Update: January 7, 2019

Beverly - Dreams Fall 2017 and January 2018: In fall 2017 Beverly had a dream in which she heard the words, "forty-two months." 42 months from the fall of 2017 counts to the spring of 2021. And then in January 2018 she had a dream where a man was telling her a dream he had about 3 trees, and that the 3 trees represent 3 years until the end, again calculating to t.about the end of winter and beginning of spring 2021. Yeshua says in Matthew 24 that the end comes with the placing of the disgusting abomination idol in the middle of the 7 years.³⁵

Messenger with the Seal of Yahuweh/Yehovah - Dec. 29, 2018: The messenger comes from the rising of the sun in the east with the seal of Elohim (God) in Kansas City to seal all of Yahuweh/Yehovah's people with the seal of the plate of pure gold of the High Priest with the writing "Holiness to the LORD" קודש ליהוה "Set-apart to Yahuweh/Yehovah" in preparation for protection from the mark of the beast and in preparation to seal the 144,000 with the name of the father Yahuweh/Yehovah on their foreheads in fulfillment of Revelation 7:2.³⁶

Update: September 25, 2019

Watchmen144 - Dream January 2019: At the end of January "Watchmen144" had a dream she was inside of a prison cell, and she knew in the dream the prison cell represented the earth. There was another woman in the prison cell with her, and she asked the woman how long she was there for. And the woman (the bride of Messiah) replied that she was there (in the prison of the earth) for 5 years.³⁹

Mike Thompson - Word October/November 2018: Yahuweh/Yehovah spoke a word to Mike Thompson that there are 2 years left to prepare for the next 3 years after that. 2 years from the end of 2018 arrives at the year 2021, and 3 years from there ends at the year 2024.⁴¹

Rodney Howard-Browne - Word 2018: In 2018 Yahuweh/Yehovah instructed Rodney to visit and make disciples in 300 cities in preparation for revival by the end of 2020, because the time to his coming is short.⁴⁶

Timeline Footnotes and Additional Words, Visions, and Dreams

39. Watchmen144 – Dream January 2019: At the end of January 2019 in the 11th month of 6018 “Watchmen144” had a dream about being in a prison cell that she knew represented the earth. And then she talked to a woman in the prison cell with her, and asked this woman how long she was there in the prison for. The woman said for 5 years. The woman is the bride waiting in the prison of the earth for the bridegroom Yeshua to return. And in the dream “Watchmen144” was told that the bride only has 5 more years to wait on the earth before Yeshua comes to rapture her away from the earth up into the clouds.

If we go by the Hebrew calendar at the end of the year 6018 then count 5 years we arrive at the end of the year 6023 or the start of the year 2024. And if we count this according to the Gregorian calendar dates 5 years from the year 2019 is the year 2024. Either way it fits within about a half year range with all of the other words, dreams, and visions (recorded in the other Prophecy Countdown charts) of a fulfillment of Daniel’s 70 sevens at the end of a 1,290 day tribulation in 6024 (2024).

It fits in with the word Yahuweh/Yehovah spoke to Neville Johnson within a vision in 2010 that ‘at evening time it will be light’ by the end of 14 years in 2024, implying that he will come and stand on the Mount of Olives in 2024 in fulfillment of Zechariah 14. And it also fits with the two dreams of 6 left of 7 Rhonda Empson had in 2018, which in years would be completed in 2024. And it fits in perfectly with the time frame of the fulfillment of the 2,300 evening morning counting from June 14, 2018 when there was an event of desolation to the foundation of the set-apart place at the Temple Mount in fulfillment of Daniel 8:11-14. And most importantly it fits with Daniel’s prediction in Daniel 9 of a completion of 70 sevens in 2024.

40. Lois Vogel-Sharpe – Word December 2018: Lois Vogel-Sharpe received a word from Yahuweh/Yehovah at 12:40 in the morning about only a few years left to prepare places of safety behind closed doors (Isaiah 26) for a time coming when his people will ‘no longer be able to function in the society that the enemy has created.’ And that there is only a short time remaining before the opening of the 6th Seal, Yahuweh/Yehovah saying, “You seem to forget that my Word speaks in Revelation of a great earthquake that will shake the mountains and move them from their places. The stars will fall from the heaven like a fig tree being shaken and where will my children be when the sixth seal is opened. Many will not survive these events but my remnant will be safely tucked away in the mountains where the earthquakes will not happen. I have planned this time to avenge my Name on the earth and evil will pay the ultimate price of destruction. The mountains will shake and the land will crack; the lava will flow and the earth will move like she is a drunkard. The poles will go through a shift as the earth begins to break apart from the stress of the earthquakes that will take place.”

41. Mike Thompson – Word October/November 2018: In October to November 2018 Yahuweh/Yehovah spoke a word to Mike Thompson that from about that time at the end of 2018 there are 2 years left to prepare for the next 3 years after that. From the end of 2018 we count 2 years, the years of 2019 and 2020, then count 3 years after that, the years of 2021, 2022, and 2023, arriving at 2024 at the end of that total of 5 years. This word fits with all of the other words, dreams, and visions, and with Daniel's prediction in Daniel 9 and 12, of a time frame of distressing tribulation trouble from 2021 to 2024. And that there are only 2 years left to prepare for it, during the years of 2019 and 2020.

42. Curt Landry – Word January 2019: On January 11, 2019 Curt Landry delivered a word which Yahuweh/Yehovah had given him to say at the dedication of their opening of the One New Man Embassy in Oklahoma. The word was, “This is a time when the flows are being shut off and the new flows are being opened. Tonight I open a new flow from heaven, a flow reserved for this hour and this season. As it is said in psalms 87 and 7 all my mountains and all my fountains are in you, Oh Zion. Zechariah told you of this day,” says the Lord. “On that day a fountain will be opened to the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to cleanse them from their sin and impurities, Zechariah 13:1. Out of my highest courts I open a flow of fire to cleanse my land, my people. Satan speaks pompous words against the most high. He persecutes the saints of the most high and intends to change both time and law. Daniel prophesied in Daniel 7:25 that Satan would intend to change times and law. We see this happened during the Constantine period, and the result was mass confusion within the church and within the body of Christ regarding its identity and its heritage. We lost our place. We lost our roots for on this night I reset the clock in my embassy to set the clock in my people. For this reason I raise up this one new man embassy that has kept my times, feasts, and seasons. This wisdom of my mystery is the key of David. His sure mercies, his dominion is an everlasting dominion which shall not pass away and his kingdom, the one which shall be not destroyed, Daniel 17:14b. And the angel of the church of Philadelphia writes. These things says he who is holy, he who is true, he who has the key of David, he who opens no one shuts, he who shuts no one opens. Revelation 3:7. Like in the day of your servant Jacob, as he served Laban for 14 years, unjust, unbalanced in its scales, you oh house of David have served me 14 years and many have been unjust, unbalanced with their scales.” But thus sayeth the Lord to you and your ambassador standing here tonight. Thus sayeth the Lord, “those days are over tonight,” says the Lord. “I have seen all that Laban has done to you. Many sheep have lost and scattered by the Laban spirit of false religion and controls. I am cutting off the flow of seduction and its provision to corrupt my saints,” says the Lord. “As I did with Jacob, I will cause all my speckled sheep to return to me says the lord for you are my speckled sheep, for you are my glory and tonight is the beginning of all the speckled sheep from every tribe and tongue to return to the embassy of the one new man. It is no accident that my first mention in the law of first mention of my glory was my justice to return the wealth and respect and majesty to my covenant son Jacob in his covenant heritage. I will do the same thing now for my ambassadors. Receive tonight claim and restore all that has been stolen from your heritage for you are my chosen ambassadors, kings and priests according to the order of Melkitsedeq. It starts tonight from the house of David, the one new man embassy. Believe and receive it says the Lord. This embassy will reset the times and season to align my ambassadors for this latter-rain wealth transfer. The blessing of my feasts will provide passage to new levels in my courts not yet experienced on earth, but held for this special kairos time on earth. On this land and on this night receive a fresh Issachar anointing. Receive mantels that will set you in time and season for those in time and season will transfer the wealth and the power and the dominion. Don't miss this time to reset your clock. My ambassadors carry my keys, my wisdom to know when I plan to open and shut doors within all of my seven mountains. I will not share this holy power and this glory with those who will not obey or follow my ways,” says the Lord. “I am commissioning ambassadors into all seven mountains tonight with my glory as kings and priests according to the order of Melkisedeq. It is my commissioning,” says the Lord, “into my glory, my wisdom, my knowledge, and my understanding. It is my arm and the heavenly hosts that will protect you and provide strength for my ambassadors and my embassy with Michael the archangel and Gabriel operating in a heavenly host as one new man. Man did not bring you here. I brought you here,” says the Lord. “I brought you here to reign and recalibrate you in these final moments on earth that my apostle Paul called the one new man. For I had you step out of your seat and to stand in your seat, and to respond even online by standing to embrace your identity; no longer ashamed of being an apostle, a prophet, a pastor, a teacher, a evangelist; no longer being ashamed of being a Christian businessman, a Christian teacher, a Christian movie producer, a governmental official; no longer afraid, making excuses. But I release a boldness,” says the Lord, “into all my seven mountains, to rise up. Do not fear the fake news, do not fear the anti-christ spirit, for my power of my word is more powerful than their lies and their fake news. As for me, in this one new man, I ask you tonight as one new man, ask me tonight and I will make the nation your inheritance, and the end of the earth your possession.”

43. Beverly – Vision August 2018: Beverly had a vision of things being weighed in scales according to mathematical ratios as in a math problem, with different numbers of things set on top of the same constant. And the numbers of things were each divided by the constant, and then compared against each other according to the ratios they divided into. And all the answers were greater than one. Then she simultaneously saw and heard the word ‘Ramadan,’ and saw it pictured as a lump that equaled to the word ‘Abomination’ in reference to the abomination of desolation. She had this vision only 2 months after the event of the Daniel 8 desolation that took place at the foundation of the set-apart place on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem on June 14, 2018 on the last day of Ramadan, in confirmation that that event was indeed connected with the Daniel prophecies about the abomination disgusting idol of desolation. It also indicates the possibility that the future abomination of desolation event of Daniel 11, which has not yet happened, could take place during the month of Ramadan.

44. Rhonda Empson – Dreams January and February 2019: In January 2019 Rhonda had a dream about being at her grandmother’s old house at the top of the driveway getting her hair washed. And the lady washing her hair told her that it was time for her to go before it was finished, because there was no more time to do anything else. And Rhonda began walking down the driveway feeling upset, because she felt like there were so many more things she wanted to do still. And as she was sitting down at a bench at the end of the driveway she heard the words, “It’s time for the new class of children.” And then as she heard this word spoken she saw hundreds and hundreds of people with golden lights on their heads coming down from a mountain. She got up to meet them and walked around to the back of the house where she saw all of her classmates dressed in white garments like from Bible times. There was a man standing there, with people on both side of him, who was wearing a white garment with red on his garment, who was probably Yeshua (the red possibly signifying the blood on his garment in Revelation 19). And she saw a woman walking with Yeshua who came over to Rhonda to make sure that she had a horse because she did not have one.

And then in another scene of the dream Rhonda was sitting in a chair with another chair next to her, and a man named Ryan (name meaning little king) sat next to her. Ryan was sitting and a woman in front of them who had Rhonda's camera was going to take a picture of him. Suddenly Ryan stood up and he had a big belly. He had been sitting, then suddenly rose up. And the woman said she could not take any more pictures because the pictures in Rhonda's camera were full and gave it back to Rhonda.

The washing of Rhonda's hair at the beginning of the dream shows that there is very little time left to get washed and clean of sin before Yeshua comes. The group of hundreds and even thousands of people, who are the 'new class of children' are the 144,000 who are the first-fruits or firstborn children of Yahuweh/Yehovah's nation Israel being born new, consisting of those who believe Yeshua is the Messiah. It is the re'new'al of Yahuweh/Yehovah's nation of Israel made new through him and birthed through the 144,000 of the 12 tribes of Israel. The gold on their heads is the golden seal of the High Priest on their foreheads (Exodus 28:36) that has the name of Yahuweh/Yehovah written upon it (his father's name Revelation 14). The mountain is Mount Zion that the 144,000 gather upon in Revelation 14 to learn the new song to sing, the song that only they can learn.

And all of the people gathered together in white garments are those gathered together who are coming out of the tribulation in Revelation 7 in connection with the 144,000. Finally the woman wanted to make sure that Rhonda had a horse, because everyone gathered together in white garments at the end of the tribulation will each receive their own horse to ride on together with Yeshua as he rides out to bring judgment on the earth in Revelation 19. All of this fits together with the sign of the golden seal of the High Priest for the foreheads of the 144,000 that appeared in Kansas City at the One Thing gathering, and shows that the sealing of the 144,000 is not far away, or is already in process of happening in some form. It should also be noted that in Revelation

22:4 everyone has the name of Yahuweh/Yehovah written on their foreheads with the seal of the High Priest 'Set-apart to Yahuweh/Yehovah.'

The next scene shows that the little horn, the anti-messiah, will rise up into power and into the public eye when the film or time has reached its completion, when there is no more time or film left. It is when the film has reached its end, or when we have reached the end, which according to Yeshua the end comes with the placing of the disgusting abomination idol at the set-apart place. Rhonda's dream would then indicate the possibility that the little horn will not appear publicly or come to power until the disgusting abomination idol desolating in Daniel 11 has been placed.

I Saw the Gathering and Rise of the Antichrist (Jan 31, 2019) Rhonda Empson

On February 10, 2019 Rhonda had a dream where she saw a certain doctor who has in past dreams been symbolic of Yahuweh/Yehovah. And in the dream this doctor was helping her pack in order to leave and to move, and to move in with him. And they stopped for a break and he said to her, "I'll bet you wish this could have been sooner." And then she whispered in his ear, "I never felt I was good enough." And then they continued packing and preparing to move, and he said to her, "I will pick you up next week."

This dream is all about how we are currently in the time of packing up and finishing our lives on this earth, to move in with Yahuweh/Yehovah to live with him in his house. But we will be wishing that we could have moved in with him to live with him sooner throughout the tribulation. And we are also not going to feel worthy to live together with him, but he is the one who makes us worthy through the shed blood of his Yeshua. At the end of the dream the doctor representing Yahuweh/Yehovah says that he will be picking us up to live with him next week, in reference to the final week or seven of Daniel's 70 sevens in Daniel 9, the final 7 years before he comes. And it is confirmation that he does not come to pick up his bride to come and live with him until the end of the week or the end of the 7 years, at the point where the next week would begin right at the point where the previous week or 7 years had ended. It also shows that we are living somewhere in the time frame of Daniel's final seven of his 70 sevens when Yahuweh/Yehovah will come to pick us up within the next 14 years (within the next week after this current week) from 2017, when 69 sevens were completed from a command to rebuild Jerusalem. But for certain he is not coming any sooner than 2024 at the very earliest, 2024 being the first year of the next 'week' from 2017.

45. Sadhu Selvaraj – Word 2006: In 2006 Sadhu Selvaraj received a word from Yahuweh/Yehovah that that year in 2006 was the time for Matthew 24:8 (Birth Pains) to begin to be fulfilled. Also at that time Yahuweh/Yehovah explained to Sadhu in Scripture how the rapture will not happen until the end of the tribulation.

46. Rodney Howard-Browne – Word/Instruction 2018: In 2018 Yahuweh/Yehovah instructed Rodney Howard-Browne to visit 300 cities and prepare disciples for Yeshua filled with the fire of his Spirit in each city in preparation for the revival. And he gave Rodney until the end of the year 2020 as the time limit to visit all of the cities by, because of the time being short to his coming.

June 14, 2018	29 th Day of the 3 rd Month 6018	Prophecy Fulfilled: Daniel 8:11-14 1. The Jerusalem Waqf is funded by the King of Jordan and is in control of the stewardship of the Temple Mount in Jerusalem. In 1999 the Waqf started illegal renovating on the Temple Mount, digging up dirt from the mountain in order to build another mosque on the Temple Mount. The dirt that was removed from the Temple Mount and dumped elsewhere was later found by archaeologists to contain tens of thousands of artifacts of the First and Second Temples, of the set-apart place, which once stood on the Temple Mount. In 2004 the Israeli High Court of Justice banned the removal of the rest of the piles of dirt that still remained on the Temple Mount at that time, in order to protect any artifacts that still remained in this dirt. This dirt that was dug up by

		the Waqf has been shown to contain much evidence that the First and Second Temples once stood on the Temple Mount, and thereby also providing evidence that the Temple Mount is where the set-apart place of Yahuweh/Yehovah also stood. The prophecy of Daniel 8:11-14 begins by speaking of hatamid, which literally in the Hebrew means 'the continual.' The little horn is attempting to magnify itself as far as the prince or captain, the leader of the host or army of the heavens. And in so doing the prophecy of Daniel 8 says that 'the continual' is (literally in the Hebrew) lifted up away or raised up to height away from Yahuweh/Yehovah. And the mekon, the foundation or fixed base of the set-apart place of Yahuweh/Yehovah is thrown out or thrown down or thrown away. The Hebrew word Mekon is often translated as house, but it literally refers to any solid, fixed, unmoving structure of any kind of building. It includes in its meaning any solid, unmoving foundation that remains in a fixed location. On about the night of June 13-14, 2018, while the Jews were still not allowed on the Temple Mount at the end of Ramadan, the Waqf was lifting up the remaining dirt containing the remains and artifacts of the set-apart place, artifact filled dirt which had remained continually on the Temple Mount for thousands of years. And this dirt was not just any old dirt, but dirt that is part of the mountain which has been part of the foundation or fixed place of the set-apart place for thousands of years. And they lifted up the remains of the set-apart place away from Yahuweh/Yehovah into dump trucks, taking away from the foundation of the set-apart place and throwing away that foundation elsewhere, away from where the set-apart place had once stood. Most of this dirt containing the artifacts had already been removed prior to 2004, and ever since 2004 the Waqf has tried underhandedly to remove the remaining dirt which the Israeli courts had prevented from being removed. But on June 14 the Waqf finally succeeded in getting all of the rest of the continual remains of the set-apart place in the dirt removed from the Temple Mount. The prophecy of Daniel 8:11-14 continues about an army or host or mass group of people who are given to oppose against the continual in rebellion against it. And this mass host of people throw the truth to the ground and act and are successful in moving forward. Likewise, on June 14, the Waqf hired an army of over 1,000 Muslim workers to take away the remaining artifact filled dirt of the Temple Mount, of the foundation of the set-apart place. And they acted in rebellion and defiance against the evidence of the set-apart place that had been there continually for thousands of years. And they were able to move forward with their plans and prospered in them as the Hebrew literally says, and they took the truth of the evidence in the dirt that showed the set-apart place had once stood on the Temple Mount, and they acted against this truth, removing the evidence of the truth of the existence of the set-apart place from the Temple Mount, dumping or throwing the truth to the ground elsewhere, in an attempt to cover over or erase or hide the truth. Then the area where the dirt was removed was paved over with stones in order to cover up the fact that the truth had just been removed from the foundation of the set-apart place.

		And after the continual is taken up away, Daniel is told next in Daniel 8:11-14 that this event of the continual taken up away, and the rebellion or transgression desolating, and that which is set-apart along with the host or army are trodden down begins a countdown of 2,300 evening morning. In the same way, on June 14 the Waqf, through the army of hired Muslims, rebelled and transgressed against the order of the Israeli courts to not remove the rest of this dirt containing evidence of the set-apart place. And this fulfillment of the literal Hebrew of transgression and rebellion caused desolation to the remains and the foundation of the set-apart place. The Waqf and Muslim workers treated what was set-apart ground as worthless and desolated it, laying it waste, trampling and walking all over that which is set-apart, and trampling over the host or mass of the Jewish people in Israel, rejecting the order of the Israeli court and treating the Jewish people themselves as though they were worthless and of no value. And it was even done at night, from evening to morning, just as the Hebrew says 'evening morning.' The workers all arrived at sunset and worked secretly through the night, as the Waqf attempted to hide their transgression and desolation under the cover of darkness. From the event of June 14 begins a countdown of 2,300 evening morning, 2,300 evenings plus 2,300 mornings, equaling 2,300 days. And at the end of that counting the set-apart is made right and corrected. Daniel 8:11-14 does not say that the set-apart place will be made right again at the end of that counting of days, only that that which is set-apart will be made right again. September 30, 2024 will be the completion of those 2,300 evening morning, and then that which is set-apart will be corrected and restored.

December 29, 2018	21 st day of the 10 th month 6018	Prophecy Fulfilled: Revelation 7:2 1. The Start of the Sealing of Love upon the Bride of Yeshua with "Set-apartness to Yahuweh/Yehovah" קִדְּשׁ לַיהוָה in Kansas City in Fulfillment of the Prophecy Given to Paul Cain in 1990, in Preparation for the Sealing and Birthing of the 144,000 and One New Man Nation Israel, and in Preparation for Protection from the Soon Coming Mark of the Beast.

