The following from my e-book Prophecy Countdown:

The first open eye vision I ever had was when I was in Wales during my 13th birthday, in the vicinity of Pwllheli. I saw a giant wall like a mix between a castle wall and a dam wall all around the country of Wales. And Wales itself was filled with water up to the top of the wall. Walking around on the wall were demons guarding the wall and checking it for leaks, making sure that none of the water got out. Then I saw a hole form into a crack in the wall, and then water began seeping out. The demons guarding on the top of the wall began to go into a panic as the water began running out through the wall, making the hole bigger and bigger at a very fast rate. Then I was up above the continent of Europe looking down on it like a map, and I saw from the nation of Wales a giant wave of water that rushed across the entire continent of Europe like a flood.

I have never known why Yahuweh/Yehovah showed me this vision. I know all about the history of the Welsh Revival and Evan Roberts. And I know all about how every revival in the 20th century can be traced back in its roots to the Welsh Revival (even the Azusa Revival), as the Welsh Revival was the first domino to fall that caused all the rest to come after it. I know about how the waters of rain of the Spirit of Yahuweh/Yehovah that were poured out upon the people in Wales were carried by the Welsh all across the earth and many were influenced by it.

I do not know where this vision fits in with everything, but just as the final revival and harvest of the latter rain outpouring of the Spirit of Yahuweh/Yehovah has begun first in Jerusalem and Israel, then beginning in the gentile nations in Australia according to Smith Wigglesworth's vision, perhaps when the latter rain reaches Europe it will begin to fall in Wales first. Then the waters of Yahuweh/Yehovah's Spirit that have been stored up in Wales all this time from the Welsh Revival will again be released across Europe together with the latter rain of his outpouring. And all of Europe will be completely flooded with Yahuweh/Yehovah's Spirit at the time when he pours himself out on all flesh.
