the media, military, and education systems of the countries, while still leaving other aspects of the society free so that people still have an illusion of freedom. (Now the control of media and discussion in a country is no longer called censorship, but instead control of hate speech.)

And it would be too large a discussion here to go into all of the evidence of the National Socialists in positions of leadership and influence in America who supported Hitler and even after the war continued from the shadows to spread the ideologies of National Socialism into American society and government (including in the CIA, which hired many German Nazis after World War II). And even now Germany still has retained many of the Nazi National Socialist laws and beliefs in the government, such as outlawing homeschooling so that all children are forced to go to government run schools to learn from the government the way to believe and view the world.

Already there is an acceptance of different aspects of National Socialism in most of the nations and governments around the world, which will make it easier for many nations to accept the Beast when it comes. This is because National Socialism is only a new name for a very ancient system of deception that has happened over and over again through thousands of years of history in different forms since the Tower of Babel. Each reset of the Beast systems through history have resulted in stronger delusion associated with each, and better streamlining in its presentation and accomplishing of evil as it repeats itself through history. But when it repeats again, the new National Socialism will not be exactly the same as the Nazis; it will adapt to the society as it is now. It will only be the basic structures in National Socialism that will rise again, but the outside will have a new coat of paint with new trimmings and will look completely different from the Nazis before it. It will adapt to whatever deceptions the people want at the time when it comes to power. Whatever people desire more than they desire truth are the delusions that people will accept, even when they know it is wrong or not true.

There will be a separation of power in the Final Beast in Revelation 13, a separation between the political center of power, which is the Beast Out of the Sea, and the religious center of power, which is the Beast Out of the Earth. But there is also a further division of power between these two capitals or power centers. The political half of the Beast will have 10 divisions of power or 10 centers of power in some form, with 1 main center of power with the Little Horn, and the religious half of the beast will have 2 divisions of power or 2 centers of power in some form. It is a system of 2 divided further into more divisions, and recognizing all of these various, complex divisions is necessary in recognizing the Final Beast.

The outward appearance of the Beasts in Daniel and Revelation through history have changed from one coat to another, but the inner deception of the dragon serpent Satan has remained the same since the garden, because the dragon Satan has no ability to create or think of anything new. Only Yahuweh/Yehovah is able to create anything new under the sun. And a love of the truth, which is a love of the person of Yahuweh/Yehovah, more than any desire or want or need, is the only safeguard from falling into delusion when it comes.