		Yahuweh/Yehovah gave a vision and a word to Paul Cain in 1990 which Yahuweh/Yehovah instructed him to fly to Kansas City and give to Mike Bickle. The vision was of an auditorium somewhere on the earth. In the auditorium he saw a banner written over the auditorium with the words “Holiness to the LORD.” And he saw thousands of young people gathered in the building, and he was given the understanding that from this gathering in the building Yahuweh/Yehovah would release a grace to walk in holiness. And in the room there would be a new kind of music and a new approach to holiness related to Yahuweh/Yehovah’s heart. He also saw details and colors about the auditorium in order to be able to identify it. After Paul Cain arrived in Kansas City and was telling Mike Bickle about the vision he saw, Mike Bickle was called to help in signing the contract for using the Kansas City Convention Center for an upcoming event. So Paul Cain went with Mike Bickle on this errand and Paul Cain was shocked to discover that the auditorium he had seen in the vision was the Kansas City Convention Center. Not knowing any of this, an Egyptian man had a dream about the upcoming Onething Conference, which is held every year at the Kansas City Convention Center. In the dream he saw the words “Holiness to the LORD” written over the Onething 2018 Conference gathering, and Yahuweh/Yehovah instructed the Egyptian man to make the seal of gold worn by the High Priest and to design it himself. And then to write on the seal of pure gold the words “Holiness to the Lord” קודש ליהוה in Hebrew, English, and Arabic; and on the back of the seal 2 nations from North America (U.S. and Canada), 3 nations from Asia (China, Korea, and Japan), 3 nations from Europe (U.K., Germany, and France), and the 3 nations of the highway of holiness in Isaiah 19 (Egypt, Israel, and Syria). The night of December 28, 2018 after sunset on the 21st day of the 10th month Yahuweh/Yehovah began to move upon the gathering of thousands of young people (who already play a new kind of worship music that was unheard of in 1990) with the verse of Song of Songs 8:6, as Yahuweh/Yehovah began to set himself as a seal of love upon the hearts and arms. This was the beginning of the new approach to holiness shown to Paul Cain for the global body of believers in Yeshua across the entire earth, a movement of holiness through the love of Yahuweh/Yehovah within our hearts moving us to keep his commands through love. Then on the day of December 29 on the 21st day of the 10th month the peoples gathered together at the conference from many nations came together on the stage. The night before the Egyptian man had presented the seal he had had crafted as a gift to IHOP for the gathering of the Onething Conference. Exodus 28:36-38 describes the instructions for the gold plate that is crafted to be worn on the forehead of the High Priest. And Yahuweh/Yehovah instructs that the words Set-apart (Holiness) to Yahuweh/Yehovah קדש ליהוה be written on it, and that the

		gold plate is a chotham חֹתָם, in Hebrew literally meaning a seal. The High Priest was sealed on the forehead with the words קִדְשׁ לַיהוָה “Set-apart to Yahuweh/Yehovah” written in pure gold. The seal of pure gold made by the Egyptian man with the words “Holiness to the Lord” קודש ליהוה written upon it was then taken up by the Chinese representatives who had come for the gathering and placed upon the forehead of Mike Bickle as a seal and shadow picture sign that Paul Cain’s vision and word had come to pass and been fulfilled in the very same building that he saw the words written in the vision “Holiness to the LORD.” But it also was a representation, as the crown was placed upon the head of Yehoshua the High Priest in Zechariah 6 as the physical representation of the coming salvation of Yahuweh/Yehovah in the form of the Messiah Yeshua, Michael was the representation of the sealing of “Holiness to the LORD” upon the foreheads of all of Yahuweh/Yehovah’s people across the earth. At the time of the sealing, the word that Yahuweh/Yehovah spoke to David Damien about the seal was, “I am releasing before the world put the chip in your hand and your forehead. I am marking my chosen ones, because the time has come for the enemy to do what he wants. And I am going to go ahead of him, and I am going to mark my chosen ones. I don’t need chips. With my fire of the Holy Spirit I will write on every forehead “Holiness unto the LORD.” The Hebrew word for seal, chotham חֹתָם, used in Exodus 28:36 is the exact same Hebrew word chotham חֹתָם used for Yahuweh/Yehovah’s seal of love in Song of Songs 8:6. The seal of love on our hearts and arms goes together with the seal of “Set-apartness to Yahuweh/Yehovah” on our foreheads. And the seal had to be placed upon the forehead by the Chinese because just as men came from the East to bear witness to Yeshua’s first coming, again men and women came from the East to bear witness now to Yeshua’s second coming in a beginning fulfillment of Revelation 7:2 as the messenger came from China from the East, from the rising of the sun, with the seal of the living Elohim (God) to seal the foreheads of the 144,000. Even though the 6th seal was not yet opened on December 29 and the 144,000 were not yet fully sealed, the messenger from the rising of the sun did come with the seal of the living Elohim that is now ready to seal the foreheads of the 144,000 when the time comes. As shown in the Prophecy Countdown part 1 download e-book, the majority of the 144,000 who will be sealed will come from southern Asia, especially east of the Euphrates River, because this is where all of the evidence shows most of the descendants of the 10 northern tribes of Israel are living today. This is why so many from China and Asia were represented at the Onething 2018 conference and they had to be the ones to be the sign of setting the seal of “Set-apartness to Yahuweh/Yehovah.” Also, in Revelation 14 John tells us specifically what the seal
--	--	---

		is that is sealed upon the foreheads of the 144,000, it is the name of Yeshua's father Yahuweh/Yehovah יהוה written upon their foreheads. Now we have seen the physical representation of that spiritual seal that is upon the foreheads of the 144,000, it is the name of Yahuweh/Yehovah, but specifically the same seal of pure gold that is upon the forehead of the High Priest, it is קודש ליהוה "Holiness to the LORD," it is "Set-apartness to Yahuweh/Yehovah." This is what Paul Cain saw in the vision all those years ago without realizing, it was the seal that is upon the foreheads of the 144,000. And the new music that Paul Cain could not understand before that he saw being played is the new song that the 144,000 sing, a song that only they are able to sing. Even though the 144,000 have not yet been sealed in the fullness of Revelation 7 and have not yet begun to sing the new song of Revelation 14, the 144,000 are now in the womb of the Revelation 12 woman, preparing to be birthed. The woman of Revelation 12 is the Jews and Gentiles as believers in Yeshua coming together in unity as the One New Man of Ephesians 2, as one family. And the male child that they give birth to in the last days is the 144,000 who are the first born of the united nation of the olive tree of Israel. The pure gold seal of "Holiness to the LORD" is a seal that is now being placed upon the foreheads of every believer in Yeshua across the entire earth in 2019, as a preparation for the mark of the Beast that is coming very soon. But not everyone who receives this initial seal will be protected as the 144,000 or will be able to sing the new song the 144,000 sing. Some who receive this initial seal will still be called to die as martyrs. This first seal is the seal to protect those whose names are written in the Book of Life from receiving the mark of the Beast and protection from the wrath of Yahuweh/Yehovah as in Ezekiel 9. But the 144,000 receive a special seal that does not allow them to be killed throughout the entire tribulation. And the 144,000 are now in the womb of the woman of Revelation 12 waiting for the moment when the 6th seal is opened and they are birthed to become the beginning of the One New Man nation Israel, the eternal Israel which all believers in Yeshua will be together in as one in the new heavens and new earth. And the foundation of this nation of Yahuweh/Yehovah's Israel is the seal of Yahuweh/Yehovah's love on their hearts which causes them to be sealed upon their foreheads as "Set-apart to Yahuweh/Yehovah." Additionally, in September 1982, when Mike Bickle was in Cairo, Egypt, Yahuweh/Yehovah told Mike with an internal, audible voice, "I am going to change the understanding and expression of Christianity in the whole earth in one generation." At the same time of the sealing of "Holiness to the LORD" קודש ליהוה, this changing of the understanding and expression of Christianity began, and will not stop until all of Christianity around the entire earth is completely changed before the generation after generation Z is born. Generation Z is the last

		generation of the earth that will have known a time of Christianity as it was in the past, in the old container, the old wineskin. All of the believers in Yeshua will now become one family, one body of Messiah without denominations or divisions or organizations, and this generation is the one which will see the change of the expression of Christianity as the “Holiness to the LORD” sealing movement of the 144,000 is now conceived in Kansas City and waiting in the womb across the entire earth to be soon birthed into all the nations. Not knowing any of this, Yahuweh/Yehovah spoke to both Sadhu Selvaraj and Neville Johnson the exact same word about the start of the new year of 2019. They both had expected Yahuweh/Yehovah to begin a new thing at the Day of Trumpets, but he told them both that this year he is beginning a new thing at the new year of 2019. On December 21, 2018 on the 13th day of the 10th month 6018 Yeshua walked into the room with Sadhu as a Lamb with 7 eyes and 7 horns as in Revelation 5. And he said concerning the new year of 2019, “I am coming in a new way to meet my people. Tell them a new beginning is going to dawn on the whole world, a new beginning of power and glory that the world has not seen yet. My people shall be equipped with the glory.” Yahuweh/Yehovah had given the same word to Neville Johnson, except he added the explanation to Neville that it would be a ‘new reformation type of beginning.’ And Sadhu saw in visions, ‘many, many youths and young people who are prepared and set-apart’ for this new beginning. And as he spoke the word on live television he saw in a vision, saying, “I see these white horses in heaven right in your house and the zeal and the power is being imparted, that strength is being imparted to you. ... The old will be cast away and all the old things will become new in your life.” Also in 2019 Yahuweh/Yehovah told him that he is opening the door of the most set-apart place, the set-apart of set-aparts, for those who are pure to enter into greater intimacy with him. The new beginning at the new year that Yahuweh/Yehovah spoke about to Sadhu and Neville is the new understanding and expression of Christianity that will now come about in one generation, which is Yahuweh/Yehovah’s sealing the hearts of his people with love and their foreheads with set-apartness to himself, to live set-apart and clean lives according to his commands and his instruction through his love poured out within their hearts. December 29 was the infant beginning expression of “Set-apartness to Yahuweh/Yehovah” as the next stage of his 7 year strengthening of his new covenant for many for 1 seven, his new covenant of Jeremiah 31 where he writes his Torah upon our hearts, causing us to be set-apart through his love and delight for us, which brings about our love for him. And because we love him we delight in the freedom of keeping his commands. And it was this new movement conceived on December 29, but in the process of being birthed upon the entire earth as Yahuweh/Yehovah seals the hearts and

		foreheads of every believer on earth, that is the new reformation beginning which Yahuweh/Yehovah spoke of to Sadhu and Neville that would begin now at the new year of 2019. But this is only the conception in the womb of the new thing that Yahuweh/Yehovah is creating on the earth. The full birthing of this 144,000 One New Man Nation Israel sealed with Set-apartness to Yahuweh/Yehovah will not come until the start of the 3 ½ years of tribulation when the woman gives birth to the male child, the first fruits or first born, the 144,000 who are now in process of being sealed from the east. Some of the 144,000 Israelites from Asia may have even been in the auditorium of the Kansas City Convention Center at the sealing and do not even know yet they are called to be among the 144,000. The 6th seal has not yet been opened, but the messenger in Revelation 7:2 has now come up from the rising of the sun and is standing ready with the seal of Yahuweh/Yehovah to set the seal on the 144,000 at the moment when the 6th seal is opened, which means the opening of the 6th seal is imminent in the near future.

The Beast Out of the Sea and the Beast Out of the Earth Update

(Daniel 2, 7-9, 11-12; Revelation 13, 17)

The Two Feet Trying to Unite but Remaining Divided

In Nebuchadnezzar's dream of the statue in Daniel 2, there are a series of manmade empires represented through history, and the very last empire is the two feet of iron mixed with clay. One of the important identifiers of this empire that makes it different from the rest is that it is the only empire that is divided. It is not a united empire, but is divided against itself, made up of 10 different rulers of 10 different governments who try to unite together under the little horn, but remain divided throughout its existence. The two feet are the final empire that exists before Yahuweh/Yehovah comes as the uncut stone and smashes all of the empires of mankind, bringing them to an end permanently.

These two feet are the final Beast in Daniel and Revelation that rules the earth during a time, times, and half a time of tribulation trouble for Yahuweh/Yehovah's people. Even though it is a beast that is weaker than all the others before it because of the division within it and its inability to unite, it is still the most evil and terrifying of all of the empires before it. From Daniel 2 we know that one of the ways to identify the final beast of the two feet is by its inability to unite together, no matter how hard it tries. It has to be divided and torn in two, between the two feet, and within the two feet themselves, in order to be the final beast that rules during the tribulation up to when Yahuweh/Yehovah comes to rule on the earth.

We know from Daniel 2 that the head of the statue is the Babylonian Empire, and from Revelation 17 we know that the empire existing in John's day, the Roman Empire, has to be one of the empires in the statue as well. We also know from Revelation 17 that there has to be another empire that comes into existence after John has died that is not the Roman Empire, that is a completely different empire not associated with the Roman Empire. Then after another empire comes into existence after the Roman Empire, there is a final empire that is a rebirthing or reviving of pieces of all of the empires that came before it (the Beast Out of the Sea that is made up of all of the pieces of the empires Daniel saw in Daniel 7). But the final empire is primarily made up of the iron of the two legs of empires that preceded directly before it.

We know from Revelation 17 that the Roman Empire is one of these two empires, but what is the other? The Islamic Empire is the only other one that matches the criteria set out in Daniel 7. And the Roman and Islamic Empires are the only two empires that fit the criteria of the fourth beast in Daniel 7 (which is the legs of iron in the statue) and at the same time still partially exist in broken up and divided pieces to this day.

Unlike the Beast Out of the Sea, the prophecy of the Beast Out of the Earth in Revelation 13 is not found anywhere else in Scripture. It is only in Revelation. The other important thing about the Beast Out of the Earth is that John in Revelation never describes what it looks like. He only says that it has two lamb horns, but he never describes what the rest of the beast actually looks like. He never says that the rest of the beast is a lamb or sheep or any kind of animal. He saw some kind of animal looking beast, but what he saw he never wrote down. All that we know is that it has two horns of a lamb on its head, but that it speaks like a dragon.

Again John does not say what he means when he says that it speaks like a dragon. He was the only one who heard this beast speak, and to him it sounded like a dragon talking, but I think that most people go through their whole life and never hear a dragon speak. So what does a dragon sound like and how can you identify that a dragon is speaking, or what words does a dragon say? John does not explain what this means, that the Beast Out of the Earth sounded like a dragon talking, but it may be that what he was really saying is that this Beast Out of the Earth spoke the same way with the same words that he heard the serpent dragon Satan speak in Revelation 12. If this is the case, then we know what the serpent dragon Satan sounds like and the types of words that he speaks from Genesis 3 in the garden when he deceived Chavvah (Eve).

The primary difference between the Beast Out of the Sea and the Beast Out of the Earth is that the Beast Out of the Earth is a religious entity or a religion that causes people to worship the Beast Out of the Sea. This shows the principle that the Beast Out of the Sea is the political power of the final beast empire to rule the earth before Yeshua returns, and that the Beast Out of the Earth is the religious power backing the Beast Out of the Sea. This shows that the final beast will exist in two different centers or capitals of power, one being the political seat of power, the other the religious seat of power.

Even though John does not give much detail about the Beast Out of the Earth, he does give enough of a description with the two lamb horns to know that the Beast Out of the Earth outwardly professes to believe in Yeshua the Lamb or contain some form of Yeshua the Lamb in its theology and doctrine, but at the same time it twists and changes the truth about Yeshua into a false belief or worship of him, with dragon words like the twisted words of the serpent Satan in the garden. And because there are two lamb horns on this beast that means that there have to be two separate religious entities that are part of the Beast Out of the Earth that both have twisted or changed forms of belief about Yeshua the Passover Lamb who takes away the sins of the world.

The Roman and Islamic Empires are the only two empires which have taken Scripture and changed it into a perverted belief about Yeshua the Lamb for the purpose of political and religious power by which to govern their empires. Constantine I was one of the last Roman Emperors to rule over a united Roman Empire, but he recognized that the empire was dying. So he consolidated his power by creating freedom of religion in the empire for both Christians and Pagans equally. Constantine himself remained a Pagan all his life, only allegedly converting to Christianity on his death bed. But what he accomplished during his lifetime was the joining together of the Christian religion and the belief in Yeshua the Lamb with the Pagan Roman Culture and with the Roman Empire itself. The Christians in the Roman Empire even before the days of Constantine had already been adopting the worldly Pagan culture of the Roman Empire, but what Constantine did was to make the mixed Pagan and Christian customs into law and practice throughout the Roman Empire. And it was Constantine's joining of the Roman Empire with Christianity that set in motion the events that would eventually cause the Popes to become powerful religious leaders within the empire and of the Christian faith with political backing.

Also, it was because of Constantine joining together the Christian faith with the political strength of the Roman Empire, that a two capital system began to form after the Roman Empire split in two, a system of a political capital in one city within the empire with a religious capital at the Vatican in Rome. The political capital moved around the empire throughout its history, but the religious capital always stayed in Rome with the Pope.

And through Constantine's political power he was able to force all Christians across the Roman Empire to follow one, single form of Christianity, the Roman form of Christianity decided upon by the First Council of Nicea. The change of the date for the celebration of Passover is one example in the surviving records of how the Roman Empire and Christianity were forged together in a unity of rejection of the Word of Yahuweh/Yehovah in Scripture. According to Eusebius's historical records he wrote in the 4th century in his Life of Constantine and Ecclesiastical History that at the time of the Council of Nicea the congregations of believers in Asia in the East were still celebrating Passover on the 14th day of the 1st month, the month of the Aviv, according to the sighting of the New Moon. They were still using Yahuweh/Yehovah's calendar which he created and instructs in Scripture for his followers to keep in Genesis 1, Exodus 9, Exodus 12-13, Exodus 16, Leviticus 23, Leviticus 25, Psalms 81, Ezra 3. Yahuweh/Yehovah instructs in Exodus and Leviticus both for his followers to keep Passover on the 14th day of the new moon of the aviv. (The Hebrew word for month, chodesh חֹדֶשׁ, literally means new or new moon.) This is his calendar that he uses and instructs his people to use, and this is the only calendar in Scripture which he ever instructs his followers to use. Yahuweh/Yehovah has never changed his calendar at any time in history, and no man has the authority to change his calendar.

The believers in Yeshua in the East were still keeping the day of Passover according to Yahuweh/Yehovah's instruction in Scripture. They were obeying the words of Scripture, unlike the congregations of believers in the West who had adopted a different day for Passover, the first Sunday after the spring equinox every year according to the Pagan manmade Roman calendar. The congregations in the East commemorated Passover on the actual day of Passover, on the actual day that Yeshua was crucified and died as the Passover Lamb for forgiveness of sins, while the congregations in the west followed the command of the Roman Church to commemorate Passover on the first day of the week, on the day after Yeshua rose from the dead, on a day that Yeshua did not die as the Passover Lamb for forgiveness of sins. [The reason the congregations in the West give for choosing the first day of the week for the new day to celebrate Passover is because they thought that that was the day that Yeshua rose from the dead. They obviously did not read Scripture, because Matthew 28, Mark 16, Luke 24, and John 20 all clearly record that Yeshua had already risen before the first day of the week, before Mary and Mary and the other women came to the tomb early in the morning.]

The controversy over the day of Passover is all recorded in the following translations of Eusebius's Life of Constantine and Ecclesiastical History, and the translation of a letter in the Ecumenical Councils of the Catholic Church. The only problem with the following translation in The Greek Ecclesiastical Historians of the First Six Centuries of the Christian Era is that everywhere where it originally has written the Greek word Pascha, meaning Passover, the translation has erroneously translated Pascha as Easter, even though the Greek word Pascha did not mean Easter in the 4th century. The Greek Septuagint and Greek New Testament always use the word Pascha πάσχα for the Hebrew word Pesach פֶּסַח, which is the festival of Passover.

And through the authority of Constantine's sword, the congregations in the West forced the congregations in the East to abandon Scripture, and to follow their command to celebrate Passover (which later came to be called Easter in English after the Pagan goddess Eostre) on the first day of the week after the spring equinox, a command which is not found anywhere in Scripture. And after this decision was reached, Constantine wrote a letter about the reasons why they decided to officially change Passover to the first day of the week and ignore what Scripture says. Constantine wrote, "For what can be more becoming or honourable to us than that this feast, from which we date our hopes of immortality, should be observed unfailingly by all alike, according to one ascertained order and arrangement? And first of all, it appeared an unworthy thing that in the celebration of this most holy feast we should follow the practice of the Jews, who have impiously defiled their hands with enormous sin, and are therefore deservedly afflicted with blindness of soul. For we have it in our power, if we abandon their custom, to prolong the due observance of this ordinance to future ages, by a truer order, which we have preserved from the very day of the passion until the present time. Let us then have nothing in common with the detestable Jewish crowd; for we have received from our Saviour a different way.”

The reason why the Christians at the time decided to change the celebration of Passover from the day that Yahuweh/Yehovah says to celebrate it in Scripture according to his word was because they were filled with hate for the Jewish people and were anti-Semites who did not want to follow customs that were also practiced by Jews. The reason for the change in Christianity of celebrating Passover on the 14th day of the new moon of the aviv as Scripture instructs to the first Sunday after the spring equinox, a date found nowhere in Scripture, is because of hatred. The deception and delusion used to fool the Christians at that time was to make them believe a false gospel that the Jews had commanded the keeping of the festivals. But it was Yahuweh/Yehovah who commanded the way and the dates of his festivals in Exodus, Leviticus, and Deuteronomy, and there is nowhere in Scripture where anyone, not even Yeshua, who changed the ways of celebration and the dates of these festivals. And because the Christians rejected and did away with the command of Yahuweh/Yehovah in Scripture, they removed Yahuweh/Yehovah himself and his love from within their hearts, which caused them to fall into the delusion of hatred toward Yahuweh/Yehovah’s covenant people who are eternally the apple of his eye (Zechariah 2; Malachi 3).

Yahuweh/Yehovah is love and everything he does, even judgment and correction, is out of a motivation of love. He is the only one who has the authority to set the date of his festival of Passover which he says belongs to him, and there is nowhere in Scripture that he has ever changed the date of Passover, or ever changed the name of Passover to Easter. If the change of the date of Passover by the Council of Nicea was truly of Yahuweh/Yehovah and from him, then it would have been done in love and brought fruit of love. If the Council of Nicea truly felt that the Jewish people were their enemies, then they should have loved the Jewish people even more as Yeshua commands in Matthew 5:43-48, and they should have sought after Yahuweh/Yehovah to find out his pure way to keep Passover according to his instruction out of love. But the only motivation that they had in changing Passover was a motivation of hate, which shows that their change of the Passover cannot be of Yahuweh/Yehovah and is a command of men.

In Constantine’s words it can be seen how he professes a belief in the Lamb Yeshua, but speaks with the words of the dragon from his mouth, words of hate which deny the Words of Yeshua in Scripture. They are deceptive words that say just like the serpent Satan in the garden to Chavvah (Eve) that Christians do not really have to obey what Yahuweh/Yehovah says in Scripture; Christians can make up their religion to be any way that they want it to be and do not really have to obey the Words and commands of Yahuweh/Yehovah. Constantine is only the example; all the believers in Yeshua at that time who bowed down to the Roman Empire and loved the worldliness of the Roman Empire so much that they wanted the empire and Christianity to join together as one, were following after a false gospel and a false messiah version of Yeshua, which the Apostles (Emissaries) continually warned against in their letters, especially in 2 Corinthians 11:1-4. But Constantine was the one who first brought together the beast of the Roman Empire with a changed version of a belief in the Lamb Yeshua that was no longer pure, that was filled with the love of the world and the commands of men and a hatred in direct opposition to what Yeshua taught (John 14-17; 1 John 4-5).

The Roman Christianity of the Roman Empire is then one of the two lamb horns that has a form of belief in Yeshua the Lamb, but speaks with dragon words, changing the words of Yeshua and the words of Scripture into commands of men. But it should be noted that this has nothing to do with Catholics or people within the Catholic church; it is only the political-religious governing system of the Vatican itself which historically has continued to preserve this Roman lamb horn fused together and created by Constantine I in the 4th century. And of course Islam is the other empire which has carried the other lamb horn within it, while at the same time speaking words of the dragon.

Islam is more obvious, because even though Islam teaches that Yeshua is a true prophet, it denies that Yeshua is the Son of Elohim (God) and is Elohim himself. It also denies that Yeshua is the Messiah. Mohammed keeps a partial belief of Yeshua the Lamb within the Quran, but at the same time speaks like the dragon in its denial and changing of the words of Scripture, making people believe in a different god named Allah and denying that Yeshua is God in the flesh, and his sacrifice on the cross is the only atonement for sin unto eternal life. And again this has nothing to do with Muslims, just the political-religious system of the Islamic leadership through history.

Like the Roman Empire since the creation of Roman Christianity, the Islamic Empire has also existed with the same two capital system, having a political center of power in one city and the religious center of power in another, primarily in Mecca. The political capital of the Islamic Empire has moved around everywhere, but the religious capital has always primarily been Mecca and to some extent Cairo, Egypt.

There are many other religions that have been created with twisted or changed beliefs about Yeshua inserted into them, but the Roman Christian and Islamic religions are the only ones which have also been simultaneously political empires or beasts that have ruled the world through their deceptive, lamb-like religions, empires based upon a changing of Scripture.

These two lamb horns first forged and created into their wholeness by Constantine and Mohammed have existed separately as individual horns divided against each other. It is when the two horns join together as one beast that they become the fulfillment of the prophecy of the Beast Out of the Earth. They do not truly become the Beast Out of the Earth until the false prophet brings them together in unity, and when they come together this is the rising of the Beast Out of the Earth in the last days that causes people to worship the Beast Out of the Sea during the 42 months of tribulation.

The reason that the Final Beast during the tribulation will be so deceptive is because it has already been here on the earth in operation for about 1,700 years or longer. The final fourth beast that Daniel saw in Daniel 7 is both the legs of iron and the feet of iron mixed with clay. The fourth beast dies and is broken up, then rises again back to life as the two divided feet of iron and clay mixed together. It will not be a brand new beast or empire that has never existed before, it will be the same old empires and systems that are already in place all around us coming back to life again. The Final Beast will look very familiar and feel very comfortable like normal life happening around everyone. It will not be that easy to identify, except for those who are very firmly grounded in a knowledge of the words and lessons of Scripture, and who accept the entire Scripture from beginning to end without denying any portion of any word which Yahuweh/Yehovah has spoken throughout it, and who have a deep knowledge and understanding about who Yahuweh/Yehovah is as a person.

The ways of the Final Beast will be different from the way that Yahuweh/Yehovah does things; it will be a denial of his instructions for righteousness in the Torah and Gospels and it will be a denial of his Hebrew (crossing over from the world) culture in the Torah and Gospels. Anyone who is not firmly grounded in both the Torah (Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy) and the Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Acts) will falter and fall into the Beast deception, because they will be standing on only one of the legs of their faith.

Yeshua says in Matthew 5:17-18 that he did not come to abolish the Torah, but to make it complete and whole. This means that a person can only be complete in their faith if they are filled with both the Torah and the Gospels, one without the other is not enough. A person under the new covenant must be filled with the Torah of Yahuweh/Yehovah inside of them, with it written on their hearts, according to Jeremiah 31 (quoted in Hebrews); but they also must be filled with the Good News and Sin Covering of Yeshua, which comes through the immersion in the cleansing fire of the Spirit of Yahuweh/Yehovah in Matthew 3 and Acts 1-3.

Only a person who is filled with Torah and filled with Yahuweh/Yehovah's fire will be adequately equipped to avoid the deception of the beast in the last days, and to be able to even recognize when the beast has risen into power. Nobody gets to pick and choose their covenant with Yahuweh/Yehovah, he has one new covenant for all and that covenant is the Torah written on our hearts with the Spirit of Yahuweh/Yehovah poured out and dwelling in us. You have to accept the whole covenant and let Yahuweh/Yehovah guide you into what he requires of you in your covenant with him. And of course according to Jeremiah 31 the new covenant with Yahuweh/Yehovah is only the means to a much greater end, to know him, to know who he is as a person, and be in relationship with him without any sin getting in the way of your relationship.

The two horns of the Beast Out of the Earth have already been in existence for 1,700 years, but they have never come together. The two feet representing the divided political entities of Rome and Islam started coming together in the shadows through the Nazis during World War II, but the religious entities of Roman Christianity and Islam have remained divided ever since Islam came into existence 1,400 years ago, until now. Within the last few years the Vatican lamb horn has begun forming alliances and working on close partnerships with both Shia Islam in Iran and Sunni Islam in the rest of the Muslim countries. Iran has closer diplomatic ties to the Vatican than almost any other country in the world. And Pope Francis has been working harder to form a relationship of unity with Muslims than even with other Christian denominations around the world.

Pope Francis has been reaching out to the current top religious leader of Sunni Islam Grand Imam Sheik Ahmed el-Tayeb for years. And through his efforts the Human Fraternity Document was born, the very first document of unity between the two lamb horns in 1,400 years of history. The following timeline and explanation of the timeline gives the details. But in the end the unity will fail, and the Beast Out of the Sea and the Beast Out of the Earth will still be divided by the end of the tribulation when Yahuweh/Yehovah comes. But there will be at least some superficial unity that will come about to some extent.

It is also interesting to note that Erdogan is trying to make Turkey into a power center for the Beast that is currently beginning to rise again. Right now there are many factions and people who are vying for power and position in the Final Beast that is beginning to revive and heal its fatal wound, but it is still too early to tell exactly who will be in the positions of true power when the Little Horn takes his place of command over the Beast for 42 months. As shown later on, possible power centers that are beginning to form are in Berlin, Rome, Paris, Istanbul, Cairo, Mecca, Dubai/Abu Dhabi, and Tehran. But there is no way to know yet which of these will actually take part in being places of power in the finalized Beast. China also has important things happening within the nation to watch for.

Instex (Special Purpose Vehicle)

The European Union is determined to ally with Iran no matter how much Iran tries to destroy them. Even after Iran has tried to do terrorist attacks in their countries and capture their oil rigs, the nations of the European Union still are trying to save the Iran nuclear deal and be friends and allies with Iran. It appears from their diplomatic missions with Iran that they want to be allies with Iran more than they want to be allies with America. Outwardly the Instrument in Support of Trade Exchange appears to be a way for the European Union to bypass U.S. sanctions against Iran and save the 2015 Nuclear Deal. But what it really does is set up a trial run for Europe to bypass having to use the America Dollar as their international currency.

After World War II America said to the nations of the world if they will give America all of their gold to hold in Fort Knox, then the American Dollar would be backed by that gold and would become a stable international currency for all the nations of the world to use for reconstruction after the devastation. When America left the gold standard completely in 1971, the American Dollar still remained the international currency of the world, but was instead backed by OPEC oil. Saudi Arabia and the OPEC nations promised to use the American Dollar for all oil transactions, keeping the Dollar with a strong backing. To the present day the American Dollar is still the international currency used by nations for trading in oil and for stability. This is why so many nations in recent years have been trying to find a way to no longer have to use the American Dollar, because it is the only thing stopping other nations from creating an international currency.

The European Union is one of many power centers in the world who want to develop their own international currencies by which to control the beast of the global economy. Instex is a trial run at creating an economic mechanism of trade directly controlled by the European Union by which the American Dollar becomes obsolete and no longer necessary to use. It is a step towards the creation of a digital economy by which everyone would be required to have a personal digital identification number or digital membership mark to be able to buy and sell within the global economy, or eventually even in local economies. If the nations of the world continue going in this direction, it will mean the creation of an economic system which would have complete control over deciding who is allowed to buy and sell, and could make any requirements or demands of anyone who wants to participate in it. It is the beginnings of a new power never seen before in the history of the world over people's ability to buy and sell and participate in the economy. Paris and Berlin were chosen as the power centers for Instex to operate from.

The mechanisms and systems of power and control of people's abilities to buy and sell are already in existence; it is only a matter of when they will be put in place and enforced on a larger scale. Already in some countries such as Belgium and Australia certain cash transactions are illegal and only digital transactions by computer or phone, etc. are allowed. And in India some denominations of cash are no longer legal tender in the country as they begin to try to force everyone into using digital transactions only.

Treaty of Aachen

After the split of the Roman Empire, the empire continued in east and west. Charlemagne was the one who strengthened the empire by founding the Holy Roman Empire in the west. Charlemagne is the founder of modern Europe and of the European Union, because it was his empire that eventually developed into the political system by which the European Union runs today, with multiple nation states united in a confederation under a continental governing body. Charlemagne’s original capital of his empire was in the city of Aachen, but through its history it moved around to many locations, primarily in Germany, and used the two capital system, with both a political capital and religious capital.

The European Union has been an attempt to revive the Roman Empire back to life again by establishing another Holy Roman Empire like Charlemagne’s, and Germany and France are now becoming the main powers behind this revival of the Holy Roman Empire, just as they were before through history. They met in Aachen, Charlemagne’s capital, to form a greater alliance with one another, signing the Treaty of Aachen that declares the intention of both nations to work more closely together and culturally bond their nations in greater ways.

Human Fraternity Document

On February 4, 2019 (simultaneous to the preparation meetings for the European Union and League of Arab States Summit) Pope Francis met with the Grand Imam Sheik Ahmed el-Tayeb in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates for the signing of the Human Fraternity Document. It was the first visit of a Pope to the Arabian Peninsula, and it was the first time that the two lamb horns came together in open, public unity. The most important concept in the Human Fraternity Document was the agreement between the Pope and the Grand Imam as heads of their religions that God created people to be ethnically and culturally diverse. And in this diversity he also created people to be religiously diverse, to worship him according to any religion of their choosing. This is the ingenious deception that has begun in preparation for the Beast Out of the Earth as it begins to come together, that everyone will be able to worship the Beast according to the religion of their choosing. There will be freedom of religion to worship the Beast in any way that a person wants to worship it.

Pope Francis is so intent on bringing Islam and the religions of the world together, he cares more about being one with Muslims than he does for Christians who are persecuted in Muslim countries.

Evil learns well as it tries again and again through history to take over the earth with one beast empire after another. This time the deception is going to be so streamlined and perfected that only those who have a very strong, solid grounding in knowing who Yahuweh/Yehovah is as a person, and knowing the truth according to all of Scripture from beginning to end, will be able to recognize when the delusion comes, and it is already coming. When people begin using even the Christian religion as a way to worship the Beast that is when it is time to get out fast. The wheat cannot stay with the tares (weeds) who decide to stay in compromised Christianity to worship the Beast. Any Christian institutions, organizations, denominations, religions, beliefs, faiths, or congregations that compromise Scripture in order to stay with the world and love the world, that adopt the practices of the culture of the world and create a different Good News and a different Yeshua in order to be able to stay with the direction that society is going away from Yahuweh/Yehovah will use their twisted forms of Christianity to worship the Beast.

And as the worldwide culture begins to turn against Yahuweh/Yehovah in apostasy and direct rebellion against who he is as a person and his ways, the only way to be able to tell if you are still walking with Yahuweh/Yehovah and staying in unity with him will be to know who he is and the way he does things. And those who stay in the Christian institutions and congregations, who will decide to stay in their comfortable Christianity and worship the Beast (in the same way the churches in Germany adopted the worship of Hitler and Nazism with altars to Hitler at their pulpits), will find themselves worshipping the Beast and will even persecute the wheat and true believers in Yeshua, thinking that they are righteously serving God in their persecution of the wheat.

While the two lamb horns were attempting to come together in closer unity in Abu Dhabi, the two feet were attempting to come together in Sharm El Sheikh within the same time frame. This was the first time that the remnants of the two feet of Rome and Islam have publicly come together in an attempt to politically form a greater bond of unity between them. The only other time in history that this has been done was through the Nazis during and after the war, but it was done in the shadows at that time as discussed later.

World Government Summit

The importance of the World Government Summit was the revealing of how the United Arab Emirates is working to play a role in the Beast Empire that is currently in process of forming. It also showed how widespread the technology for future power and control over the economy and surveillance has become as it is being put in place in even the most remote countries. And it was a workshop for bringing together the deceptions and some of the system operations for running the Beast Empire when the time comes to unveil it. But there is no way to know yet how much of it will actually be used in the Final Beast governing system.

In Genesis 11 the people of the earth gathered together to build a new technology called bricks and mortar, then they used this technology to build a tower, which they planned to use to give themselves god-like powers above Yahuweh/Yehovah, to reach where he lives in the heavens and have power like his power. Yahuweh/Yehovah scattered them across the earth in division as a protection from themselves, so that they could not accomplish their goal of attaining the absolute power that they were seeking. But that has not stopped people from trying to create towers of technology power to use to rule the world with ever since that time.

Thus far everyone trying to build a tower of technology unification power has failed, as Yahuweh/Yehovah has held mankind back from destroying itself until now. The world is now beginning to come together again in unity to build new technologies with which they are already beginning to build towers of power, to give mankind powers like Yahuweh/Yehovah has, such as the power of surveillance to watch everyone simultaneously all the time across the earth. They are using the power of technology to build computer translations so that anyone can converse in any language spontaneously with computers and phones. The world is now coming together to live as a global community again and those who want power over that community are discussing and coming up with technologies and methods for controlling the community and fusing it together as a united society without borders. They are trying to make the world one in the same way that the world at the Tower of Babel was one in their desire for absolute power and rebellion to overthrow Yahuweh/Yehovah's throne in the heavens.

The World Government Summit was a comprehensive look at how that technology tower of power is coming together and being built around the world right now, with the goal of making everyone a citizen of the world, removing Yahuweh/Yehovah's safeguard of nationalities and borders in order to form a global society of people who all live in the single, giant global city called earth.

Creation of a Supranational Authority

On May 2, 2019 Pope Francis began the call for a global governing authority that has the legal ability as a police force to go into individual, sovereign nations and force those nations to comply with global and international laws. One of the roles of the false prophet is to encourage and help people to accept the Beast Out of the Sea Empire as their ruler and authority over them, and to make people fall in love with the Beast in adoration and worship of it.

Vatican Doctrine to Obey All International Authorities

On September 10, 2019 Pope Francis made clear the doctrine of the Vatican and the Catholic Church that it is the duty of everyone on earth to obey as the highest authority all international laws and international governing bodies such as the United Nations and the European Union, which have been recognized as governing authorities by the global community. All national governments must submit to the laws and decisions of the international governments, as the Pope takes on a role of religiously convincing people to be ready to follow and obey the Beast when it rises to power.

The other important part of the press conference was the Pope’s continuation of the Human Fraternity Document, and his speaking about what a beautiful thing it is for people of all religions to come together to worship all of their gods together in unity. Yahuweh/Yehovah can be worshipped side by side in the same place with Buddha and Allah and the millions of Hindu gods, as everyone comes together in religious unity while keeping their religious diversity. The Jews also tried to worship Yahuweh/Yehovah together with all of the gods of the nations as recorded in Ezekiel, which resulted in Yahuweh/Yehovah destroying his own set-apart place, his own Temple, and his people, in order to make his people set-apart again from the world.

Additionally the Pope instructed Christians to stop proselytizing, and to stop preaching and proclaiming the Good News of Yeshua to all the nations as a witness in Matthew 24:14. This is one of the essential things Yeshua instructs his followers to do until the end comes with the placing of the disgusting abomination idol at the set-apart place, to proclaim and teach the Good News across every nation, as a witness for everyone on earth to at least hear about it, even if they reject it. This may be the first Pope in history to instigate a policy that the Catholic Church is not supposed to convert anyone to Catholicism anymore. But more importantly it is the first sign of the opposition coming to try to stop the evangelizing and proclaiming and teaching of the Good News as an attempt to stop the latter rain. It is the beginning signs of what is coming at some point in the future, after the end has come with the placing of the disgusting idol, when the Beast will try to stop all evangelizing and witnessing of the Good News across the nations. And those set-apart in the remnant bride who evangelize at that time will be considered by Christians in the Beast system to be evil, and will be persecuted in the churches and religious organizations for not coming together in unity with the other religions of the world. And those Christians worshipping the Beast will say that they are doing God a favor in persecuting the true believers. Missionaries may be ostracized or even banned from many nations and societies as ‘ideological colonists’ trying to stop people of other religions from worshipping their gods, who the Pope says need to be free to worship their other gods, since their gods are equal to the Christian God.

Yeshua’s instructions on teaching the Good News are simply to teach the Good News in a way that it is made available in love for everyone to hear or know about as an option to choose. And then everybody can make their choice to accept the Good News or reject it. Each person can choose whatever they want; Yeshua does not allow any forcing of the Good News on anyone. It is only to make it available so that each person can make their choice for eternal life or against eternal life. Yeshua makes it very clear that he is the only way to eternal life, and to reject him is to reject eternal life. But he does not force anyone to accept eternal life if they do not want to live eternally with him. And if anyone makes the decision that they do not want Yeshua and eternal life through him, then he instructs his followers to leave that house and continue on to the next one, until everyone has had a chance to hear the Good News.

Evangelizing according to Yeshua’s instructions should be done in love without forcing anything on anyone, but what the Pope is suggesting is that there is no need to tell anyone about the Good News because he is presenting the belief that everyone can get to eternal life through worshipping any god of their choosing. But the importance of this belief the Pope is teaching is that it is a very clear preparation for a time coming when religious leaders around the world are going to teach their followers that it is OK to worship the Beast through the expression of their own religions, because the Beast is the embodiment and fulfillment of everyone’s religions. And even followers of Yeshua might be deceived into worshipping the Beast if they are not careful, because the worship of the Beast will look like freedom of religion and the respect of diverse religions to worship different gods together in unity under the worship of the Beast.

Global Compact on Education

Pope Francis has invited religious and educational leaders and youth from around the world to come to the Vatican on May 14, 2020 to sign the Global Compact on Education. It is to begin promoting the ideals of the Human Fraternity Document of world peace through religious diversity to the youth of the world, to begin teaching it to them in schools and public education globally. The Global Compact on Education is also for the purpose of recreating the global education system into an international system, training children and young adults to become servants for the greater good of society, and to reject anything that would upset the balance and harmony of the earth and the global community. Pope Francis during 2019 already began initiatives for building an International Government to rule all of the nations of the world and an International Religion that accepts the diversity of religions for everyone to worship God or their idea of God in unity together. This is the initiative to build an International Education System for all of the children of the world to be taught properly according to the principles of the Diverse International Government and the Diverse International Religion to be part of the global society.

The Beast of Nazi Germany

Scripture is filled with prophecies of warning about the deception and delusion that comes with the Final Beast Empire before Yeshua’s return. One of the most deceptive beasts to ever rise to power was that of Nazi Germany, and it provides a picture and lesson of how the Final Beast will deceive those who are not firmly grounded in Yahuweh/Yehovah, in who he is as a person and his instruction in Scripture.

On December 2, 2018 Sadhu Selvaraj had a vision and a word from Yahuweh/Yehovah through tongues that he was given interpretation for. Yahuweh/Yehovah said, “The enemy is going to gain strength and stand up on its feet in Europe,” and then, “Now see this vision.” Then Sadhu saw ‘a ferocious beast begin to arise in Europe.’ The beast was like a huge black dragon ‘that was terrible to look at.’ And from its neck came 3 long necks with 3 heads on both the left side and right side, totaling 7 heads. The nails of the black dragon were sharp and long and terrible. 'The tail was very long and the end of the tail was very sharp like arrow heads.' As Sadhu was watching the beast he saw it 'arising and stand up on its legs in Germany.' Then he saw the chancellor of Germany Angela Merkel. And Yahuweh/Yehovah said, "The beast will empower her," and "The beast will cause Germany to arise militarily and become dominant as it once was in ancient days." (And it will happen again as it happened in the days of Hitler and the Nazi Party in Germany.) As Sadhu was watching the vision he saw 'a dark cloud of black smoke arise and spread all over Europe, and it moved and covered all over the UK.' And Yahuweh/Yehovah said, "Darkness is coming over the whole of Europe."

About 7 years earlier while Sadhu was preaching for a television show, a messenger suddenly appeared in front of the camera and told Sadhu to come with him. And they flew from India to Europe, and stood above Germany, and the messenger said to Sadhu, "Now see." While Sadhu was watching he saw from below Germany a thick, black, dark cloud come up. 'And from the midst of the cloud a figure arose,' standing above Germany, and it was Hitler. Then the messenger said, "One more time this spirit will arise, and it will possess the ruler in Germany, and one more time the Jews will be killed. And the number of Jews that will be killed is so great, greater than the Jewish Holocaust. Not only the Jews, but also the Christians."

A few days later on December 6, 2018 Elizabeth Marie of LatterRain333 had a vision in which she saw a clear, blue sky on a nice, sunny day. Then suddenly from her right she saw a huge, sinister looking black dragon flying in the sky. And with him he brought a darkness that covered the beautiful sky and cast a shadow on the earth. And then she heard this message from Yeshua, "This is the mighty dragon that is casting his shadow upon the entire earth. I will give you the strength, spiritual weapons, and courage to survive what is coming. You will shine bright in this darkness and will be a beacon in the storm and the darkness of night. You will have no fear as you step out for me.

I will be with you, and will give you the words you need, at the time you need them. I will be your sufficiency and you will be one of many that I have called to minister my grace. Accept this position now and I will commence your training. You will now be recruited into my (spiritual) army. Are you ready for boot-camp? I am raising up a mighty army that will do my bidding. I am the great chief-in-commander and will teach you personally the engagement of warfare. I will start by putting on you my mighty armor that will be strong enough to reflect the attacks of the enemy. I will shore up all the chinks and it will be secure and tight. Once it is given, put it on daily through the thanksgiving of my word. The storm clouds are rolling in, but grace is sufficient for my own. Seize the moment of time we are in for me. Capture every vain imagination and place it under my blood. Let truth reign in your minds, as you correctly divide the word. Discern the spirits, as there are many false ones that are trying to replicate my true anointed ones. I will speak to you in the night and will lead you by day. Your heavenly friend and commander-in-chief. Yeshua."

And then he also said to her, "Stay true to me! I will comfort you! I will lead and guide you! You are safe under my wings! The darkness comes, but I have overcome the darkness! Know that I love you with an everlasting love! Victory comes on a white horse! Every knee shall bow, and every lip confess that Jesus is Lord! The shadow of the enemy will not overcome!"

During September 2019, while Sadhu Selveraj was in flight over Germany, he had a vision of a great, large dragon flying over the nation of Germany. And during the vision, Yahuweh/Yehovah told Sadhu, "This dragon is looking for a nesting place, and it has chosen this nation and more particularly the city of Berlin for three purposes: to rest, to nest, to roost. The dragon is going to rest its feet to stay. The nest is to give birth to plans and purposes. To roost is to call for others to come and join hands together. The dragon has chosen this nation because this is where it has been dedicated to Satan to be the seat and the throne of Satan." (The Temple of Zeus which is the throne of Satan in Pergamum mentioned in the book of Revelation was moved to Berlin in the 19th century.)

And then later Sadhu gave the first and second counsel he had received from Yahuweh/Yehovah concerning the dragon and his throne in Berlin, “This is the counsel of the LORD. The dragon must be dethroned. Satan has a throne. He’s establishing a throne. Now the church must rise up and dethrone it. Dethrone what? Dethrone the plans and the purposes of the dragon. ... And the second counsel of the LORD. That which the nations failed to do during World War II. ... What did they fail to do? They failed to contain and defeat Hitler and his forces. What they failed to do then, now almost exactly 70 years later, the Church in Germany and the Body of Christ must join hands together to dethrone Satan.”

There is a time coming when Nazism will rise again to power, come back to life and cover the world in darkness and deception. And it is important to understand what the deception of Nazism is in order to not fall into its deceptions or to let it intimidate you into submission. The reality is that Nazism as an ideology never went away after World War II, it went underground into the nations of the earth and is now more widespread with greater delusional power than ever. The root of Nazism is still here on the earth ready to rise again, but it will have a brand new face and image to it, which most will not recognize if they are not prepared for it, especially prepared in their faith in the Lamb Yeshua.

And it is important to understand that even as the Nazis and the spirit of the delusion of Hitler rises again (but this time as the Little Horn in Daniel 7 and 8) it cannot have its throne and power in Berlin or in Germany. The Little Horn and the Beast will rule over the nation of Germany and use it to some extent as a power center, but it cannot be the throne and primary center of power of the Little Horn. The Little Horn has to rule with its throne of power and its ‘National Socialist’ form of Nazi delusion from another place on earth this time, not from Germany.

The word ‘Nazi’ has become common place and recognizable by people around the world, but many do not know what the word ‘Nazi’ actually means. Nazi is only a shortened form of the name of the German political party Nationalsozialistische Deutsche Arbeiterpartei, which translates into English as the National Socialist German Worker’s Party, and was not officially used by the Nazis themselves. Adolph Hitler became the face and leadership of the party almost from its founding, and the political ideology of the party was and still is National Socialism. National Socialism was really simultaneously invented by Hitler and the Nazi Party in Germany, and by Mussolini and the Italian Socialist Party in Italy. In Germany they called National Socialism by the name Nazism and in Italy they called National Socialism by the name Fascism, but they were and still are essentially the same ideologies and philosophies for running governments and nations.

Right away at the beginning the term National Socialism makes one think that it is an ideology that is rooted in the belief of Nationalism, but this is actually not the case. National Socialism can be Nationalistic and used by Nationalists, but it is a form of government that can be used by anyone of global or nationalist belief. The core operation of National Socialism has nothing to do with Nationalism, and can change and adapt to fit into any person’s ideology who is wanting to implement socialism as the form of government in a society. So when one understands that National Socialism has nothing to do with Nationalism, it makes it much easier to understand what it is and how it is currently being used and implemented in various forms in almost every nation on earth today. Nationalism was the cause which the Nazis happened to exploit in Germany, but other causes can be used in place of Nationalism.

National Socialism and Communism are almost identical in their Socialist beliefs and ideologies. Even though they have been enemies at war throughout the 20th century, they are almost identical twins in their Socialist beliefs on running governments and society. But there are also some very key differences between them, which is what makes National Socialism (first implemented by the Italian Fascists and German Nazis) into a more powerful and more deceptive political force and ideology than Communism.

Socialism in its basic form is the redistribution of wealth and resources equally among everyone in a society. Everything the society produces is theoretically supposed to be gathered together into a big giant pile, and then from that pile everyone receives equally the same amount of stuff as everyone else in the society. From each according to their ability; to each according to their need. This is the theory of socialism, but because of human nature the reality is that when there is no incentive to work harder for better pay or income, and there is a guaranteed amount for everyone regardless of the amount of effort put into their work, people automatically do the least and poorest quality work required of them, which over time slowly reduces the pool of resources until the society devolves into equal, extreme poverty for everyone. Communism is also restrictive in that it is purely International Socialism that requires the removal of all national or ethnic identities of people under its rule. But history has proven Communism to have completely failed in this regard, as it has continually failed to remove the national identity of the people under its control.

Communism (invented by Karl Marx) is too extreme in its implementation of Socialism, and this is why North Korea and Cuba are the only two purely Communist countries still in existence today, and even those two countries are abandoning Communism to become more nationalist in their ideologies. Communism only works with some form of dictatorship or government with absolute power. This is because Communism requires the government to own and control all business, industry, agricultural, and educational facilities. People are not allowed private ownership and the government has complete control over all property and function of the economy and society. No one has any choice about what job they will do in the society or how they will live. The government has complete authority to determine where each individual lives and the job they work in and there is very little free will or freedom left to the individual.

National Socialism fixes this problem in Communism by giving people the illusion of freedom, with limited choices and property ownership. In National Socialism people are still allowed to own and run their own businesses or choose their place of employment in what appears to be a free economy. Only a few industries are run by the government where needed. The citizens are allowed to own their own land and property and live their lives according to their own way. But the government micro-manages the economy by passing laws that govern how businesses and industries are allowed to operate. Laws are used to limit prices or control how much of a product can be made. The government has complete control over regulating the economy. Instead of the government owning all of the hospitals as in Communism, it makes tax laws that require everyone to pay a certain amount regularly into a health care system in order to provide free health care for anyone who needs it. It takes people's resources through taxes into a pool, and then in theory redistributes all those resources equally to everyone through social services like healthcare or welfare. In true and pure Communism the government just seizes everyone's assets, but in National Socialism the government takes a portion of people's assets through taxes, taking more from the rich and wealthy, in order to in theory redistribute that wealth to the masses in social programs. In reality the money ends up in the hands of the people running the government as they make themselves wealthier with it.

National Socialism tries to achieve the same goals as Communism, but does so in a more gradual way, done more by stealth from the shadows. It is a less extreme implementation of Socialism that is more palatable for society, but it still results in the same goal of the government running in the same way that a gangster or mob or organized crime ring would run a government. It might take longer for the government to become that way in National Socialism, but it does still end up that way in the end when it is fully implemented.

But what makes National Socialism more attractive to power hungry governments than Communism is that it is compatible with almost any form of government from a Dictatorship to a Democracy. It in fact works best in Democracies where the will of the people are the driving force behind the takeover and transformation of a government, in the same way as Hitler took over Germany in a few short years. And National Socialism focuses its control on the education system and the programming of the minds of the younger generations in government run schools. Unlike Communism, National Socialism convinces people that they are part of something bigger; it romanticizes the government and instills them with the idea that their highest calling is to sacrifice everything for the government, to die for the government, for the good of whatever people group or society they are a member. Anything can be generically inserted as the thing to make people have complete devotion in the government and their leaders. Communism also tries to do this, but it is in a sloppy way that tries to force everyone into devotion by punishment, instead of deceptively making people believe in their devotion to the government themselves through delusion.

These are some of the basic differences between National Socialism and Communism, but what is the philosophy of National Socialism? On the outside it looks orderly and controlled, but at its core it turns into a very evil ideology that should be rejected. Yet somehow nations all over the world still continue to use it in bits and pieces. The greatest danger of National Socialism is its ability to shapeshift and transform and become any deception that it needs to be to fool people, changing into any deception a particular individual is willing to accept. Here is a list in no particular order of ideologies and philosophies of National Socialism as formed by the Nazis and Fascists in Germany and Italy. [It should be noted that most of the philosophies of National Socialism were around for at least a hundred years or more before the Nazis. They were the ones who brought them all together and re-packaged them into a movement.]

1. National Socialism is not really a political ideology; at its core it is a philosophical movement that before World War II had spread into countries all over the world. Even in America there were many members of the Nazi party, because they believed in the philosophy of National Socialism, not because they believed in a political party.

The Revelation 13 Beast is not going to be about politics either; it will be a belief system that is a movement that will cause people to want to believe in it and believe in its teachings and ideologies. It is a movement around the world where people from every nation, language, and tribe believe in the belief system of the Beast. But at the same time the Beast and the Little Horn ruler over the Beast are not able to rule over or have control over every nation on earth as shown in Revelation 16, where the Beast has to go and convince the rulers of the nations not under its control to ally with it against Jerusalem and Israel.

2. National Socialism is all about looking cool and hip with symbols and uniforms, outwardly looking sleek and stylish. It is all about making people want to join and be a member of a movement or a close family, getting in on all of the secrets and the power promised from being a wheel in the collective machine. It uses whatever is popular to people at the time and makes people want to join and be part of the cool peer group. It is no different than the same idea of a club, promising special status in society for members, making people feel wanted or powerful or full of purpose in life. It involves a lot of pageantry and orchestration to present the philosophy of National Socialism and the ruling government as perfect and all powerful.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also use symbols for membership as part of the movement, inviting people to join them like a club so that they can be part of the 'in' crowd. It is the promise of getting to be part of something allegedly greater than one's own self.

3. Instead of the government being in complete control of the economy and trade, the government micro-manages the economy. People are able to run their own businesses and industries, but the government controls the economy and businesses through regulations. It is not purely Capitalism or Socialism, but is a mix of Capitalist Socialism, called Controlled Capitalism. Today China is Communist in name only, and is currently using National Socialism as its form of government, running the economy in the same Controlled Capitalism way as the Nazis and Fascists. National Socialism also does not believe in pitting the classes as enemies against each other, but instead redistributes wealth through taxation. But it also has the very opposite ideology of Communism that it is OK according to the beliefs of Darwinian evolution for those who truly work harder and smarter than everyone else to get wealthier than others, because it is part of natural selection and the survival of the fittest.

The Revelation 13 Beast also allows the economy to run with an illusion of some freedom, but ultimately it is in complete control of the economy, including who is able to buy and sell.

4. A part of National Socialism is to create identification marks for the purpose of separating groups in society. There are identification marks of and symbols for those deemed the 'good' members of society, and other identification marks for those who are considered to be the 'bad' people who need to be removed from society. Those who stand up against National Socialism or refuse to follow any rules of the government are considered 'bad' and have to be marked for shunning or imprisonment or re-education or extermination. Both symbol and number styles of marks are used, but the Nazis primarily used marks to prevent people from buying and selling, rather than requiring a mark for buying and selling.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also use identification marks like the Nazis did, but it will be those who love or are in submission to the government who will use identification marks for buying and selling in the economy. The focus in the Final Beast is on the 'good' members of society using marks to show that they are compliant and good citizens of the Beast Empire, because they are following the rules in order to be able to be part of the economy. It is unknown if the non-compliant who refuse to bow down and worship the beast will also be given identification marks showing their rebellion against the evil of the beast.

5. An important part for the power of National Socialism is its creation of villains and crises that are enemies of the people. This helps unite all of the people together behind the government in its crusade to wipe out the villains or solve the crisis. It does not matter who the villains are or what the crisis is, so long as it is something that sounds really big and horrible, something that is too big for the people to handle on their own without a government and strong leader to save them. Whenever there is a real crisis available it is used, such as the collapse of the German economy in the 1920's used by the Nazis to get into power. But when there is no villain for the people to unite together in hating, a villain has to be invented, which in the case of the Nazis was invented and false conspiracy theories about the Jewish people.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also have its own creation of villains, which will be any believer in Yeshua who does not worship the beast. And of course the Jewish people will again be falsely vilified, especially Israel, by the Final Beast as it tries to destroy Israel at the end of the tribulation.

6. One of the vital components of National Socialism is to take control of the media and air waves, taking control of the message the public hears to the point that the only thing available for people to watch or listen to in the news is the propaganda of the National Socialists and their worldview. The word propaganda simply refers to the hiding of truth in order to distort reality to look differently from the way it really is, or to look like how those in power want reality to be in their imaginary dream world. The Nazis were very good at propaganda, because of the philosophy they used of lying. They believed the bigger the lie they told, the easier it was for people to believe, and they were right. Everyone believed their lie that the Jews were safe in ghettos and work places that were separate from the rest of society. And everyone thought it was just a conspiracy theory that they were being exterminated. Even the majority of the Jews themselves who had not been sent to the concentration camps yet refused to believe the reports that the death camps existed and that Jews were being murdered by the millions.

National Socialism requires the complete control of the media, which includes control over every form of media from books to television. This includes things like denying access for people to certain books, such as the recent attempt by the California government to prevent people from being able to sell Bibles or Qurans (since they both speak against Homosexuality). But the control is done through censorship more than seizing privately owned media companies. Some companies become owned by the government and others are censored through government regulation. The goal of propaganda in National Socialism is to lie to everyone enough on a daily basis with big enough lies that everyone begins to believe the same way as the government. The control of the media is simply for the purpose of making everyone in society into clones of each other with the same beliefs as those in power.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also use media control and propaganda, as shown by the Little Horn in Daniel 7 that has a big mouth, speaking great and mighty words, including blasphemous words against Yahuweh/Yehovah and his set-apart ones.

7. Another vital component of National Socialism is to control the education system of the youth with government owned schools. It requires the outlawing of homeschooling and privately owned schools not operated by the government. The area of education is the one area that the government is required to take over complete control in order to educate the younger generations to believe according to the way those in power believe, to believe in the philosophies of whatever brand of National Socialism that particular government believes in. But it is not enough to only re-educate the children in school to believe in the government as the ultimate provider and god of the people; even youth activities outside of school are controlled by the government, with things like the Hitler Youth Program. The Boy Scouts were even abolished and integrated into the Hitler Youth by the Nazis.

There is nothing specifically mentioned about youth in relation to the Revelation 13 Beast, but it will probably be an important part of it since the dragon Satan always goes after the children.

8. A third vital component of National Socialism is the complete control of the military and the complete control of the weapons in the hands of the people through gun control. One of the first things the Nazis did when they took over Germany was to enact gun control so that none of the people could defend themselves against any injustices done by the government, or to be able to stop any of the evil the government is doing. By controlling the military and the weapons it ensures that the government is able to do anything it wants and to be a true god over the people, taking away the ability of the people to stop the government if it becomes corrupt and murderous as the Nazis in the Holocaust.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also have an absolute power and authority, controlling the military and the weapons within its borders to the point that no one will be able to stop it from killing those who stand up against it and refuse to deny Yeshua. For a time, times, and half a time it will overcome everyone and everything that tries to stand against it, ruling over peoples and nations from all across the earth, and wearing out the set-apart ones, making them completely exhausted.

9. National Socialism does not try to control what jobs everyone has or where they work, but instead tries to inspire people to work hard and be productive members of society by making it seem like an honorable crusade to be a good worker. But of course this is only for those who are considered to be 'good' members of society, those who are good specimens without physical defects or mental weaknesses. The good jobs are all saved for those considered to be 'good' and compliant members of society, or those who are 'genetically pure.' Non-productive members are exiled from the society, even to the point of extermination and murder. But for those who are the 'desirables' wanted by the government to stay in and function in society, there are social programs, welfare programs, and work programs to give them every benefit in life possible.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also have a distinction and separation in its society between those who are wanted by the government and are given benefits when they are in compliance and devotion of the government, and those who refuse to give up their belief in Yeshua and are economically driven out of the society to the point that many will even be executed and murdered by the Beast.

10. National Socialism uses at least some of the American created philosophy of Eugenics in its ideology. Eugenics is basically the belief that mankind needs to genetically control the population through breeding of people with 'good' or 'desirable' genes and limiting the breeding of, or even exterminating, people with 'bad' or 'undesirable' genes. And at the same time it also believes in population control by reducing the number of people on earth to small, sustainable numbers. (In America the Eugenics plan was to reduce the population of America gradually over a span of decades until the population would become reduced to about 20% of what it was in the early 1900's).

In National Socialism (as with Eugenics) the genetic control of a society was mostly based upon race and ethnic background, trying to create a fantasy 'superior' race (that only existed as a delusion in people's minds), encouraging the increase of the population of that 'superior' race while working at reducing the populations of all other races and ethnicities. This is how National Socialism performed population control, and in order to achieve this goal, abortion had to be legalized for all races except those considered to be part of the fantasy 'superior' race.

It also meant the legalization of euthanasia, to supposedly 'mercifully' end the lives of those born with defects or mental illnesses, those unable to produce for the society who were 'stealing' the resources of the government from providing for the healthy citizens. And at the same time, abortion and euthanasia were achieving the goals of population reduction. Thus legalized abortion and euthanasia are both important parts of National Socialism, because they help people become desensitized to killing and murder on a mass scale. When people are able to accept the killing of babies, it makes it easier for people to accept the killing of people at any age in death camps.

Abortion and euthanasia are only used by National Socialism as the door to lead to the killing of whole populations on a mass scale. In the case of the Nazis they used 'work camps' that provided slave labor while at the same time provided a means for mass murder. Even as the Nazis were working on desensitizing the population to mass murder with lots of propaganda, they still did all of their extermination and vile experimentation and torture in secret, keeping it hidden to the point that even most in Europe did not know the full horror of what was happening, and most chose not to believe it when they were confronted with it.

There is not much revealed in Scripture about the extent the Revelation 13 Beast will try to commit mass murder beyond the fact that it will try to kill all of the true believers in Yeshua and the Jewish people. But again, if this extermination will be done in secret like the Nazis, no one is even going to know that the tribulation is happening around them, especially those who will worship the Beast and continue normal life under its rule as the Germans and most Europeans did, even in the midst of war. (Yeshua warns in Matthew 24 and Luke 17 that when he comes at the end of the tribulation and trouble and distress, most of the world is going to be continuing to live normal life as in the days of Noah and Lot, and his coming in the clouds with his judgment and wrath for the earth will be a complete surprise to everyone who did not stay faithful (as faithful servants) to Yahuweh/Yehovah through the tribulation, and did not prepare for the wedding. According to Revelation 16 Yeshua comes as a thief in the night, and most of the world, except his true servants, will be completely surprised when he comes. Most of the world will not be expecting him when he comes at the end of the tribulation, because they will have rejected the signs and words and prophecy fulfillments of his coming.

The killing of 1/3 of the population of mankind in Revelation 9 certainly indicates the Final Beast will be trying to reduce the earth's population through mass murder of some kind, either through war or death camps. The number of 1/3 could be the total number the Beast succeeds in directly killing or indirectly causing to be killed during its entire rule of the earth all the way up to the end of the tribulation. And if the people are being killed in secret again as with the Holocaust, those around the world who are not actually experiencing the mass murder themselves might not even know there is a tribulation or Holocaust happening until the end of the tribulation, after it is already done, especially if the majority of that 1/3 are killed in war gradually over the years. The 1/3 will be killed in such a way that it does not affect the other 2/3 from still planting and building and living normal life at the time that Yeshua comes at the end of the tribulation. From Yeshua's interpretation of the shortened days of tribulation in Matthew 24, the only thing we can expect for certain is that the tribulation is not going to happen how anyone expects. Of course there is also the possibility that the 6th Trumpet and the 1/3 killed do not happen until the end of the tribulation.

11. A fundamental part of the operation of National Socialism in a society is to inspire religious devotion in the people towards the philosophical movement and government, and any religion will do to achieve this goal. Hitler only used the religion of Christianity because it was the most handy religion in Germany at the time. But he himself said that he preferred the religion of Islam as a better religion in which to operate the beliefs of National Socialism, and he wished that Germany were a Muslim country or even had the same religion as Japan with its belief in suicide for the state. He said that Christianity is a meak and flabby religion that did not fit as well with National Socialism as other religions around the world. It was Albert Speer who documented these words he heard Hitler speak about Islam in his memoirs Inside the Third Reich.

Unlike Communism which rigidly only allows the religion of Atheism to be used to control the people, National Socialism can use any religion available in any culture to inspire and deceive the people into worshipping its governmental system and ideology through their religion. National Socialism is all about the worship of the state or of the idealism of the government, attempting to inspire people to give their lives as martyrs for the government. It is the worship of the government and the system of the government as a god.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also be all about the worship of its governing system and its government as a god of the people. The false prophet causes people to worship the Beast and the Image of the Beast as a god, worshipping the government and the ideology by which the government rules over the people.

12. Beyond the worship of the government, National Socialism is also the cultic worship of the leader of the government, as Hitler was worshipped like a god by many in Germany. The leader must have charisma and charm, appearing to be a person of the people, and be able to cause people to either love them or fear them. The key is to cause devotion from the people through both worship as the result of fanatic love for the leader or worship as the result of fearing the leader. Either way the end goal is for the leader to be worshipped as a messiah figure or savior of the people, who will rescue them from whatever generic crisis is available to use or enemy available to vilify.

Hitler was very much worshipped as a savior or god of the people, receiving lots of love and devotion from people throughout his rule. Even in the Nazi propaganda film Triumph of the Will it can be seen in the opening of the film Hitler descends from the heavens like a god in his plane down to earth to become the messiah of Germany. National Socialism is a dual worship of both the system of the government and the ruler of the government. Those who do not worship the leader and the state of their own free will are intimidated into worshipping it through fear.

The Revelation 13 Beast will also have a ruler over it, the Little Horn, who in Daniel 7, 8, and 11 will not worship other gods, but will instead raise himself up as a god above all other gods, including trying to usurp Yahuweh/Yehovah, trying to raise himself up above the heavens and the throne of Yahuweh/Yehovah in the heavens, only acknowledging a mighty one of fortifications. He will also make himself into a messiah and god of the people, and all those under his rule will worship him and his system of government, all those who are unable to take a stand and refuse to deny Yeshua even unto death.

13. A big, core part of National Socialism is the religious beliefs of Darwinian Evolution, in which it is believed that all life evolves and comes from non-life, that living organisms magically come to life from non-living rocks. In other words, new life can only be created by murdering and killing life, by causing life to end in death first. In order to create a new utopia, remolding society and humans into a new and 'perfect' world made in the image of whatever the government and the ruler desire, first there has to be a lot of death and a lot of chaos and destruction. National Socialism adopts from the religious beliefs of Darwinian Evolution that life is created from dead matter through a very chaotic evolutionary process of struggle. And through this ideology National Socialism believes that a new utopia world can only be created by bringing the world into chaos, death, and very hard struggle, until only the fittest and most perfect specimens of humanity are left alive to carry on the human race stronger and more powerful than before.

As a result, it is actually a goal of National Socialism to cause the world to fall apart into chaos and destruction, then to create a new world from all of the death of the old one, life coming from death as Evolution teaches. This ideology gives license for mankind to do any form of evil it wishes in order to achieve its goal of destroying the world in chaos and struggle, to birth a new world out of the mass murder, such as the Holocaust. And it creates the environment where any form of evil is permissible for the government and ruler to achieve their goals of creating a new world. This includes allowing horrific, torturous experiments in the pursuit of scientific progress as performed by the Nazi doctors in the death camps. Or the filling of the German soldiers with experimental drugs that would cause them to fight longer and harder in combat, and make it easier for them to kill. Anything is allowed by the government to ensure advancement in technology and science and the purging of the population, anything that will bring more power to the government and bring the society closer to the goal of recreating the world into whatever delusional utopia the elites of the government decide they want. Mass murder and torture and inhumane experiments are all allowed in National Socialism to further the process of chaos and struggle to achieve the death of the world and the recreation of the world into a new life from the death.

The chaos is also a way of grabbing power or holding onto power, because the people will follow any strong man who promises to fix the world and bring it back into peace and order.

The Revelation 13 Beast and the Little Horn ruler will also have the same goal to bring the world into some kind of chaos in order to control the people into following him, as seen in the Seals and Trumpets in Revelation. But it is not clear enough in the prophecies to know for sure exactly how the chaos will be used as a weapon by the Beast, or at what times during the tribulation the Beast will be bringing the world into chaos to try to recreate the world into a new world without any believers in Yeshua or nation of Israel existing in it. The only thing known for certain is that at the very end of the tribulation, after Yeshua has already come in the clouds and the Bowls of Wrath are being poured out on the earth, the whole world will be brought by the Beast into a Global War against Jerusalem and Israel, which will result in the complete destruction of the Beast and of the entire Tower of Babel world system that has been operating in divided forms in every nation (Jeremiah 51:7) on earth since shortly after the flood.

14. This last part of National Socialism is the key that makes the rest of it work. It is the deception of looking good and righteous and noble on the outside to the public, while inwardly allowing any kind of evil and sin to take place. The majority of the most horrible evils done by the Nazis were done in secret and kept hidden from the public and from the world. And the evils and sins that they did both in public and in private they justified as a righteous cause, as a crusade for what is right. Humans have difficulty doing real, disgusting evil, because of the conscience that holds them back. They have to either become so hardened that they become reprogrammed to enjoy evil, or they have to believe a delusion that the evil they are doing is righteous and just.

It was all part of National Socialism to indoctrinate people over the course of years and years that it was a just and righteous campaign to murder Jews and other people the government determined were not human. It was a process of years that the Nazis prepared people to accept the evil that they were planning on doing as being justified as a good cause. But even then they still, up to the very end of the war, tried to erase all evidence of the evil they were doing as the Allied Armies came into Germany and discovered the camps. It was that important to the Nazis to appear to be blameless and clean and righteous on the outside, even protesting things they deemed as wicked and outwardly removing those things from their party and from German society, whatever the society deemed to be wrong at the time. National Socialism is all about condemning sin outwardly to the public, but loving sin and allowing all forms of sin in secret, especially allowing the people to be distracted with sin in secret as much as they wish.

This is one of the most important concepts to understand, how the Revelation 13 Beast will outwardly come as a messenger of light, with its rulers and members appearing to be the most righteous and upstanding citizens in society, according to whatever standard the society accepts as good at the time. All of the most horrible acts of evil that the Beast will be committing will be in secret, kept hidden from the people as they worship the Beast. And the people of the earth whose hearts are filled with hate will be exposed by the end of the Beast's rule as they worship the Beast and support the Little Horn in his attempt to end the existence of Israel at the end of the tribulation. And all the way up to the very end the Beast will try to justify their cause of evil, trying to make themselves and their cause of evil and sin appear righteous and just. The Beast will try to look very pure and clean on the outside, but according to Revelation 12-13, the seven headed and ten horned beast is really only a Beast on the skin surface on the outside. On the inside of the Beast is the seven headed and ten horned dragon Satan who is giving the Beast all of its power. The core of the Beast as with the core of National Socialism is completely evil with nothing good in it. Those who are only looking at the outside of the Beast and do not have the blood of the Passover Lamb Yeshua covering the doorposts of their hearts, with the Spirit of Yeshua dwelling in them, will not be able to see the evil underneath until it is too late.

This is a synopsis of what the idea and philosophy of National Socialism is, and how it is a picture of what is yet to come with the Final Beast in Revelation 13. But there are also some other historical things of importance concerning the movement of National Socialism and how its core ideologies and philosophies are beginning to deceptively be adopted by nations all over the world today.

Germany and Italy both became National Socialist states in the 1920's to 30's, which resulted in their becoming allies during World War II. Berlin and Rome became two centers or capitals of power in what was beginning to form as an empire. Because of a lack of records available that were hidden or destroyed by the Vatican after the war, there is no way to know just how much the Vatican was secretly involved and allied with the Nazis during the war. There are only a few records of Catholic Priests running a lot of the Nazi death camps in Croatia, and some other hints of financial involvement by the Vatican in Holocaust affairs. There are also the Nazis who used Vatican passports to escape Europe after the war and who hid in Catholic universities and institutions. But a two capital system like in the days of the Holy Roman Empire was beginning to come back to life and form again to some degree before the Nazi Empire fell apart. [It is important to note that this has nothing to do with the people in the Catholic Church, many of whom helped Jews escape the Nazis and did other good things during the Holocaust. This is only about the Vatican governing institution's involvement with the Nazis.]

More importantly, the Nazis became great allies of the remnants of the Islamic Empire, and as the Nazis were reviving the Roman Empire both politically and religiously, into the Holy Roman Empire, they were also at the same time helping the Islamic Empire come back to life again as an ally of the Roman Empire for the first time in history. The Nazis and National Socialism became the glue that began to bring together the political parts of the Roman and Islamic Empires, though the religious parts did not come together yet at that time in any kind of unity.

Saul Montes-Bradley in his book Gander has put together the most comprehensive history of the Nazis and the National Socialist movement in the Middle East and Muslim countries after World War II. There is no need to duplicate his research here, but the first half of the book is about the terrorist attack of Arrow Flight 1285 and the second half is a history of the German Nazis who escaped Europe after World War II and moved to Muslim countries, bringing National Socialism with them, with eventually several thousand of them moving to Egypt. It includes Otto Skorzeny of the Nazi commandoes, who in his memoirs shows how he and the Nazis invented the ideology of terrorism as it is known and used by Islamic extremists today. Many Nazis personally taught many of the most prominent Muslim terrorists through the Muslim Brotherhood in the 1960's, such as men like Aymann al-Zawahiri of al-Qaida. The Nazis in their schools of Islamic National Socialism also trained Yasser Arafat who founded the Palestine Liberation Organization and started all of the terrorism committed by Palestinians against Israel for the last few decades.

There were many Nazis like Johannes von Leers who converted to Islam in Egypt and found a perfect marriage of National Socialism with Islam. The Egyptian government and many in Islam were already favorable towards Hitler and Nazism during World War II, and after the war they took in many Nazis, which resulted in the creation of an Islamic form of National Socialism. The Nazis in Egypt set up a new center for Nazism and translated Hitler's book Mein Kampf into Arabic. Since the 1960's and 70's to even the present time Mein Kampf has been one of the top bestselling books in the Middle East among Muslim nations. The Muslim Brotherhood is known as the core organization from which all of modern Islamic terrorist organizations came from, including al-Qaida, the Islamic State (ISIS) offshoot, and Hamas in the Gaza Strip. And it was not until the Nazis joined together with the Muslim Brotherhood in the 1950's and 60's that the Islamic terrorism known today was first created.

Both Syria and Egypt used German Nazis (including many SS men) in their militaries and spy agencies to fight against Israel in the 1948 War for Independence and the 1967 Six Day War. After the Holocaust, the Nazis moved from Europe next door to Israel, to continue their war against Yahuweh/Yehovah's covenant people, doing much of the training of the Egyptian and Syrian armies. But more importantly, with the invention of the atom bomb, the Nazis realized they had to create a new kind of soldier on the new battlefield of modern warfare. And as Otto Skorzeny describes in his memoirs, this led to their creation of the ideology of the terrorist who can live as a civilian peacefully in society, walking among the people and infiltrating under the noses of the nations' militaries, then striking violently at any moment at any civilian or military target. And through this ideology the Nazis in Egypt personally trained the first Islamic extremist National Socialist terrorists, and brought about what has become since September 11, 2001 the Global World War III on Terrorism. And the Nazis also brought about the continuous terroristic wars that Israel has faced in the last few decades.

The defeat of Germany after World War II did not see an end to National Socialism, it only went underground and spread across the world, deeply embedding into many Muslim countries, and became stronger than ever. Not only were the Nazis and many of the Muslims strong allies during World War II, even today the Muslim terrorist groups and many Muslim governments have continued to use National Socialism as their model for governing with the Quran, and many in the Middle East still view Hitler as a hero and martyr.

As the Communist countries have fallen around the world (because Communism is too rigid and unbendable in its philosophies to be accepted on a wide scale or to be able to adapt as its systems inevitably fail) they have converted into National Socialist governments such as in Russia and China. Socialist countries and former Communist countries all around the world are adopting more and more of the National Socialist created economic model of Socialist Capitalism or Controlled Capitalism, mixing together the two with a little bit of freedom in a micro-managed and heavily regulated economy.

These same countries also are beginning to adapt to using any form of religion they can as a means of creating devotion for the government, from Muslim countries in the Middle East to former Communist countries like China and Russia and at one time Venezuela until Maduro came in and tried to change Venezuela back into a Communist country, causing everything to fall apart. Even the Globalist Elites who at one time were pushing for International Socialism (Communism) have begun to change and adapt their thinking towards the more deceptive ideologies of National Socialism, using China as their model for creating a global empire run on the principles of Controlled Capitalist Socialism as a form of government. And new forms of Christianity are being invented such as the Social Gospel and the Prosperity Gospel and the Hyper Grace Gospel in preparation to try to deceive Christians into worshipping the government as god, which of course will result in the worship of the Beast.

As the Globalists begin to implement the use of religions as a way to instill devotion and worship of the government in perfect harmony and unity as written in the Human Fraternity Document, that is when the Beast will become a dangerous deception as it rises to power. And those trying to grab power around the world (Turkey/Russia/Globalists as a few examples) are following the method of National Socialism in taking control of the media, military, and education systems of the countries, while still leaving other aspects of the society free so that people still have an illusion of freedom. (Now the control of media and discussion in a country is no longer called censorship, but instead control of hate speech.)

And it would be too large a discussion here to go into all of the evidence of the National Socialists in positions of leadership and influence in America who supported Hitler and even after the war continued from the shadows to spread the ideologies of National Socialism into American society and government (including in the CIA, which hired many German Nazis after World War II). And even now Germany still has retained many of the Nazi National Socialist laws and beliefs in the government, such as outlawing homeschooling so that all children are forced to go to government run schools to learn from the government the way to believe and view the world.

Already there is an acceptance of different aspects of National Socialism in most of the nations and governments around the world, which will make it easier for many nations to accept the Beast when it comes. This is because National Socialism is only a new name for a very ancient system of deception that has happened over and over again through thousands of years of history in different forms since the Tower of Babel. Each reset of the Beast systems through history have resulted in stronger delusion associated with each, and better streamlining in its presentation and accomplishing of evil as it repeats itself through history. But when it repeats again, the new National Socialism will not be exactly the same as the Nazis; it will adapt to the society as it is now. It will only be the basic structures in National Socialism that will rise again, but the outside will have a new coat of paint with new trimmings and will look completely different from the Nazis before it. It will adapt to whatever deceptions the people want at the time when it comes to power. Whatever people desire more than they desire truth are the delusions that people will accept, even when they know it is wrong or not true.

There will be a separation of power in the Final Beast in Revelation 13, a separation between the political center of power, which is the Beast Out of the Sea, and the religious center of power, which is the Beast Out of the Earth. But there is also a further division of power between these two capitals or power centers. The political half of the Beast will have 10 divisions of power or 10 centers of power in some form, with 1 main center of power with the Little Horn, and the religious half of the beast will have 2 divisions of power or 2 centers of power in some form. It is a system of 2 divided further into more divisions, and recognizing all of these various, complex divisions is necessary in recognizing the Final Beast.

The outward appearance of the Beasts in Daniel and Revelation through history have changed from one coat to another, but the inner deception of the dragon serpent Satan has remained the same since the garden, because the dragon Satan has no ability to create or think of anything new. Only Yahuweh/Yehovah is able to create anything new under the sun. And a love of the truth, which is a love of the person of Yahuweh/Yehovah, more than any desire or want or need, is the only safeguard from falling into delusion when it comes.

The Beast Deception Trying to Enter Israel?

Building tall towers is something that the world does; it is the way the nations worship their other gods historically by building temples in tower shapes like the Babylonian ziggurats. The Tower of Babel was likely built in the shape of a ziggurat, because historically many ziggurats were built all over the area around Babylon and the land where the Tower of Babel was built. The Azrieli Group is building the tallest tower in Israel designed by Kohn Pederson Fox in New York. The interesting thing about this tower is that it has been allegedly designed to be in the shape of an unrolling scroll like an ancient scroll of the Hebrew Scriptures. This is what is said by the architects that it represents, but it still is unmistakably being built in the shape of a ziggurat.

In Deuteronomy 12 Yahuweh/Yehovah’s people are not to learn the ways that the nations worship their gods and then do the same, (including all of his people who follow him whether they be Jew or Gentile). This tower being built in Israel looks very much like it is learning the ways of the nations to do the same as the nations. But the troubling part is that it has been talked about in Israel as being a model or guide in preparation for building a new Temple on the set-apart place on the Temple Mount. It is a preparation for building a very grand and wealthy Temple for Yahuweh/Yehovah like Solomon’s Temple, to be built as the greatest structure on earth that has ever been seen.

It is not a good thing when a ziggurat shaped tower historically used for worshipping false gods is considered to be a preparation for building Yahuweh/Yehovah’s Temple. And Yahuweh/Yehovah has never commanded for great and wealthy Temples to be built for him. He has only ever commanded the building of the Tabernacle Tent in the wilderness. Great and mighty and beautiful Temples like those of Solomon and Herod he destroyed. And Solomon with his 666 talents of gold is a shadow picture of the deception of the Beast that also calculates to 666 (Revelation 13; 1 Kings 4 and 10). It is another reminder to look to who Yahuweh/Yehovah is as a person and watch for his set-apart place which he desires to be built in the form of a humble tent, and not to look to expensive and fancy Temples like Solomon’s Temple, because Solomon fell away into the worship of false gods and abandoned Yahuweh/Yehovah altogether at the end of his life, even though he built a very expensive and beautiful house for him. Solomon is a shadow picture and warning of the possibility for even the chosen of Yahuweh/Yehovah to fall away into deception in the last days (Matthew 24), and his life is a good lesson for Yahuweh/Yehovah’s set-apart people to be wary in the days before Yeshua returns concerning Temples and set-apart places.

Latter Rain Update

(Isaiah 10, 12, 30, 32, 42, 55; Ezekiel 36-37, 47; Hosea 6; Joel 2-3; Zechariah 10, 13-14; Psalms 72; Matthew 3; Luke 3; John 7)

Since about the 1300's (in the days of John Wycliffe) there have been a series of former rain revivals and awakenings that have been growing and spreading globally, coming in waves of people turning to Yahuweh/Yehovah in repentance as he pours out his Spirit. There have been waves of Yahuweh/Yehovah causing movements throughout the generations to leave the manmade religious systems and commands of men to follow him in greater purity and truth, through a slow process stripping off the layers of the impurities of the world in his people across the nations to go out into the wilderness with him, to worship him in spirit and in truth and enter into a greater measure of his covenant. With each wave of former rain revival there has been greater revelation and freedom into the fullness of truth, and even though with each generation there are those who step backwards into the world, to follow after the world again, there is still a progression forward that happens at the same time among his remnant, growing spiritually in their knowledge of Yahuweh/Yehovah in greater measure in each generation through an excruciatingly slow process.

The former rain began to grow in a much greater intensity of repentance and revelation of truth during the 1900's in a restoration to a scale seen in the 1st century in the days of the first disciples of Yeshua. And anticipation began to grow of the promise of the prophesied latter rain that would come according to Joel 2. But there has also been much confusion about what the latter rain is. Joel 2 is one of the primary prophecies about the latter rain, in which Yahuweh/Yehovah says that he will pour out his Spirit on all flesh, upon the old and the young, upon children and upon those in the lowliest positions in society. And it is very accurate to understand the latter rain as being like the former rain, as Yahuweh/Yehovah pouring out his Spirit in greater measure than in the former rain upon greater numbers of people than even seen in the book of Acts.

And yes, there are miracles and signs that Yahuweh/Yehovah will do among his people in greater measure in the latter rain as well. But there is something even more incredible and important about the latter rain that has been missed or misunderstood, mainly because Yahuweh/Yehovah had not yet revealed the full significance of the latter rain before. Now he is beginning to bring understanding to people about the latter rain all across the world, and all this time the deepest understanding of the latter rain has been in plain sight in Hosea 6:1-3 all this time.

וְנִדְעָה נִרְדָּפָה לְדַעַת אֶת יְהוָה כְּשֶׁחֵר נָכוֹן מוֹצְאוֹ וְיָבוֹא כְּגִשְׁם לָנוּ כְּמִלְקוֹשׁ יוֹרֵה אֶרֶץ

“And let us know, let us run after to know Yahuweh/Yehovah. His going forth is established as the morning; and He does come as rain to us, as the latter rain sprinkling earth.” Hosea 6:3 (Literal Study Translation by Miner Perkins 2018)

The key in this verse about the latter rain is that it begins with the concept of desperately wanting to know Yahuweh/Yehovah, running after him in pursuit of the knowledge of who this person Yahuweh/Yehovah really is. The Father has a name; his name is spelled in Hebrew with the four consonant vowel letters Yod, Hey, Vav, Hey יְהוָה. And even if we do not have any certainty in the surviving records about what the original vowels were in his name (because ancient Hebrew has no written vowel letters in it) we can still know in Scripture where his name is written. Deuteronomy 32 and Isaiah 63:15-64:12 are two examples in Scripture where Yahuweh/Yehovah יְהוָה is revealed as the Father and that the Father's name is Yahuweh/Yehovah יְהוָה.

And this prophecy about the latter rain says that Yahuweh/Yehovah (the Father) comes as rain to us, as the latter rain sprinkling earth. In Joel 2 it says that Yahuweh/Yehovah's Spirit is poured out on all flesh in the latter rain, but here in Hosea 6 it does not say it is his Spirit he is pouring out, it says that Yahuweh/Yehovah himself comes down in the rain of the latter rain (beginning as a light sprinkling as in the former rain as discussed in part 1 of the Prophecy Countdown). The latter rain is not only Yahuweh/Yehovah coming in Spirit form, but his own person and his own self coming down onto the earth to make his dwelling place with his people. It is the person of Yahuweh/Yehovah himself, his whole person, coming down onto the earth to live together with his people in the same way that he came down and dwelt on the earth with his people on Mount Sinai.

Exodus gives all of the details about how the person of Yahuweh/Yehovah himself came down and walked on the earth with Moses and the children of Israel, he himself in his entire person dwelling on top of the ark of the covenant within the tabernacle, in the midst of his people as they all dwelt in tents together. And Yahuweh/Yehovah again comes down to live and dwell with us again, coming like rain in the latter rain, coming down upon all flesh to live together with mankind in the fullness of his whole person.

But in the same way as when Yahuweh/Yehovah came down and dwelt in his whole person with the children of Israel at Mount Sinai and later upon the ark of the covenant, the people had to get cleaned up in preparation for him, and they could not approach him on the mountain or on the ark of the covenant with the dirtiness of sin in them, or else they would die. It is the same with the latter rain, as Yahuweh/Yehovah pours out himself upon his people, he cannot come and live with them if they still have the impurities of sin and rebellion and transgression in them, or else they will die. The people have to receive the sin covering of the Passover Lamb Yeshua by accepting to live by his new Jeremiah 31 covenant, with the Torah written on their hearts, to cover over and clean away the sins in order that they can dwell together with Yahuweh/Yehovah continually in their daily lives and not die. And this receiving of the Yeshua covenant can only come through repentance, the repentance proclaimed by John the Baptist as he prepared the way the first time that Yeshua came.

This is why repentance is actually one of the biggest and primary parts of the latter rain, turning in repentance from sin to live a life of righteousness according to Yahuweh/Yehovah's Torah instruction of what righteousness is in his commands. Repentance is entering into the process of letting Yahuweh/Yehovah remove the impurities of sin from our lives according to his standards, making mistakes but staying devoted to his process of recreating us new as our flesh dies in the fires of trial and cleansing. His water and fire of his Spirit is the cleansing that comes within his people in preparation for him to come and dwell on the earth in the fullness of his entire person; the person of Yahuweh/Yehovah actually living together with us in our own homes, walking with us every moment of every day, talking together and doing things together in the same way that he was there in the garden with Adam and Chavvah (Eve).

Yahuweh/Yehovah has promised throughout Scripture that one day he will come to dwell with mankind and set up his reign and righteous government, especially in Isaiah, Ezekiel, Joel, Zechariah, and Revelation. This means that he is actually living together with all of his people in the fullness of his self, in a way that we will be able to see him and talk with him in the same way we see and talk with anyone (Revelation 21-22). But there has to be preparation for his coming to live with us and to take us away to his home in the new heavens and new earth, and this preparation is the latter rain. The latter rain is the repentance of the people of the earth, getting themselves clean before the shofar blast comes as it did on Mount Sinai in Exodus 19 and Revelation 19, in preparation for living together with Yahuweh/Yehovah.

And for those who go through the repentance and preparation to be made clean in the latter rain, they get to experience the whole person of Yahuweh/Yehovah himself coming down to dwell with them on the earth in their own individual lives. The latter rain is the process before Yahuweh/Yehovah's coming in the clouds to come in stages of living together with his people, getting them used to him dwelling with them more and more and more throughout the latter rain and throughout the tribulation until he comes in the clouds at the end of the tribulation in a way in which all eyes will see him.

It is because it is the entire person of Yahuweh/Yehovah in the fullness of his whole righteous self who is coming down as rain upon all flesh in the latter rain that the repentance is important. It is as though the ark of the covenant with Yahuweh/Yehovah himself sitting upon it is coming down all over the earth to live with everyone. Anyone coming near the righteousness of the person of Yahuweh/Yehovah without the covering of the blood of Yeshua will die. Those in rebellion who refuse to repent will experience judgment, judgment being Yahuweh/Yehovah's mercy to save people from their path of sin and destruction that leads to eternal death in the lake of fire (whatever that eternal death looks like). That is how there is both salvation and judgment in the latter rain poured out simultaneously as prophesied through John the Baptist in Matthew 3, those refusing to repent in the latter rain being thrown into the fire. Yahuweh/Yehovah desires perfect justice above all else; it is part of who he is. And in his justice he has perfect mercy for those who want to stop doing evil and perfect judgment for those who love evil and refuse to stop.

Thus the latter rain is very exciting for Yahuweh/Yehovah's people and all those on the earth who turn in repentance to live according to Yahuweh/Yehovah's righteousness, because he himself is coming down in the latter rain in the fullness of his entire person to live with each individual who answers his knock on the door and lets him come into their home, into their lives. And those who let him come in and let him clean them, they will have their spotlessly clean wedding garments of righteousness ready for the wedding at the end of the tribulation. All of the things that have happened in the former rain, such as Yahuweh/Yehovah interacting with miracles and visions and healing and repentance, all of these things will happen in greater measure in the latter rain.

But in Hosea 6 we have forgotten and missed something way more amazing that comes in greater measure in the latter rain, Yahuweh/Yehovah himself, the creator of the heavens and earth, the Elohim (God) of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Samuel, David, Elijah, Elisha, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Enoch, the righteous and perfect sacrificial Lamb Yeshua, the person who is life and existence itself, is coming in the fullness of his whole infinite self to dwell with mankind in the latter rain, just because he wants to companion with us in friendship, with anyone who will run after him with all of their heart and strength and being, with all of their self, to know him.

Up to now there have been many awakenings, movements, revivals which have brought people closer to Yahuweh/Yehovah as his Spirit has been poured out to dwell with his people. But up to now there has never been a revival in which Yahuweh/Yehovah himself has come down in his whole person like rain to set up his permanent dwelling place with mankind, to set up his throne of the ark of the covenant with mankind in the fullness of his righteousness and splendor with his eternal reign. The latter rain is Yahuweh/Yehovah coming down onto the earth to live face to face together with mankind, never to leave again, and this is the biggest difference in the latter rain coming on the earth now, versus the former rain which has been on the earth for 2,000 years (2 days).

And this shows another important concept about what the latter rain really is according to Hosea 6; the latter rain is Yahuweh/Yehovah bringing his people back to life again from the dead. It is all about the resurrection of his people back to life to live with him in eternity with new bodies. But it is also a spiritual resurrecting back to life to the whole truth of Scripture from beginning to end, and to a fullness of knowing the entire person of who Yahuweh/Yehovah is throughout all of Scripture, from beginning to end.

In 2018 the sprinklings of the Hosea 6:1-3 latter rain repentance revival preparation were already beginning to show in Australia. Also in about the summer of 2018 sprinklings of the Hosea 6:3 latter rain of Yahuweh/Yehovah pouring himself out were beginning in the southeastern area of America. In congregations across Georgia, Alabama, and Florida revivals of repentance and righteousness began to grow spontaneously at the grass roots level. Todd Smith in Dawsonville, Georgia was in the middle of a 21 day fast when he had an open eye vision, in which he saw the baptistery completely full of water, with fire on top of the water. And he heard Yahuweh/Yehovah say to him, "Todd, I am going to baptize people in Holy Spirit fire." And when he asked Yahuweh/Yehovah why he was using baptism, he said, "Todd, I am coming with vengeance after my bride. My sheep have been fleeced."

This began months and longer of people experiencing supernatural freedom from sins they repented of and healing miracles in the miqveh מִקְוֶה baptism waters, as Yahuweh/Yehovah poured out the fire of his Spirit on them in the water (the Hebrew word miqveh having the original meaning of a cistern or container of water in the days of Moses). Immersion or baptism in water in the days of John the Baptist and Yeshua came from the concept of the Torah of keeping the body outwardly clean as Yahuweh/Yehovah instructs in order that he can dwell among his people. But John the Baptist came immersing people in water as the outward sign of repentance of sin, the cleaning of the heart inside of sin.

In the original context of the meaning of baptism according to John the Baptist in Matthew and Luke, the immersion in water is something that a person would do as a sign in their life at any time that they would feel they need to show a sign of repentance for sin in their life, not a one time event for salvation only. John the Baptist says specifically that the immersion in water is for repentance, but that the immersion in the fire of the Set-apart Spirit that comes from Yeshua is even far greater in the way it brings a person into repentance and cleanliness from sin. And the experience of the baptism revival that happened in Todd Smith's congregation was a sign of the John the Baptist form of repentance baptism in preparation for Yahuweh/Yehovah to come down like rain and live with his people.

While Tim Sheets was in Ann Arbor, Michigan recently prior to 2019 a messenger woke him up in the middle of the night to deliver a word to him, saying, "The prophetic word you gave two years prior has now connected to its moment. It is now connecting to its assignment, for a new era." And the word which Yahuweh/Yehovah had given him was, "The Spirit of the Lord says to the church: I am aligning heaven to earth to open the birth canal now of my kingdom on earth. It is open, says the Lord. The breach is half turned. Welcome to calving season. Welcome to the season of awesome birthings. Welcome to the season of greater and greater glory. A new degree of glory is now rising over my remnant. And from hovering glory my Spirit is moving to birth plans, purposes, transitions, ministry that has been incubating in my presence. Welcome to hatching season. Welcome to the era of ever increasing glory, for my glory is revealed – one degree of glory to another and still another, says the Lord. Pulsating glory will now throb from the throne of the king of glory. Out rays of my glory as now more and more of who I really am will be seen upon the earth. Yes savior, yes healer, yes deliverer, but yes, king of kings and lord of lords. Wave after wave after wave of increasing glory has now begun, says the Lord. Surge after surge of my power and presence will now be seen all over the earth. Welcome to the surge of the kingdom of God. Omnipotent, strident forces have now been released. Hell cannot prevail. The forever loser (Lucifer) himself will bow this era. Welcome to the victory surge of the king of glory. Welcome to converged ages and blended, multifaceted anointing. My presence will be seen pulsating upon uncompromised remnants at levels never seen before, and from my hovering glory, my womb is full. And now from my womb, says the Lord, will be birthed the promises that I have made to my people. It is your due season.”

The importance of this word is that this revival that is happening now across the world is all about Yahuweh/Yehovah coming to set up his kingdom and rule on the earth, coming to dwell with his people on the earth. And it is about knowing who Yahuweh/Yehovah really is as a person, knowing him firsthand instead of only knowing about him. These are what the latter rain is all about according to Hosea 6:3. It also shows how the revival happening now is the latter rain, because there is going to be a birthing that will take place into the fullness of Yahuweh/Yehovah’s covenant, into the fullness of everything. And the 144,000 are the firstfruits or firstborn of that fullness of the covenant and of his nation, as Yahuweh/Yehovah’s people prepare for the wedding. Hosea 11:1 reveals that there are two layers to the prophecy of the child born to the woman in Revelation 12.

Hosea 11:1 begins with the nation Israel as the child and then the Messiah Yeshua as the Son. Both are birthed and both are called out of Egypt in the Hosea 11:1 prophecy. In the same way, the male child born in Revelation 12 at the beginning of the prophecy represents Yeshua the Messiah, but it too has another layer of another child born. The 144,000 are the first born, firstfruits of the renewed and restored nation of Israel, the eternal Israel made up of believers in Yeshua. They are the other child that is birthed in Revelation 12 that are still on the earth, the first born of the new nation Israel made up of believers in Yeshua, the first born into the fullness of the covenant that is coming with the wedding.

Ultimately all believers in Yeshua from the creation of the world until his coming will all be born into this eternal and restored nation Israel with its full covenant for living together with Yeshua in eternity; the 144,000 are only the first to enter into and begin to become his set-apart nation. This is another aspect of the latter rain which is different from the former rain; it is part of the process of birthing all of Yahuweh/Yehovah’s people into the entirety of his covenant and nation for eternal life, through the resurrection of the dead in Messiah from the creation of the world, which will take place at his coming. It is Zechariah 10 that connects the latter rain with the 144,000 and the restoration of Yahuweh/Yehovah’s nation Israel. In the latter rain Yahuweh/Yehovah cleans house and deals with those shepherd, religious leaders who are leading his people astray and refusing to deal with sin in their lives. And then he restores all of the tribes of Israel back together as one, unified nation, both the house of Yehudah and the house of Ephrayim, all 12 tribes. The 144,000 are the birthing of this restored Israel from all 12 tribes; 12,000 believers in Yeshua who are biological descendants of all 12 tribes who are the firstfruits of Yahuweh/Yehovah restoring his nation Israel into a nation of gentiles and Israelites joined together in their belief in Yeshua. The birthing of all of the believers in Yeshua from Adam and Eve to the present, throughout all of history, will be birthed into one, unified nation of priests, Yahuweh/Yehovah’s peculiar treasure that will inhabit the new heavens and new earth (Revelation 21-22).

The former rain had nothing to do with the 144,000 sealed in Revelation, but the 144,000 will be sealed as part of Yahuweh/Yehovah’s latter rain. Elizabeth Marie of LatterRain333 had a word from Yahuweh/Yehovah confirming the role of the 144,000 in the Joel 2 latter rain outpouring of his Spirit on all flesh. Yeshua told her in August 2019, “I am coming soon and my recompense is with me. Get ready! Get ready! Get ready! Do not delay to get your houses in order both physically and spiritually. A great move of God is coming. It will be poured out on all flesh. Some will receive and some will reject it. Get ready for it and receive it. I will then anoint my chosen ones in a greater fashion to accomplish my work. This will be the 144,000. They will be marked by my Father. They will be pure before my eyes and their only desire will be for me alone. They will be hidden, but in plain sight. They will know my assignment, and will carry it out. They will restore back the salt to the church. Nothing shall harm them until the time of the end. I am getting them ready. They are not here yet. Not all have been chosen for this, but just a few. Some know it is they that I choose, and some know it not. I do this so they will remain humble and contrite before me. They are part of the end-time battle. They will be victorious, for the LORD God Almighty is with them.”

Most of the 144,000 will probably never even know they have been sealed as one of the 144,000; they will be simply obeying Yahuweh/Yehovah day by day, and entering into a deeper relationship with him in greater purity. Many of them may even be literally children or young people, walking in purity and righteousness with Yahuweh/Yehovah who are among those prophesying with visions in the Joel 2 latter rain and want to keep themselves pure in Yahuweh/Yehovah's commands of righteousness in order to stay continuously close to him every moment of every day. But because the 144,000 will be hidden in plain sight, most of them not even knowing they are the 144,000, it will be almost impossible to even know when this prophecy in Revelation 7 and 14 is being fulfilled. And in the same way when Yeshua came the first time and the majority of his people missed the prophecies happening in front of them; it will happen again during his return. During Yeshua's first coming the prophecies were fulfilled in hiddenness in plain sight where everyone could see them; and when he returns the prophecies are again going to happen in hiddenness in plain sight. Everyone will see the prophecies happen, but only those with circumcised hearts who love Yahuweh/Yehovah and know who he is as a person will truly see and believe the prophecies as they happen in real life. Many will recognize that Yeshua is returning and believe he is returning, but in the same way Yeshua's own disciples missed almost all of the prophecies happening in plain sight in front of them, again his people are going to miss the majority of the prophecies as they are happening hidden in plain sight.

From the beginning Yahuweh/Yehovah has been building a nation (a house of people) to live in. He wants a people, a nation and house of people, to live together with who are set-apart and clean as he is set-apart and clean. And he is building a nation and a house of his people into a set-apart nation of priests to all the nations of the earth. The latter rain is Yahuweh/Yehovah finishing the building of his nation Israel, his nation of people who are set-apart in his Yeshua covenant. It is the finishing of his Temple House of people who he can dwell in and with, living together in companionship and love and friendship. It is the process before he comes of finalizing all of his goals to have a people and nation to live together with in eternity in the house of his new heavens and new earth.

In January 2017 a Bible owned by Jerry Pearce began continuously leaking oil out of its pages in gallons and gallons. Eventually the whole Bible was filled with an oil substance which cannot be fully identified by scientific chemical analysis as any known substance on earth, and then it began leaking oiling continuously, so that it had to be kept in a container. The interesting thing is that when the Bible had first become completely saturated, the map of the nation of Israel in the back was left dry in the shape of a heart as a sign that that year in 2017 the latter rain would begin in Israel, as Yahuweh/Yehovah began to come down to earth like rain, to begin to dwell in the whole person of his self with mankind.

By 2018 real repentance revival was beginning to happen in Jerry Pearce's congregation and around that time Johnny Taylor had a dream that he was lying in bed, watching a big sheet come down and cover him. No matter which way he tried to pull the sheet off and remove it, it only continued to grow bigger. Then he heard this word from Yahuweh/Yehovah, “What I am doing now, no man can stop. When the church religious system tries to orchestrate it, it will get bigger. When they try to put it in a box, it will get bigger. When the government and politicians try to stop it, it will get bigger. When Hollywood tries to mock it, it will get bigger.” This is another sign of the latter rain and Yahuweh/Yehovah's coming to stand on the Mount of Olives and dwell on the earth together with his people, because he is coming no matter what anybody wants. This is his free will to come, and there is no free will of any person or entity that can stop him from coming. He is coming whether people want him to come or not. If they do not want him to come, he is coming anyway to set up his rule of government against their will. And this is what causes the rebellion and war in the last days up to the end of the tribulation, as those who do not want Yahuweh/Yehovah to come will try desperately with every means they can, including the dragon Satan, to keep him from coming, so that they can hold onto their bits of worthless power. The latter rain is Yahuweh/Yehovah coming down upon all flesh, coming to take over rule of the entire earth, and no one can stop it.

At Passover in March/April 2018 Stovall Weems experienced the person of Yeshua himself in full form appearing to him on stage and taking him into a vision of a table set for Passover, with many people around the table. Stovall experienced and saw many things which he could hardly describe, but the basic concepts that Yeshua taught him were that as a gentile, he has a place made for him at the table, to sit down and fellowship in relationship with the living person of Yeshua. This is another sign of the latter rain, because it is the person of Yeshua himself appearing on the earth to people, but in a way that is impossible to go out to the wilderness or into the room to see him. There is no way to go out to a physical location to see him, because he is appearing to people as he did with those who saw him after his resurrection, and as Sha'ul (Paul) saw him on the road.

And Yeshua also taught Stovall the wonderful blessing of the seventh day Sabbath of rest that was given to all the nations of the earth in Genesis, to all the gentiles to keep as well as the Jewish people, and that man has no authority to change the day of Yahuweh/Yehovah's Sabbath and his Leviticus 23 festivals. Stovall and his congregation together began keeping Sabbath on the seventh day in their homes and they all began experiencing revival and supernatural healings, both physical and spiritual, beginning in about the summer of 2018. This is another sign of the latter rain as Yahuweh/Yehovah is resurrecting his people back to life and back into the fullness of truth, as they come to know him better through his ways, which he has never changed, because he never changes (Malachi 3:6).

These sprinklings of the latter rain continued to grow into The Send in Orlando, Florida on February 23, 2019, during the day and after sunset on the 17th and 18th days of the 12th month, in the same pattern of the 17th and 18th days of the 7th month when Yahuweh/Yehovah began pouring himself out in the latter rain in Jerusalem. The people's hearts at the gathering must have been surrendering in repentance and humility before Yahuweh/Yehovah, because he actually sent down literal rain when the people asked for his rain according to Zechariah 10, in the same way that it had rained in Israel.

And it was a sign of Yahuweh/Yehovah pouring himself out as rain, as the latter rain beginning to grow in greater measure internationally across the earth. Ultimately Yahuweh/Yehovah is going to be pouring himself out as the latter rain on everyone, whether they like it or not, but those who want him to come will get to enjoy him living together with them in their lives in greater measure and sooner than those who resist him. And those who hate him and do not want him at all will ultimately try to fight him together with the beast in order to continue doing the evil they love and enjoy, and unfortunately experience the judgment of his perfect justice to bring an end to evil on the earth.

The other importance of The Send was the sign of how Yahuweh/Yehovah is begging to pour himself out upon the children and young adults, among the younger generations, in ways possibly not seen before in any other generation. Elizabeth Marie of LatterRain333 had a dream in about April/May 2019 about hundreds of giant pools of water, and young people and children of all ages being immersed in Yahuweh/Yehovah's Spirit, especially those who are set-apart from the world in their families, such as those who are homeschooled in godly homes. And this is another important part of the Joel 2 prophecy of the latter rain, with children seeing visions and prophesying right before the day of Yahuweh/Yehovah when he comes to dwell with mankind.

At the same time as The Send, Franklin Graham was finishing his evangelism tour across Australia, as another wave of the final harvest and repentance preparation for Yahuweh/Yehovah's coming in that nation. There are also possibly some sprinklings of the rain of Yahuweh/Yehovah possibly happening in New Zealand, though there is almost nothing reported on or available to see what might be happening among believers there.

Six months before Billy Graham's death Tracy Cooke had a dream/vision. In Tracy's own words: "I had a vision that Billy Graham came to me. He said, 'After my death, there will be an outpouring of the glory of God. It will be a revival unprecedented.' And it wound up being a part of the prophecy where Billy Graham ... He represents repentance. When you think about evangelists and Billy Graham's ministry, you think about nothing but repentance. And the prophecy that I got in the dream was that this move of God that God is doing in 2019 that's already begun, it's not coming through big-name preachers. It's not coming through the mainstream evangelicals. That season is ending. Man is not going to get the glory. You're not going to be the center of attention anymore. God is going to get the glory from those that have gone through hell and high water, those that feel like they've been ostracized. They feel like their platforms have been so rejected, but there's blessings in rejection. And in my dream I saw Billy Graham look at me. He said, 'It's going to begin in 2019.' It's not going to be a pseudo-revival. In other words, it's not going to be labeled as grace, that grace gives you a license to cover all sin. It's going to be in this last day, in 2019, God's going to shape up the churches. He's going to shape up America."

What Tracy Cooke did not know while he was sharing this in May 2019 was during that same month Sadhu Selvaraj had been given by Yahuweh/Yehovah a teaching for him to speak in Fukuoka, Japan on the seven forms of repentance in Scripture. This was a sign in Japan that the latter rain in 2019 was beginning to enter into the fullness of the repentance stage of the revival. 2019 is the start of the latter rain really beginning to rain, with Yahuweh/Yehovah coming in greater measure of himself to live with his people, which requires real, true repentance to prepare for his coming and for the wedding. The seven forms of repentance from the individual level to the national and government level in Scripture are the foundation of how the repentance will play out in the latter rain as it grows in the hearts of people in 2019.

And in Japan Sadhu gave the word from Yahuweh/Yehovah that it is time for the latter rain to begin going out to all the nations of the earth, as the international group of people present there were sent out to their nations with sprinklings of the latter rain. And in 2018 to 2019 there is already a harvest of people in nations all over the world desperate for the Word of Yahuweh/Yehovah in Scripture and desperate to know him and to hear the Good News of Yeshua, even in places like the prisons of El Salvador among some of the most violent gangs on earth today.

There will also be much separation continuing in the latter rain as well, as the true wheat is separated from the tares and weeds in the final harvest, and Yahuweh/Yehovah is exposing and dealing with sin in the congregations and among his people, among those who refuse to repent or refuse to let Yahuweh/Yehovah clean them up of their sin. And this has been seen already across the world, but in great measure in Africa and North America in 2019 to prepare his people for true revival and his coming as the latter rain in greater measure. In some cases, as with Ananias and Sapphira in Acts 5, there will be those who Yahuweh/Yehovah will be striking dead if they are in outright rebellion against him and deceiving his sheep without repentance. Already there have been pastors, religious leaders leading people astray who have died in the pulpit. Everything in the former rain will be seen in greater measure, including Yahuweh/Yehovah killing those like Ananias and Sapphira.

Another step and increase in the latter rain came with the Light the Fire Again Conference in Pensacola, Florida on September 4-7, 2019, as Yahuweh/Yehovah began pouring out the fire of his Spirit upon his people in greater measure to prepare them for the work ahead. And like The Send, it was also another large step forward in the cultural part of the Civil War taking place in America, as Yahuweh/Yehovah is beginning to reveal the battle to more and more people, and how to fight the battle spiritually against the Jezebel type and shadow which is reemerging in the world today, as discussed by Dr. Michael Brown at the conference. Yahuweh/Yehovah has also been revealing many of the same things to Jonathan Cahn in the last year as well.

Since the spring of 2019 there has been an exponential increase in people recognizing that we are in the beginnings of the latter rain and are in the final outpouring and harvest before Yeshua's return. And there has been a great increase in those recognizing that the time is short, that there is not much time left until Yeshua's return. No matter how many years we have left, the years are very few now. And it is because of how short the time is to Yahuweh/Yehovah's coming that he has instructed Rodney Howard-Browne to go through 300 cities in the world by the end of 2020, raising up people in each city as laborers for the harvest, filled with the fire of the Set-apart Spirit to accomplish the assignments that Yahuweh/Yehovah has for them. This again fits in perfectly with all of the other dates and timing that Yahuweh/Yehovah has been giving to people, that they only have until the end of 2020 to the beginning of 2021 to prepare for what is coming.

This is only the very small tip of the iceberg of what is happening around the world concerning the latter rain. These are only the few things which I am able to find being reported on in the English speaking world, but there are many sprinklings of the latter rain that are happening in nations all over, which are being reported in other languages which I do not know; or are happening in persecuted countries where reports cannot come out without putting people's lives in danger; or the sprinklings are so small and gentle or so different in its beginnings that most are ignoring it or not recognizing Yahuweh/Yehovah pouring himself out, and are therefore not reporting on what is happening.

It should also be noted that historically the former rain outpourings and revivals always happen in the fields and streets and homes and warehouses outside of the church buildings and church institutions, and the latter rain is no different. As the latter rain happens in people's hearts and homes and out in the highways and byways it will be experienced on such a deep and individual level most will not even recognize at first that Yahuweh/Yehovah is pouring himself out on everybody everywhere without even waiting for anybody to gather together for a meeting or event. The fellowshiping of the believers was always meant to be people gathering in each other's homes and in the marketplace and the streets, and it will be the restoration of this form of fellowship where the latter rain will really take place in its deepest and fullest. And there are already many people going out as evangelists into the streets, into the marketplace and the highways, proclaiming the Good News with signs and miracles as Yahuweh/Yehovah pours himself out in the latter rain on everyone everywhere.

Beginning around the time of Billy Graham's death, in about February-May 2018, Benny Hinn began in increments to come out publicly against the Prosperity Gospel. But it was not until September 2019 that people began to take notice of his stand, and it has begun another important discussion that Yahuweh/Yehovah is using as part of showing people a clear dividing line between the world and his Word in Scripture, letting people choose which side they want to be on in the separation of the wheat and the tares (the sheep and the goats) in the last days. It is another step in the process of Yahuweh/Yehovah calling his people out of the love of the world and the things of the world in Babylon, to follow the Scriptures in their fullness without the commands of men.

But even deeper and more important than this, on the night of September 15, 2019 while Benny Hinn was being interviewed by his son-in-law Michael Koulianos at Michael's congregation in Orlando, Florida, Yahuweh/Yehovah began to pour out a much deeper part of the latter rain at the end of the interview. It was the Hosea 6 part of the latter rain, to know Yahuweh/Yehovah as he comes down in the fullness of his entire person to live together with us, slowly increasing more and more all the way up to when he comes at the end of the tribulation and we get to see him in the fullness as he truly is and truly exists, with our new bodies that no longer prevent us from seeing him continually for all eternity. Benny Hinn began sharing about his own experience in the last two years to really study Scripture for himself, to come to know Yahuweh/Yehovah for himself through Scripture. And it spontaneously turned into a very important moment of a call by Yahuweh/Yehovah to his people to come to know him, and to deny self and this world and to pick up our own crosses to truly follow him.

This is the really deep part of the latter rain beginning now for all those who are ready to deny themselves and deny the world and pick up their cross to follow Yeshua, to know him in his entire self. In the latter rain everyone now has the opportunity to know Yahuweh/Yehovah as the real person who he is, as he now begins to walk side by side with each individual in the fullness of his entire person who he is. He is now coming to us like rain, pouring his entire self out upon everyone on the earth, and he is here to stay with us for all eternity now. There is no going back to the way things were in the past; Yahuweh/Yehovah himself has now come like rain to the earth to live and set up his dwelling place with each individual person who wants to live with him for eternity. And this is the way it will be now all the way up to when he comes, as he slowly becomes more visible and more tangible to the point where all eyes will see him at his coming in the clouds.

Knowing Yahuweh/Yehovah has always been important since the creation of the world, but now is the start of the process of really getting to know him as the person who we will be living together with constantly every moment for all eternity. He is always everywhere, and so no matter where we go or what we do, in eternity we will always be with him every moment. Those who have died before now get to have their preparation to live together with Yahuweh/Yehovah through death and into the resurrection at the end of the tribulation, but those who are alive on the earth up to when he comes and will be in the rapture have to have that preparation while they are still on the earth, of going through the process of knowing him to be ready to live with him.

And all of this leads to the one really exciting part of the latter rain which has not been touched upon yet or entered into its fullness yet anywhere around the world in a visible way. There are some who have begun to speak about it and prepare people for it a little bit, but this all leads to the wedding, when everyone who has died in Yeshua and in the covenant of Yahuweh/Yehovah from the creation of the world are all resurrected from the dead with new bodies to come to the wedding together with all those raptured, and everyone will enter into the eternal covenant with Yahuweh/Yehovah, which is the covenant of living together with him in his home for eternity, and the covenant of friendship with him for eternity.

Every living person and every generation since Adam and Chavvah (Eve) have been preparing for that future wedding day to enter into the fullness of the covenant with Yahuweh/Yehovah. Those who have failed to prepare in each generation will not be there at the wedding, because they decided they did not want to be there. But all those who have made the choice to go to the wedding and have prepared for it, all of the those in the resurrection of the righteous will be there for the wedding since the creation of the heavens and the earth. And the latter rain is what prepares those who are going to be in the rapture, who will not get to die and be in the resurrection, to be ready for the wedding also.

On September 3, 2019 Elizabeth Marie received a word from Yahuweh/Yehovah, in which he said, "I will protect you and keep you hidden under the shadow of my wing. Stay under them and do not seek other protection, except for me. I am doing a new thing; do you not feel it? I'm raising up an army to help me fight the end time spiritual battle. These warriors will be fearless and mighty. They will lead my people into victory and will overcome the wiles of the devil. Put on your full armor and come and join us in this war that is Spirit driven and Spirit fought. I will cover you with my mantle I have given you. I will give you authority to trample on the enemy; the scorpions and the serpents, there is nothing you cannot do when you activate your faith in me. Little ones, how I long to gather up my sheep, so all would be safe and secure. I longed that no one would be lost, but that all would come to me and seek me for comfort. The end time games are here and soon all that you know will disappear. It will be a time of great sorrow as many perish and get sick. But the enemy comes in to destroy; I also will rise up in my children to carry out my perfect will. Though it may not seem so, I am the victor and I will bring recompense with me. The enemy will think that he is on his way to winning the battle but I only laugh at his feeble attempts. I ultimately hold the keys to life and death and have all power over the enemy. Today choose life; choose light; choose righteousness; choose truth; choose justice; stay pure, humble, and clean before me. Confess your sins daily that you may become blameless and spotless. I will then give you the garments of white to enter my kingdom that is coming. Stay true my dear bride, your bridegroom comes. Yeshua haMashiach”

On September 15-16, 2019 Elizabeth Marie received several words from Yahuweh/Yehovah, including, “I am going to release upon my people a greater anointing.” Then Yahuweh/Yehovah gave her a message, saying, “Choose this day who you will serve. Are you serving me or are you serving yourself? Test yourself to see the conditions of your heart as the time is getting late and the date of the Lord appears suddenly. Do not wait to do any works for me. Today is the day for you to start to serve me, not tomorrow or the day after, but start today. Ask today what you can do for me and I will start leading you accordingly. If my people hear my voice then we will see a great move of the Holy Spirit fall upon those who are wretched, poor, and blind. My people are my eyes, my ears, and my hands. They will accomplish great feats of mercies, miracles, healings, and restoration to those who are needy. They will cast out demons, they will heal the sick, they will bring light where there is despair, they will bring peace where there is strife. I will anoint them to do this work if they ask and seek me for this new anointing. The curtain is closing and the last act of humanity is about to be played out. Don’t wait until the last curtain call, but start now to serve me. This is a call to bring in the final harvest, the latter rain, and end time revival. It will be different than any other revival, for it will be worldwide. This will then usher in my coming and the New Kingdom that is also coming. And this Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations. And then the end will come (Matthew 24:14). My sheep hear my voice, my virgins follow no other, my witnesses speak my truth, my watchmen sound the alarm, my prophets bring forth the warnings. Again I ask, choose this day who you will serve.”

The Hosea 6 part of the latter rain is now happening in its fullness, and is beginning to happen all over the world, but the Joel 2 part of the latter rain is still coming in the future, and will be an increase of Yahuweh/Yehovah pouring himself out in greater measure than anything that has ever been seen before.

Continuation of the Patterns of 17

In the first part of the Prophecy Countdown it was shown how a pattern in dates on Yahuweh/Yehovah’s Scriptural calendar was beginning to happen related to the number 17. This pattern is continuing even now, and it is all related to the nation of Israel and to the latter rain.

Patterns of 17

Gregorian Calendar Date	Corrected Hebrew Calendar Date	Event
October 8-9, 2017	17 th - 18 th Days of the 7 th Month 6017	Start of the Messiah's Confirmation of the Covenant with the Start of the Latter Rain Outpouring in Jerusalem at the Start of the Last Seven Years of the 70 Sevens from the Command by Suleiman I to Rebuild Jerusalem:
December 6, 2017	17 th Day of the 9 th Month 6017	America Recognizes Jerusalem as the Capital of Israel:
January 4, 2018	17 th Day of the 10 th Month 6017	A Flood of Rain Comes in Answer to the Prayer for Rain as the First Day of Rain of the Latter Rain of the Rainy Season Begins for the Nation of Israel:
February 23, 2019	17 th - 18 th Days of the 12 th Month 6018	The Gathering of The Send in Orlando, Florida where at the Time of the Latter Rain They Prayed for Yahuweh/Yehovah to Send the Rain of His Spirit, and it Began to Actually Rain After Sunset on the 18th Day of the 12th Month, in the Same Pattern as the Rain Arriving in Jerusalem on the 18th Day of the 7th Month and as a Sign that the Latter Rain Final Revival Harvest of the Earth has Reached America and Franklin Graham was Also Finishing His Evangelistic Tour of Australia in Sydney on the Same Days:

March 25, 2019	17 th Day of the 13 th Month 6018	America's Recognition of the Golan Heights as the Sovereign Territory of the Nation of Israel:
July 20-21, 2019 Approximately After Sunset July 20	17 th Day of the 4 th Month 6019	'Slaughter the Jews' Written Opposite the Site of the Set-apart Place on the Western Wall in Jerusalem:
September 17, 2019	17 th Day of the 6 th Month 6019	Second Israeli Election of 2019 to Determine if the People of Israel want to Annex the Jordan Valley in the West Bank, which Resulted in the Start of Israel's Internal Civil War Struggle as the People of Israel Choose to Follow Yahuweh/Yehovah or Follow the Beast:

One part of the patterns of 17 is Yahuweh/Yehovah pouring himself out in the latter rain, beginning in Jerusalem and Israel. And from that date of the 17th to 18th days of the 7th month 6017 there has been a continuation of events surrounding the latter rain on the 17th day of different months up to The Send on the 17th to 18th days of the 12th month 6018.

But more importantly, there is a pattern of events on the dates of the 17th of the month related to the nation of Israel and Yahuweh/Yehovah's covenant with the Jewish people and the land of Israel. It was on the 17th day of the 9th month 6017 that President Donald Trump recognized Jerusalem as the capital of Israel, and then again on the 17th day of the 13th month 6018 President Donald Trump recognized the Golan Heights as Israeli territory. Trump could have chosen any dates on the calendar to make these two declarations concerning Israel's right to their land according to Yahuweh/Yehovah's covenant with them in Scripture. Yet he happened to choose dates that on Yahuweh/Yehovah's calendar were both on the 17th days of the month.

And again on the 17th day of the 4th month 6019 some Palestinian teenagers wrote 'Slaughter the Jews' in graffiti on the Western Wall at one of the nearest points to the place where the most set-apart place of the Temple once stood on the Temple Mount as an attack against Yahuweh/Yehovah's sovereignty over the city of Jerusalem and his covenant with his people to have that city. This is very important because it is a literal sign painted on the wall of the coming attack against Israel and the Jewish people worldwide, like the signs that happened before the Holocaust. (For the last 8 years anti-Semitism around the world has been at higher and worse levels than at any time in the 1930's before the Holocaust.)

And the fact that this anti-Semitic graffiti attack was done on the foundation of the set-apart place of the Temple Mount in Jerusalem so close to where the most set-apart place was located shows another step toward Yahuweh/Yehovah lowering his protection to let the disgusting abomination idol come into his beloved city at some point.

<https://lidblog.com/western-wall-defaced/>

And then on the 17th day of the 6th month 6019 was Israel's second election, which is of grave importance for the nation of Israel in the last days. Netanyahu announced before the election that if he were voted in with a clear mandate of a 61 seat majority of right wing parties he would annex the Jordan Valley in the West Bank to be officially part of the State of Israel. Again this date of the 17th when the elections were held was made as a focus surrounding Israel's land and its right to exist under Yahuweh/Yehovah's covenant. All 4 of these dates on the 17th of various months are connected with Israel's land and the city of Jerusalem, and the attack coming against it to prevent Yahuweh/Yehovah's covenant with his people from being fulfilled.

One of the most important of all of these dates on the 17th is the second Israeli election, because it is the beginning of Israel's civil war to make their choice to follow Yahuweh/Yehovah or to follow the worldly system of the Beast that is rising around the world. The results of the election put the Israeli government into such a deadlock of internal civil war, it shows how divided the people of Israel are, and it shows the clear choice that they are going to have to make now as a nation to be for Yahuweh/Yehovah or against him.

One part of the elections concerned the Jordan Valley piece of land in the West Bank, which is of huge prophetic significance in Obadiah 1:15-21 concerning the Day of Yahuweh/Yehovah and of his coming to rule over the earth. There are several areas of land mentioned in this prophecy, one being Philistia, which is currently mostly controlled by the Palestinians in the Gaza Strip. The other pieces of land are the tribal land of Ephrayim, the land of Shomeron (Samaria), and the tribal land of Binyamin, which are all of the exact pieces of land where the Palestinians are living in the West Bank today. These are all places that are prophesied for Yahuweh/Yehovah's nation of Israel to take over and inhabit at his coming (the definition of Israel at that time according to Isaiah 11 meaning all those biological descendants of all 12 tribes of Israel who are believers in Yeshua together with every gentile believer in Yeshua living as one nation).

This stretch of land in the Jordan Valley Netanyahu referred to is a significant piece of land in prophecy. But even more importantly, the Israeli election is about the nation of Israel choosing if they want to go toward living according to Yahuweh/Yehovah's ways and his covenant or toward the world system of the Beast, which will place the disgusting idol at the set-apart place. The Ultra-Orthodox in Israel have done some very bad, anti-Torah things in the nation, such as excluding themselves from military service, which is anti-Torah according to Numbers 1:3, and throwing stones at people driving in cars on the Sabbath, which is anti-Torah according to Yahuweh/Yehovah's commands concerning the judges which say that first a trial has to be conducted to prove guilt, and only a Judge over Israel can determine a punishment for breaking Sabbath after guilt has been proven. (And it is questionable that driving around in a car on the Sabbath day is even a breach of Yahuweh/Yehovah's Sabbath commands in the Torah, since a car is not an animal that needs rest.)

But the Sabbath on the seventh day of the week on Saturday is still Yahuweh/Yehovah's Sabbath, and it is the only Sabbath in Scripture which he instructs us to keep. There is no other Sabbath on any other day of the week mentioned in Scripture and there is nowhere in Scripture that Yahuweh/Yehovah has changed the Sabbath to any other day of the week. It is a blessing to keep his Sabbath on his day of the week that he has chosen, because it is a day of acknowledging him as Elohim (God) and getting to spend the day with him without any other responsibilities except to be together with him resting.

Leviticus 23 is the most complete listing of all of Yahuweh/Yehovah's appointed times or appointments, in Hebrew masculine plural mo'adey מועדי or mo'adim מועדים. The prophecy in Daniel 7 was originally written down in Aramaic, not Hebrew; and in order to understand it from the Hebrew perspective it has to be translated into the Hebrew understanding of the Aramaic words. Daniel 7:24-25 in Aramaic records that the Little Horn in the last days that rises from the 10 horns of the Final Beast will 'intend to change the zimnin זמנין. The Aramaic word here zimnin means appointments or appointed times, the exact same meaning as the Hebrew word mo'adey in Leviticus 23. The Little Horn and the Beast will try to change the appointed times or festivals in Leviticus 23, including the weekly Sabbaths on the seventh day of the week, either by changing the day they are kept, the way they are kept, or abolishing them altogether and replacing them with something else.

The Blue and White Party in Israel was formed by combining the three parties Israel Resilience (headed by Benny Gantz), Yesh Atid (headed by Yair Lapid), and Telem (headed by Moshe Ya'alon) to become a secular, centrist, liberal party in the elections. Yair Lapid as a leader in this party has stated that they intend to revoke the Sabbath laws in Israel, to abolish and do away with the Sabbath. By removing the laws to keep the Sabbath on the seventh day of the week it would mean that businesses would be open on that day, and those who want to keep the Sabbath would be forced to give up the Sabbath to keep their jobs if their employers demanded they work on Sabbath. This is an intention to change and do away with the appointed times, to make Israel like every other nation on earth under servitude to the Beast system that does not allow people the guarantee to have Sabbath on any particular day.

Israel will have to make a choice now as a nation if they want to keep Yahuweh/Yehovah's Sabbath on the seventh day of the week or abolish the Sabbath all together as the Beast requires. This is the spirit of the anti-messiah as John writes in 1 John that is entering into the nation of Israel, and now the people of Israel are going to have to fight this out between them who they will serve, the Beast or Yahuweh/Yehovah. Do they want to keep the Sabbath or do away with the Sabbath? Do they want to give up more of Yahuweh/Yehovah's land in a 2 state solution or do they want to go with Yahuweh/Yehovah's plan, which is ultimately to accept his Yeshua as Messiah, and live as one nation Israel together with all of the Palestinians accepting Yeshua as Messiah. The Palestinians have to make their choice too if they will go with Yahuweh/Yehovah or against him in his plan for the land of Israel.

In the letter of 1 John, John writes about how there will be many anti-messiahs who will come before the final anti-messiah, who is the Little Horn. And they will do things that are shadows of the final anti-messiah. There have possibly already been tens of thousands of anti-messiahs who have come in the last 1,900 years. But the control system of the Beast is now beginning to try to enter into Israel and take over their government, to make Israel like the nations and no longer set-apart to Yahuweh/Yehovah. The spirit of the anti-messiah is already doing battle for the hearts and minds of the Jewish people, and Yahuweh/Yehovah is also fighting for them, to keep them out of the Beast. This is the beginning of the internal civil war in Israel that will lead eventually to the disgusting idol being placed at the set-apart place, as some in Israel will want the Beast and open the door to let the Beast come in for a time, which will result in a lot of war and destruction and the need to flee from Yehudah (Judea) around Jerusalem as Yeshua says in Matthew 24. If the Beast starts to try to take control in any part of Israel, especially Jerusalem, with some kind of disgusting idol and removing of the continual, that is definitely reason to get out of the way of any worshipping of the Beast that might take place at that time.

A Second Civil War in America

There is a second American Civil War which is already happening in its beginning stages. As with the previous Civil War, it is a war that will be fought between those who want the will of Yahuweh/Yehovah to be done on earth according to Yahuweh/Yehovah's interpretation of Scripture, and those who want to rebel against Yahuweh/Yehovah, to live life according to their own desires to do evil.

The first Civil War was all about removing from America the form of slavery practiced in the nation that was against the Torah and not allowed by Yahuweh/Yehovah in Scripture. And it really was about slavery, because the south was trying to force all of the states to legalize slavery against their will. Even in the Confederate Constitution they forced every state in the Confederacy to legalize slavery, even if it had not been legal in any of the states before. It was a prerequisite for participating in the Confederate States. This second Civil War will again revolve around issues of sin and unrighteousness in the culture, but instead of slavery it will be issues like abortion and the direction that the American people want to go in, toward Yahuweh/Yehovah or away from him, as a nation.

Slavery is still practiced globally around the world today. Slavery is currently the second largest form of business and trade in the global economy, second only to drugs. The Civil War in America did not stop slavery around the world, and some nations even today practice forms of slavery that are even more evil than the slavery that was practiced in America in the 1700's – 1800's. And they are even now trying to import their slavery back into America and nations in Europe with an underground slave trade exploiting people smuggling. Keeping aware of this issue of slavery, which is just as bad today as it has ever been since the days of the first Civil War, now we have another Civil War beginning in America, which includes other issues on top of the slavery that is currently being imported into America from other nations.

The heart of the this current Civil War happening in America now will be a spiritual war between those who want to live life according to Yahuweh/Yehovah's instruction and will in the Torah and the Gospels, or those who want to live their own rebellious lives according to their own will, just like the slave owners in the south who wanted to live life their own way against Yahuweh/Yehovah's will. And the war will be between the people of America deciding whether they want to live according to Yahuweh/Yehovah's Hebrew (crossing over out of the world) culture in Scripture, or the culture of the world created and made by mankind in direct opposition to Yahuweh/Yehovah's culture. The two cultures are directly opposed and cannot continue together. A separation has to occur between the people following the opposite directions, and that is when Civil War on various levels is the inevitable result. Either one side has to force the other side to follow its culture in order to stay a united nation (which is what the north did in forcing the south to give up slavery), or the nation has to divide and the people go in opposite directions.

On January 23, 2019 Lois Vogel-Sharpe received a word from Yahuweh/Yehovah concerning Civil War in which he said, “Will you look to the world or will you look to me for your answers? The time has come to pay attention to my true prophets and listen to what is about to happen. Take heed, for the abortion laws are looking to override the federal government, and will each state secede from the nation so that they can continue to murder my babies. Woe to my state that does this abomination in my sight. If you decide to choose your own way to the point where you will overrule the nation you once loved and followed, you have gone over the edge of the precipice and will fall. You with your free will have no idea that you have come against my laws, and no one can ignore the law of the lawmaker and live. You choose each day death or life, for an eternity with my foe is death, and is that what you want to be forever, where no one loves anyone and no one cares what you suffer. Woe to mankind for her arrogance and determination to walk out of my kingdom and into your own. This is what will destroy your spirit and doom you to everlasting fire. Why Oh why would you choose such a place just to allow the murder of the unborn. Time to seriously think about the choice you are making to secede from a government that is trying to right the wrongs. A sad day for mankind who is created in my image. Those who oppose this law are the ones you will consider reprobate. How can anyone think that murder could be justified of the innocent. All life is precious, whether in the womb or outside the womb. No one has the right to murder another human being for the sake of snuffing away their life. Time to listen to truth, justice, and the American way that used to be correct. The Spirit has spoken.”

And on December 14, 2018 Rick Joyner had a dream in which he saw a movie played in front of him about the Revolutionary War and about the Civil War and how a Second American Revolutionary/Civil War is beginning now. There were other details in the dream, but the basic concept that was explained to him in the dream was that because America did not deal with all of its unrighteousness in the Revolutionary War, the Civil War had to come. And then again because America did not deal with all of its unrighteousness in the Civil War, now a Second Revolutionary/Civil War has to come as Yahuweh/Yehovah will be dealing with cleaning up America from the unrighteousness which has not been dealt with for the last over 200 years.

The current Civil War in America is already being played out in multiple levels, including:

Spiritual – The spiritual part of the war is where the foundations of the real war is being played out. It is the fight on many levels about the morality of America and what the people believe and whose standard of morality will they follow. Will they follow Yahuweh/Yehovah’s eternal, never changing morality or the wishy-washy, ever changing morality of mankind.

Cultural – The cultural war is where the spiritual war is played out primarily in the physical realm. It is fought throughout every aspect of day to day life; it is the war of ideas and the war for the way people think about life, and who they will serve as their master, Yahuweh/Yehovah or the world.

Political – Even though the Civil War in America is happening in the political places of government, it actually has nothing to do with politics. It is all about righteousness versus unrighteousness; it is the fight between the ways of Yahuweh/Yehovah in Scripture and the ways of the world which are directly opposed to Scripture, as it is played out in the laws of the nation.

Since 2018 this Civil War has been growing in all three of these areas, up to its culmination in November 2018 with the Supreme Court nominations when the Civil War began to reach the highest levels of violence since the first Civil War when Senator Charles Sumner was beaten with a cane on the Senate Floor by Representative Preston Brooks in 1856.

At the time of the Civil War the Confederate States were seceding from the Federal Government of the United States in Washington D.C. And again, like before, states are already beginning to secede from the federal government, just one step away from seceding from the union of states under the federal government. New York Governor Cuomo gave a speech to that effect on December 17, 2018, declaring New York's cessation from the federal government, and declaring the start of New York's revolution against the federal government, combining a repetition of both the American Revolution in 1776 and the Civil War in 1861.

It is both a revolution and a civil war being fought in America, and it has already begun on multiple levels as can be seen in Cuomo's speech, as he said, "Ladies and gentlemen, this nation is in crisis. The social fabric is fraying and it is nearing its breaking point. We are under federal assault as individuals and as a state. We must stand up to this tyranny once again, not with muskets the way our founders did, but with our voices and our votes and with the power and example of our actions here in New York. As our forefathers rebelled against England, resenting the King's values and abuse, let us announce New York's rebellion from the current federal policy. My friends, let this agenda be New York's Declaration of Independence. We declare independence from this federal government's policies. We disconnect from the nationalism and the racism and the chaos and the xenophobia and the misogyny and the discrimination and the dissembling of this Washington Administration. My friends, we proclaim our federal government's policy not only regressive, not only repugnant to New York values, we declare it un-American. We're going to pass this progressive agenda as New York's restoration of true democracy, restoring fairness, progress, and pride. And we're going to show what it means when people and government are guided by their better angels. And we're going to show what a nation can be when we are at our best. Let us show this nation what we can get done, the change we can make, the lives we can better. Let us remind people there's nothing that we can't accomplish when we work together. We are New Yorkers. We do it all. We do it better. We do it first. And let us be inspired by FDR's 1933 New Deal and do it in the first 100 days. Together we can. Together we must. Together we will. And FDR will look down and smile on all of us. Thank you and God bless you."

Shortly after this speech in which Governor Cuomo said "God bless you" he cursed God's children in the womb by making it legal for God's children to be murdered all the way up to the end of a woman's pregnancy. This speech by governor Cuomo exposes much of the heart of the Civil War in America, as Cuomo and those who agree with him define American values as the right to murder human beings in the womb all the way up to the late term of pregnancy. And anyone who stands against abortion like Donald Trump is un-American, according to them. They are drawing their line in the sand, saying that they refuse to be part of a nation where abortion and the murder of human beings in the womb is illegal. Those who want to live in a nation without abortion are not welcome to live in the same nation with Governor Cuomo and those who agree with him. A division has begun in America on this issue and many others that are all related to morality and righteousness. And to resolve the issues there has to be war that results in either America breaking apart into separate countries, or one side forcing the other side to live according to their culture in the same way the north forced the south to stop slavery. The Civil War could have happened differently, with the south winning and the north forced to accept slavery or neither side winning and both becoming separate nations with the south retaining slavery.

The second Civil War in America is growing now in earnest with movements to stand for the culture and righteousness of Yahuweh/Yehovah in Scripture without compromise as seen through the recent works and stands by Dr. Michael Brown and Jonathan Cahn and many others in 2018. And as in the first Civil War there were fears of Lincoln's assassination from supporters of the south wanting to kill him for years before Booth succeeded, the same is beginning to happen now concerning President Trump. Hopefully this time no assassinations will be tried or will be successful.

Everyone will have to choose which side they will want to take a stand on, for Yahuweh/Yehovah or against him. To be a friend of the world is to be an enemy of Yahuweh/Yehovah and no one can serve both masters at the same time, or else they will be spewed out as the lukewarm (Matthew 6; James 4; Revelation 3). It is really the same Civil War that has been happening on the earth for thousands of years since the choice of the man and the woman in the garden to choose between good and evil. But the current Civil War in America is one that is very vital as Yeshua's return comes closer and the Beast that is reviving is becoming stronger. This Civil War in America will determine how much control and power the Beast will have over America in the future. And all the nations of the world will be having their own Civil Wars to determine the degree of control the Beast will have in each nation.

This is the civil war of the apostasia, the turning against. There are those who choose to walk together with Yahuweh/Yehovah and go together with him in his direction of living, and then there are those who turn against his way, to walk the opposite direction against him. This has been the battle, going in opposite directions since the garden, but when the apostasia in 2 Thessalonians 2 reaches its fullness is when the culture of the world has gone completely against Yahuweh/Yehovah, when the tide has turned so strongly to go in the opposite direction against him, that it is like before the flood when Yahuweh/Yehovah had to reset the world in order to stop the evil that mankind had become. We are living in the days when globally the tide is now turning so hard in opposition against Yahuweh/Yehovah and his ways, the world is already beginning to enter a point of no return from which there is no salvation except through Yahuweh/Yehovah himself intervening.

Those who stand for Yahuweh/Yehovah and his culture in Scripture, revealed deeply in the Torah and the Gospels, must stand in love, especially love for those who hate them and are enemies against them. Because love is the heart of who Yahuweh/Yehovah is, and only when his love comes through the practice of every one of his words spoken in Scripture are his words able to be done correctly. Anything without love is worthless and will come to nothing (Leviticus 19; Deuteronomy 6; Matthew 22; I Corinthians 13; 1 John 4-5).

There is another aspect to the second Civil War happening in America now that could still be coming:

Physical Violence/Military – In the vision that Dumitru Duduman had of a nuclear strike on America, destroying cities in California, Florida, and New York and the city of Las Vegas, the messenger who gave Yahuweh/Yehovah's words to him to warn America said that right before the attack on America comes, the government will be distracted with internal problems and there will be some in the midst of the country who will rise up in a revolution to fight against the government. Right before the nuclear attack comes, the American government is completely divided internally with so many problems, they are distracted on focusing on those problems (like the government today). And at that time there is a revolutionary civil war that breaks out within the country, as people become more violent against the government. In some form there is still coming more military style and physically violent fighting in America's current Civil War. And when that moment comes, when there is actual violent warfare in some form as a revolution and civil war by some in the country attempting to overthrow or secede from the Federal Government, that is when a nuclear strike on America by Russia and its allies in Central and South America is imminent.

If the second Civil War happening now in America cannot be resolved peacefully in the culture and in the government, if it cannot be resolved in the war of ideas in the conversation and discourse of the nation, then unfortunately the only course left open will be a violent split of the nation through a military conflict in some form. In these days of nuclear weapons it is difficult to see exactly how such a conflict would take place, other than that Yahuweh/Yehovah is in control and he may have other plans to make America spiritually and morally great again through the humbling fires of tribulation and persecution.

Revelation Seals Update

In 2019 the first four seals of the white horse (political warfare), the red horse (military warfare), and the black horse (economic warfare), have begun to spread and increase across the earth as the Beast begins to use these weapons to take more power. Politically the governments of nations around the world are going into more and more civil war, as the Beast system of power begins to try both democratically and through revolution to take more power in the nations around the world. The political war in both Israel and the United Kingdom became very serious in September 2019, and the revolutionary movements beginning with climate change.

Militarily the strikes and attacks and skirmishes and proxy wars are growing and becoming more serious, especially in the Middle East in September 2019. The military strikes on the oil industry being played out have reached a new level of direct conflict between nations not seen before, as the Beast continues to use military means to take more control and bring the nations into alignment under its central power.

And economically the global economy continues to slowly collapse in its managed decline, reaching a new critical point in September 2019 when billions of dollars had to be infused into the banks to allow them to be able to continue lending and borrowing. The Beast is preparing the economy for what it is believing will be a managed collapse of the global economy to put in place new digital economic systems with greater control over who can buy and sell. (Of course Yahuweh/Yehovah may have different plans of judgment in his collapsing of the economy over the head of the Beast.)

<https://en.rodexo.com/2019/09/18/for-the-second-day-in-a-row-the-new-york-fed-injected-billions-of-dollars-into-the-market/>

And even the chaos and famine and death of the sickly, pale horse may be increasing soon with the loss of crops across America and China and other places around the world in 2019. But all of the seals began to happen on a more global level together in unison in greater measure in September 2019, as the Beast began taking more steps towards rising to power to take more control of the nations around the earth. In September 2019 birth pains began to hit every area of life around the world, from the culture to politics and war, from the economy and agriculture (food) to natural disasters like Hurricane Dorian’s devastation of the Bahamas. Every area of life and every area of Yeshua’s warnings in Matthew 24 and Luke 17 and 21 all took a hit and experienced simultaneous birth pains in a new intensity that will probably continue to increase throughout the rest of 2019 and into 2020.

Reference Notes

Concerning the Daniel 8:11-14 Rebellion of Desolation at the Temple Mount on June 14, 2018

I was wanting to leave the interpretation open for the counting of the 2,300 evening morning, so as not to put the counting of time in the Daniel 8 prophecy in a box and miss it if it happened a different way from how I might expect. But after the events of 2017 a possibility I was looking at was that perhaps in about May to June 2018 there might be a rebellion desolating event in Jerusalem connected to or in fulfillment of Daniel 8:11-14. When I saw that Ramadan was going to correspond to that time frame, right after the opening of the American Embassy in Jerusalem, I took note of it and made sure to watch just in case anything of importance happened.

I watched but nothing happened that I could see, so I figured that the Daniel 8 prophecy was not going to happen anytime soon. But then I saw a video online where someone had put together a timeline of prophetic events, and they just happened to have the Daniel 8 events of the rebellion desolating taking place within the timeframe I had been watching in June 2018, but predicting it as a future event the following week. Then I had the thought that what if the Daniel 8 prophecy did already happen in Jerusalem in the May to June timeframe I had been watching, but I and everyone else on planet earth had all missed it.

So I looked at the NASA calculations of the moon for the year 2024 to find an approximate range as to when the Day of Trumpets (the 1st day of the 7th month) might happen that year. And I found the date of October 4, 2024 as one possible day that the new moon might be sighted for the Day of Trumpets and then counted backwards 2,300 days. And the calculation arrived at June 18, 2018. Then I looked at the day’s date to see what day it was, and it just happened to be June 18, 2018. Then I knew that something important was happening, and I told my family that we need to watch for anything in Jerusalem within a day of the date of June 18, 2018 (because days on Yahuweh/Yehovah’s calendar begin at sunset and do not follow the midnight timing of Gregorian calendar dates).

And that is when, the next day, my brother came across a news story written on June 17, 2018 about a few days earlier when Waqf workers snuck onto the Temple Mount in the middle of the night during Ramadan to illegally destroy an excavation site in order to remodel and build a new structure on the Temple Mount.

“During Ramadan Ban of Jews on Temple Mount, Waqf Workers Destroyed Temple Artifacts” (June 17, 2018) by JINI Media, Breaking Israel News

<https://www.breakingisraelnews.com/109503/during-ramadan-ban-of-jews-on-temple-mount-waqf-workers-destroyed-temple-artifacts-watch/>

This was the only thing that we found, and I thought that it was interesting that something happened at the Temple Mount on June 14, 2018, but I did not think anything of it at first. The outward appearance of what happened on the Temple Mount did not seem to be anything significant, but then I suddenly remembered in my in-depth studying of the Daniel 8 prophecy that it is all about an attack to the foundation of the set-apart place, not to the set-apart place itself. This is one of the defining parts of the Daniel 8 prophecy that makes it different from the Daniel 11 prophecy about the disgusting abomination idol that desolates (instead of a rebellion or transgression that desolates in Daniel 8). And from there as I read through the article, in an instant every piece of the Daniel 8 prophecy started downloading in my brain connecting up in perfect precision with everything that happened in the event of the night of June 14, 2018. And per my covenant I had made with Yahuweh/Yehovah a couple years before that I would accept any fulfillment of any prophecy that he supernaturally showed me no matter what without any preconditions, I chose to honor my agreement with him and accept this fulfillment he showed me.

If I had gone looking for something that happened in Jerusalem on or close to the date of June 14, 2018 I and my family would never have found what happened on that day, because the very first news report on earth published in the English language about what happened on June 14 was not written until June 17. It was only because I was looking around the date of June 18 that my family was able to find the event of June 14. And if Yahuweh/Yehovah had not supernaturally intervened to give me direction on how to look for what happened I would have missed the event of June 14 like everyone else, because only two official news agencies even reported on it in English. There might have been other news reports in Hebrew or another language, but only two main news companies in English. This is because the event of June 14 was done under the cover of darkness, and even now there is no way to know what might have been forever lost or destroyed that had been sitting there in the foundation of the set-apart place on the Temple Mount for thousands of years.

It is important to note that the date of the completion of 2,300 evening morning has nothing to do with Yeshua's return. It only has to do with the restoration of set-apartness (holiness) in some form after the completion of its counting.
